Joe Price Is Honored On Third Birthday

Mrs. R. L. Church entertained at an informal dinner Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at her home on Gwyn Avenue, honoring her grandson, Joe Price, on his third birthday anniversary.

Roses and sweet peas were used in the appointments of the table, which was centered with a handsome birthday cake, decorated in pink and white, and topped with three candles.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Church and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Price, grandparents and parents of the honor guest, covers were placed for Mrs. W. J. Price, Misses Virginia, Polly and Mary Gale Price and Misses Minnie and Madge Russell.

The honoree received many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Ray Is Bride of Mr. Triplett Sunday

Of cordial interest is the wedding of Mrs. Esther Ray of Elkin and Statesville, and Thomas L. Triplett, of Van Nuys, California, which was solemnized Sunday at 12:30 in the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Gilliam, the latter a niece of the bride, in Statesville. Rev. Frank C. Hawkins, pastor of the First Baptist church of Statesville, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The ceremony was performed in the living room before an improvised altar of white gladioli and cathedral candles against a background of English ivy.

There were no attendants. The bride wore a dress of navy chiffon with accessories of navy. Her shoulder bouquet was of talisman roses and valley lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam entertained at a luncheon for the wedding guests which included only members of the families and a few close friends.

Mrs. Triplett, a native of Des Moines, Iowa, has made her home here for a number of years and during her residence here has been active in religious and civic work.

Mr. Triplett is a native of North Carolina, and a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Triplett, of Jonesville. He has resided in California for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Triplett left during the afternoon for California, where they will make their home.

Among those from here who attended the wedding were Mrs. Lorene Snow Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stewart, Miss Ethel Gilliam, Mrs. Lucille Snow Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Lawrence and R. L. Mills.

Baptist Circles in Regular Meetings

The circles of the W. M. U. of the First Baptist church met Monday and Tuesday in the following homes:

The Neal Young circle met with Mrs. S. O. Maguire, with 10 members and two visitors present. Mrs. I. C. Yates conducted the devotionals and presented an interesting program on "The Field of the World."

The Naomi Shell circle met with Mrs. T. V. Cockerham, with Mesdames W. T. Carter and A. J. Sloop associate hostesses, with 18 members present. One new member, Mrs. F. T. Shoaf, was enrolled.

Mrs. W. T. Carter conducted the devotionals and Mrs. T. W. Church taught the mission study lesson.

The Emma Leechman circle met with Mrs. R. P. Crater, with Mrs. W. S. Sale associate hostesses, with 16 members and three visitors present. Mrs. F. N. Norman and Mrs. F. A. Brendle gave the devotionals and Mrs. Norman gave the program.

The Rosalee Appleby circle met with Mrs. Herbert Madison with 10 members and three visitors present. Two new members, Misses Roxie Bowen and Inez Hinshaw, were enrolled.

Mrs. G. L. Hill conducted the devotionals and the program was presented by Miss Lee Mae Lowery, assisted by Mrs. Garland Johnson, Mrs. Gaither Sprinkle and Miss Roxie Bowen.

The Pauline Moore circle met with Mrs. Herman Royall with 14 members and one visitor, Miss Claudia Austin, present. Mrs. Woodrow Weatherman conducted the devotionals and Miss Lexa Cummings, assisted by Mrs. Dallas Gilliam, Mrs. Guy Stinson, Miss Etta Mathis and Mrs. Junior Kennedy, presented the program.

The Pearl Johnson circle met with Mrs. C. N. Myers, with 12 members present. Mrs. Fred Harris presided over the meeting and Mrs. J. D. Jones conducted the devotionals. The program was in charge of Mrs. Leslie Reinhardt, assisted by Mesdames Fred Harris, Freer Adams, June Robertson, Beatrice Myers Phillips and Miss Mattie Mae Powell.

The Edith Adair circle met with Misses Lucy and Agnes Gray with 13 members present. Mrs. John Sears conducted the devotionals and the program was presented by Misses Minnie Ruth McNeill, Beatrice Burcham, Hazel Byrd and Mrs. Jack Terrell. The closing prayer was by Miss Hazel Byrd.

During a pleasant social hour the hostesses served tempting refreshments.

JORDON TO BEGIN REVIVAL MEETING

Rev. B. C. Jordan, of Roaring River, will begin a series of revival meetings June 16 in a tent one mile northeast of Roaring River, on old highway 268. Services will be held each evening at 7:30. Several ministers will assist in the meetings, which will continue for some time.

The tent in which the revival will be held was recently bought by Rev. Jordan through donations from friends, and he expresses to each one who contributed to this cause his sincere thanks.

A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

To Hold Turtle Race At Mount Airy June 15th

Mount Airy.—The first turtle race ever held in this section of the south on an official course is slated to be held at Reddick field in Mount Airy on Saturday afternoon, June 15th. More than 150 native turtles from the swift-running mountain streams of the foothills of the Blue Ridge mountains in Piedmont North Carolina will be entered in the race.

Sponsored by the Quality Oil Company, over 75 oil dealers in Surry, Wilkes, Yadkin and Stokes counties in North Carolina and Patrick and Carroll counties in Virginia will take part in the classic, according to a statement this week by Martin Bennett, local oil man and sportsman, who will direct the races.

An official race circle with a radius of 32 feet from the turtle barrier in the center will be the score of the racing hardshells. Eighteen judges, posted ten feet apart, will make the official decisions as to the winning racers. Each Shell dealer in the above-named counties will be allowed one entry, and a total of $50 in cash prizes will be awarded the owners of the winning turtles.

Plans are being made for a radio broadcast of the race over the Mutual Broadcasting System, and, according to Mr. Bennett's statement, a Paramount newsreel outfit will be on hand to film the tactics of the circling reptiles. Tickets for the race may be had free by calling at any Shell station in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Reinhardt and children visited friends and relatives in Winston-Salem Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell had as their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dobbins and children, of Booneville.

There is a revival, meeting in progress at the Longtown Holiness church, conducted by the Rev. John D. Shore, of Durham. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Good Appetite
Mistress (to cook)—Bridget, I don't like to mention it, but it seems to me that the food in the kitchen disappears very rapidly.
Bridget—Well, ma'am, Ah admits Ah has a good hearty appetite, but no one has ever accused me of bein' gorgeous.
