Miss Graham Honors Bride-Elect Saturday Morning

Another of the pretty parties to honor Miss Sara Kelly Lillard, bride-elect of the week, was the breakfast given Saturday morning by Miss Lesbia Graham at her home on Gwyn avenue. Covers were placed for sixteen at four small tables. Each table was centered with a bowl of roses and wedding ring place cards marked the places of the guests.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Garland Talton, Jr., of Red Springs, Mrs. James Baldwin, of Medina, Ohio, and Miss Jane Womble, of Raleigh.

Miss Lillard was presented china in her pattern as honor guest.

Mission Circle Meets Thursday Evening

Circle number four of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Colhard, on Church street, with Miss Mayme Blackwood associate hostess, with 13 members present.

Mrs. Max Boyles, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotional period. The missionary topic, "Bringing Korea to Christ," was discussed by Mrs. Dick Evans, Mrs. J. Coke Marion and Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Jr.

Mrs. Gambill is Honored Wednesday Evening

Honoring Mrs. Reginald Gambill, bride of the summer, members of the sales and office staff of the Sydnor-Spahnour company, with whom she formerly worked, entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl Young on Elk Spur street. Queen Anne's lace and roses were used in the decorations of the home. A number of games and contests were enjoyed during the evening, with prizes going to Mrs. Walter H. Combs, Mrs. Thomas Hendren and Mrs. Gambill. The climax of the party was a shower of miscellaneous gifts for the honoree by the guests.

Cantaloupe sundaes were served during the evening to the 30 guests who attended.

Miss Meed Honors Miss Lillard Wednesday

Miss Regina Meed entertained at a delightful luncheon Wednesday at Hotel Elkin to honor Miss Sara Kelly Lillard, bride-elect of the week. Covers were placed for nine at a beautifully appointed table, which was centered with a bouquet of summer chrysanthemums in white. White candles were used on either side of the centerpiece.

The guest list included: Miss Lillard, honoree, Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Jr., Mrs. John Sagar, Miss Nancy Click, Miss Sarah Click, Miss Harvison Smith, Miss Lesbia Graham and Miss Louise Grier.

Miss Lillard was presented a lovely gift, and Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Jr., a bride of the summer, was also presented a gift.

Lillard-Harris Bridal Party Honored at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. William Bernard Harris, Jr., entertained at a lovely dinner party at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cox, on Gwyn avenue Tuesday evening to honor Miss Sara Kelly Lillard and Robert Hibbard Harris, who will be married in a church ceremony Friday evening, and members of their wedding party. White gladioli and sweet peas were used in the appointments of the home and as centerpieces for the four small tables, where covers were placed for sixteen.

Miss Lillard was presented a silver vegetable dish as guest of honor.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Ogburn, of Winston-Salem, and Miss Frances Stough, of Cornelius.

Miss Wooten is Bride of Mr. Wood

Announcement was made this week of the marriage of Miss Marian Lola Wooten, daughter of Mrs. DeWitt Lindsey Wooten of Elkin and the late Mr. Wooten to Joe Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wood of Winston-Salem. The marriage was solemnized on June 29, on the lawn at the home of the bride's mother, with Rev. Herman F. Duncan, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. An improvised altar was arranged under an archway, with regal lilies flanking either side. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a dress of Alice blue marquisette, with accessories of white and a corsage of sweetheart roses and valley lilies. Following a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Wood will make their home here, where the bridegroom is associated with Chatham Manufacturing company.

A reception was held immediately after the wedding. Mrs. E. L. Jarvis and daughter, Miss Ethel Jarvis, sister and niece of the bride, assisted in serving.

Church Honors Rev. and Mrs. Morrisett Friday Evening

Honoring Rev. Stephen Morrisett, newly elected pastor of the First Baptist church who arrived here last week to take up his duties, members of the church entertained at a reception at the church Friday evening. The Sunday school rooms of the church were thrown en suite for the reception of the guests. Invitations were issued to all the people of the town, regardless of religious affiliations, and approximately 300 guests attended.

In the receiving line with Rev. and Mrs. Morrisett were pastors of other churches of the town with their wives, Mayor and Mrs. James R. Poindexter, and department heads of the church, Sunday school and other church organizations. A colorful arrangement of summer flowers was used in profusion throughout the reception rooms.

A musical program, including piano and vocal solos and choruses were enjoyed during the evening. Individual cakes, sandwiches, punch and salted nuts were served during the receiving hours from eight until ten-thirty.

