Methodist Circle to Meet This Evening

Circle number four of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet this evening (Thursday) at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. Fred Colhard on Church street, with Miss Mayme Blackwood associate hostess. All members are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Harris is Club Hostess Friday Evening

Mrs. Edworth Harris entertained members of the Round Dozen Book Club at a dessert-rook Friday evening at her home on West Main street. Three tables were placed for the games in the living room amid a colorful setting of garden flowers. Table prizes were awarded at the conclusion of the play to Miss Mattie Mae Powell, Mrs. T. A. Leeper and Mrs. H. B. Holcomb. Mrs. Elizabeth Jordan Abernethy of Hamlet, guest of Mrs. L. I. Wade, who was the only guest outside of the club members, was presented a handkerchief.

Mrs. Allen is Club Hostess Thursday

Mrs. Marion Allen delightfully entertained members of the Thursday Morning Contract club and several visitors at a lovely morning party and luncheon Thursday at her home on Church street. Bridge was played in the forenoon with the club award for high score going to Mrs. Paul Gwyn and the visitor's prize to Mrs. T. C. Bowie, of West Jefferson, who was the guest of Mrs. E. W. McDaniel. Luncheon was served at the conclusion of the play. The dining room table was

Women get "Build-up"

A good way to relieve periodic discomfort from functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, such as headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain, many women find is by using CARDUI. It usually sharpens appetite, increases flow of gastric juices, and so aids digestion, helps build resistance to periodic distress. Another way CARDUI may help you: Take it a few days before and during "the time." CARDUI has been popular for 50 years.

beautifully decorated with mixed garden flowers.

Guests in addition to club members were: Mesdames T. C. Bowie, E. W. McDaniel, T. F. Cooley and D. G. Smith.

Class Holds Organization Meeting

A class of young girls of the Presbyterian Sunday school held an organization meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dan Barbour on Elk Spur street. Nine members of the class and one visitor, Miss Barbara Green, of Mt. Airy, were present. Miss Mary Gale Price was elected president of the group and Miss Rachel Caudill was named as secretary-treasurer.

At the close of the business session a number of games and contests were enjoyed. Ice cream and cookies were served during the afternoon.

Presbyterian Circle Meets With Mrs. W. J. Price

Circle number one of the Presbyterian church met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. J. Price on Gwyn Avenue, with 18 members present. Mrs. Lathan Mills conducted the devotionals and the program, on "Christian Attitudes," was in charge of Miss Florence Eldridge, assisted by Mesdames Ted Brown, Dan Barbour, O. D. Causey and Lathan Mills.

Two new members, Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Sr., and Mrs. Bessie Pruitt, were welcomed into the circle.

Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Poindexter Entertain Fortnightly Club

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter entertained members of the Fortnightly Bridge club at a lovely dinner party Friday evening at their home on Bridge street. Dinner was served upon the arrival of the guests and during the evening bridge was played at three tables. Mixed garden flowers were used throughout the living room and dining room. In the games the club award for high score went to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen and the visitor's prize to Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Folger. Club members playing were:

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spainhour, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn and A. B. Somers. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Poindexter and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Folger.

All members are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Audree Shore Complimented

Miss Audree Shore, who is to be married to Harold Mills, July 19th, was honored when her aunt, Mrs. Miles Shore, entertained at her home at Brooks Cross Roads. The living room was decorated with summer flowers. Hearts were played at four tables, with high score going to Mrs. Charlie Hall.

In the contest Miss Carolyn Melton won the prize. After the games and contests, cakes, sandwiches, mints and punch were served.

Guests were Miss Shore, Mrs. Charlie Hall, Mrs. Lon West, Mrs. Worth Burgess, Mrs. Freer Money, Mrs. Spencer Bell, Mrs. Velna Weaver, Misses Beulah and Colie Hinson, Viola Cass, Edith Steelman, Nell Whitlock, Pauline Boles, Irene Brown, Mary and Carolyn Melton and Gerry Weaver.

Mrs. Spainhour Fetes Bride at Breakfast Friday

Mrs. E. S. Spainhour entertained at a delightful breakfast Friday morning at her home on West Main street to honor her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Spainhour, of Hickory, a recent bride. Miss Sara Kelly Lillard, of this city, bride-elect of this month, shared honors with Mrs. Spainhour.

The dining room table, where covers were placed for twelve, was centered with a bouquet of white gladioli and baby's breath.

Mrs. Spainhour and Miss Lillard were each presented a gift. Mrs. Raymond Chatham, of Chicago, who is a recent bride, and who is visiting here, was also presented a lovely gift. Miss Nancy Click drew the prize among the breakfast guests.

Mrs. James Baldwin, of Medina, Ohio, was also an out-of-town guest.

Mrs. McDaniel is Hostess at Series of Parties

Mrs. E. W. McDaniel entertained a series of lovely parties last week at her home on Bridge street. The first of the series was a coffee given for Mrs. Fred Groth and Miss Ruby Groth of Minneapolis, Minn., guests of Mrs. Earl M. Hodel, and Mrs. D. K. Cooley of Lexington, S. C., guest of Mrs. T. F. Cooley. The guest list included twelve. Each of the honorees was presented lovely remembrances.

Mrs. McDaniel was hostess the following morning at a breakfast to honor her guest, Mrs. T. C. Bowie, of West Jefferson. Bridge was enjoyed during the morning, with the prize going to Mrs. J. R. Poindexter. Mrs. Bowie was also presented a gift.

The last of the series was a dessert-bridge when Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel entertained again to honor Mrs. Bowie. Bridge was played at two tables during the evening, with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen winning the high score award at the conclusion of the progressions.

