SOCIETY

Miss Myers, Bride-Elect, Is Feted Tuesday Evening

Miss Amy Catherine Myers, of this city, who will be married to Clyde Rudd, of Henderson, in mid-summer, was honored with a progressive dinner party Tuesday evening, with members of the Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church as hostesses. The guests met at the home of Mrs. Garland Johnson on Church street, where they were served frozen fruit cocktail. Covers were placed for twenty-four at small tables. The flowers and place cards were in bridal design. Corsages of old fashioned flowers were presented the guests.

The main dinner was served at the home of Mrs. Thomas G. Harris on West Main street. Pastel flowers were used in attractive arrangement throughout the home. Dinner was served buffet style.

The dessert course was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Myers, on West Main street. The bridal colors of green and white were carried out in detail, both in the dessert and the decorations. The event was climaxed with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Myers by members of the group.

A number of vocal selections by Misses Elizabeth Beddingfield and Kay Lee Walker, soloists, were enjoyed, during the evening.

Mrs. Joe Bivins Heads Legion Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. D. C. Martin on West Main street, with Mesdames Fred McNeely and Beatrice Myers Phillips associate hostesses, with 12 members present.

The meeting opened with the ritual, with the president, Mrs. Ruth Byrd Crater, presiding. During the business hour routine reports were heard, which included the Poppy sale on May 25, which amounted to $95.00. The auxiliary voted a donation of $25.00 to the American Red Cross to aid in the war relief fund.

Officers were elected for the coming year by a unanimous vote as follows: President, Mrs. Joe Bivins; vice-president, Mrs. F. W. Graham; secretary, Mrs. T. W. Church; treasurer, Miss Mattie Mae Powell; chaplain, Mrs. Fred Colhard; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Beatrice Myers Phillips; and historian, Mrs. H. B. Holcomb. Mrs. Joe Bivins and Mrs. T. W. Church were named as delegates to the state convention in High Point June 23 through the 25, and Mrs. George Royall and Mrs. Edworth Harris were named as alternates. Mrs. Marion Allen, assistant 13th district committeewoman, was named as delegate at large.

An inspiring program on Flag Day was presented by Mrs. Fred McNeely, assisted by Mrs. F. W. Graham and Mrs. D. C. Martin. An ice course was served during a pleasant social hour.