Miss Weedon is Bride of Mr. Page in Church Ceremony

Miss Barbara Ellen Weedon, of Blowing Rock and Detroit, and Frederick Carlyle Page, Jr., of Elkin and Pinehurst, were married in a beautiful ceremony Saturday evening at the Blowing Rock Presbyterian church, with Rev. Donald Stuart, of Chapel Hill, officiating.

Mrs. Franklin Folger, Jr., of this city, organist, and Mrs. Hugh Hill Chatham, of Stanleytown, Va., soloist, rendered the wedding music.

The bride, who wore a Hattie Carnegie model of heavy ivory satin, made with a tight bodice, bracelet length sleeves and a full skirt, ending in a train, with a veil of tulle fastened with a coronet of orange blossoms, was attended by her sister, Miss Nancy Weedon, as maid of honor. Miss Weedon wore a dress of duckling yellow starched chiffon. All of the other attendants of the bride were friends from Detroit.

Mrs. Page is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harold Weedon, of Detroit and Blowing Rock, and is a recent graduate of Fairmont Junior College at Washington, D. C. She has frequently visited here in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Rich Chatham, and is well known throughout the state.

Mr. Page is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Page, of Pinehurst, and attended Woodberry Forest school, Woodberry Forest, Va., and the University of North Carolina. He is a member of the Zeta Psi fraternity.

After a honeymoon cruise from Pamlico Sound to unannounced points, Mr. and Mrs. Page will reside here, where Mr. Page is connected with Chatham Manufacturing company.

A number of friends from Elkin attended the wedding.

Miss Nance is Bride of Mr. Hall in Ceremony Sunday Evening

Coming as a surprise to friends was the marriage of Miss Thelma Nance, of Hartford, Conn., and Dobson, and Julius Lee Hall, of this city, which was solemnized Sunday evening at 6 o'clock in Rock Hill, S. C., with Rev. P. Bolt Bobo, pastor of the Rock Hill Methodist church, officiating. The only witnesses to the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Carter, of this city, the latter a sister of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Hall is a daughter of Mrs. Aubrey Lester Nance, of Dobson, and the late Mr. Nance. She was educated at Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, and also is a graduate nurse, receiving her training at Martin Memorial hospital, Mount Airy. She was for some time a popular member of the nursing staff of Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital here, and for the past several months has been in Hartford, Conn., where she is on the nursing staff of the Neuro-Psychiatric Institute of the Hartford Retreat.

Mr. Hall is the son of Mrs. Julius Lee Hall, of this city, and the late Mr. Hall, and is a member of one of the town's most prominent families. He is a graduate of Davidson College, and since his graduation has been prominently identified with the business life of the town. He is also active in social and civic circles.

After the first of September Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their home here.

Miss Williams and Mr. Hendren Are Married Sunday Morning

Of interest throughout the state is the marriage of Miss Ola Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Byrd Williams, of near Mountain Park, and Linville Laureline Hendren, of this city, which was solemnized in a lovely ceremony Saturday morning at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. T. S. Draughan, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the ring ceremony of the Baptist church. Only the immediate families of the young couple were present for the ceremony.

In the living room an improvised altar was arranged in front of the fireplace. Masses of delicate pink rhododendron blossoms were banked against the mantel and white gladioli and carnations were used elsewhere in the home. The bridal couple were unattended.

Miss Effie Crater, of this city, pianist, rendered the wedding music. Prior to the ceremony she played "The Rosary" by Nevin. The traditional wedding marches were used as a processional and recessional and during the ceremony Miss Crater played "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell. For her wedding the bride wore a beautifully tailored dress of white crepe with a bolero jacket and turban of the same material. Her other accessories were of white and her shoulder bouquet was of gardenias.

Mrs. Hendren is a graduate of Eastern Carolina Teachers College, Greenville, and following her graduation taught school for a short time. For the past two years she has been engaged in re-settlement work with headquarters in Halifax. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. L. J. Bray, of this city, and is well known here.

Mr. Hendren is the son of Mrs. Joseph Planner Hendren and the late Mr. Hendren, and is a member of one of the most prominent families of the town. He was educated at Berea College, Berea, Ky., and following his graduation taught in the Georgia schools for several years. For the past eighteen months he has been employed with the postoffice here.

Immediately after the ceremony a beautifully appointed wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Hendren returned Wednesday from a brief wedding trip and have an apartment in the home of the bridegroom's mother on West Main street.