Methodist Mission Circles Meet Monday Afternoon

The circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon in the following homes: Circle number one met with Mrs. M. A. Biggs, with 12 members present. Mrs. J. G. Abernethy, circle chairman, conducted the devotionals and presided over the meeting, and Mrs. J. S. Hiatt taught the Bible lesson. Each group is studying "Hymns of Zion." Mrs. T. A. Redmond was welcomed as a new member.

Circle number two met with Mrs. W. W. Whitaker with 15 members present. Mrs. C. H. Leary was enrolled as a new member. Mrs. D. G. Smith presided over the session and Mrs. Herman F. Duncan conducted the devotionals. The Bible lesson was in charge of Mrs. H. C. Salmons.

Circle number three met with Mrs. Errol Hayes with 12 members and two visitors present. Mrs. Charles G. Ashby, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals and Mrs. J. Harold Click taught the Bible lesson.

Each hostess served refreshments during a pleasant social hour at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. Whitaker Entertains Garden Club Thursday

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker entertained members of the Yadkin Valley Garden Club and several visitors at a charming buffet luncheon Thursday at her home on Church street. The dining room table was centered with a bowl of sweet peas and baby's breath placed on a mirror reflector. White candles in silver candelabra were used on either end of the table. At each of the small tables, where the guests were seated, were small bouquets of sweet peas and baby's breath. Covers were placed for eighteen.

Following the luncheon Mrs. W. R. Wellborn presented an interesting program, which featured a clever display of garden flowers by the members, using shoes and galoshes for vases. In the arrangements, which were entered for prizes, Mrs. E. G. Click won first place, Mrs. Mason Lillard second and Mrs. J. L. Hall, third. Honorable mention went to Mrs. J. S. Atkinson.

Guests in addition to club members were: Mrs. C. Bynum Clegg of Greensboro; Mrs. Dallas Kirby of Danbury; Mrs. Henry Wolfe of Mountain Park; Mrs. C. F. James of Mount Airy, and Mrs. Errol Hayes.

Miss Catherine Boles is Bride of D. Phillips Wilkins

Miss Catherine Pamela Boles and D. Phillips Wilkins, both of Jonesville, were married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in a pretty ceremony at the Jonesville Methodist church, with Rev. Dwight B. Mullis, pastor of the church, officiating, using the ring ritual of the church. Only the immediate families and a few close friends were present for the ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Robert G. Boles, sister-in-law of the bride, pianist, and Leon Martin, soloist.

The bride wore a becoming suit of sheer navy, with touches of white, and a bouquet of sweetheart rosebuds.

Mrs. Wilkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edward Boles, and is a graduate of Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, and since her graduation has been a member of the faculty of the Jonesville school. Since the announcement of her engagement she has been accorded many social courtesies.

Mrs. Wilkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Wilkins of Jonesville, and is associated with the Cash and Carry Stores.

Following a wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins will reside in Jonesville.

Bride-Elect Honored

Miss Audree Shores, whose marriage to Harold Mills will take place July 19, was shown courtesy Monday night when Mrs. Velna Weaver and Misses Mary and Carolyn Melton entertained at a miscellaneous shower and party at Mrs. Weaver's home at Brooks Cross Roads. Miss Carolyn Melton will be a bridesmaid in Miss Shores' wedding.

The living room and music room were decorated with summer flowers. The bridal motif was prevalent in the decorations, tallies and refreshments. A rolling pin tied with a corsage of sweet peas marked the bride's place. Bridge, rook and Chinese checkers were played at five tables with high score going to Mrs. Nelson Ireland and low score to Miss Tabitha Burgess. Other prizes were awarded to Miss Audree Shores and Mrs. Irene Shores and Mrs. Ray West.

Guests showered Miss Shores with many useful gifts. The hostesses presented the honoree with crystal in her pattern. After the games and contests, a salad course and punch were served to the following: Miss Shores, honoree, Mesdames Nelson Ireland, Miles Shores, Ray Reavis, Spencer Bell, and Misses Beulah Fleming, Tabitha Burgess, Pauline Boles, Caroline Bell and Gerry Weaver. Out-of-town guests were Mesdames Bob McLaughlin, Roy West, and Miss Irene Brown, of Yadkinville; Mrs. Alden Hunt, of Elkin; Miss Stella Morgan, of Woodleaf, and Mrs. Calvin Wright, of Pinnacle.

Welborn-Lawrence

The marriage of Miss Lois Bernice Welborn and Roy Thomas Lawrence, both of this city, was solemnized on Friday evening, June 28, at eight o'clock. Rev. David W. Day, pastor of the bride, officiated. The vows were spoken in the living room of the home of Rev. and Mrs. Day, amid a beautiful arrangement of regal lilies and other summer flowers. Only a very few close friends of the couple witnessed the ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Grace Burcham, pianist. The bridal couple entered the living room together. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin (Wagner) was used as a processional.

The bride wore a becoming dress of white chiffon with white accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Lawrence is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Welborn, of this city, and is a graduate of the city schools.

Mr. Lawrence is a son of Mrs. Thomas Lawrence and the late Mr. Lawrence, also of this city. He holds a position with the Chatham Manufacturing company.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence are making their home in an apartment at the home of the bride's parents in West Elkin.

Cabbage

Once while campaigning in the home state of his opponent, William Howard Taft found his speech constantly interrupted by heckling from the gallery. Finally a cabbage landed on the stage and came to rest near his feet.

Pausing in his address, Mr. Taft peered at the vegetable intently and then remarked, "Ladies and gentlemen, I see that one of my adversaries has lost his head."

Efficient

"It's so good of you, doctor, to have come this far to see my husband."

"Not at all, madam, not at all. I have a patient next door, and I thought I'd kill two birds with one stone."
