Miss Frances King Turner, of Leaksville, who was in Yadkin county last week teaching a W. M. U. study course for the Baptist women, left Saturday for Ridgecrest. Miss Turner graduated from the W. M. U. training school at Louisville, Ky., last spring. While in Yadkin county she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Craver, of Boonville.

Mrs. Gilbert Foster and small son, Wade, of North Wilkesboro, were the guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Speer.

Boonville Club Meets

The Woman's Home Demonstration club of Boonville held its regular July meeting at the home of Mrs. John Brendle on the Yadkinville road. A large group of ladies was present for the discussions which were headed by Miss Irene Brown, home agent, of Yadkinville.

Miss Brown gave an interesting discussion and demonstration on making various kinds of salads by the combined use of fresh vegetables and fruits. During the 1940 spring and summer meetings in all the clubs of the county stress has been placed on the improvement of the home garden, and new ways of utilizing vegetables have been demonstrated.

At previous meetings canning exhibitions have been given. In the business session that followed the demonstration Miss Dorothy Coram was elected corresponding secretary for the local club to succeed Mrs. Eldon Williams who resigned the position.

It was decided to have a club picnic for all the local members and their families at the next regular meeting which will be sometime early in August. The picnic will be held at the Boonville school in the early evening.

Ice cream and cake were served to the following members: Mesdames J. M. Speas, F. M. Woodhouse, J. J. Coram, Allan Jessup, C. C. Mottsinger, Olive Smith, Barnett Smith, Nellie Reece, Everett Hurt, Edith Steelman, Ruby Warden, T. L. Hayes, Herbert Fleming, V. B. Brown, James Amburn, J. R. Walker, Nellie Dobbins, John Brendle, Misses Irene Brown, Dorothy Coram, Emily Brendle, and Mrs. Adolphus Brendle.

259 TEACHERS FOR SCHOOLS

Surry Is Allotted Total of 247 White and 12 Colored Instructors

FIGURES ARE LISTED

The Surry county school system will have 247 white teachers and 12 negro teachers during the coming 1940-41 school term, according to Supt. John W. Comer, who has received the county's teacher allotment from the offices of the state school commission in Raleigh.

This represents a gain of two white teachers and a loss of two negro teachers from the number used during the past year. The gain in white teachers is a net gain, however, for the Surry white schools actually gained four teachers and lost two during the 1939-40 term. The gains and losses were figured on the basis of attendance during the previous term.

The white teachers gained included three high school teachers and one elementary school teacher, while the losses included one high school teacher from the Pilot Mountain school and one elementary school teacher from the Rockford elementary school. The two negro teachers were lost from Dobson and Combstown schools.

In announcing the allotments of teachers for the various schools, Supt. Comer stated that all teaching positions in the county are filled, making it useless to file applications for the coming year. The allotments by districts, as announced, include the following:

Dobson unit—18 elementary and 8 high school teachers at Dobson school, with six elementary teachers at the Little Richmond school. One negro teacher was allotted for the Dobson district.

Elkin unit—13 elementary and 8 high school teachers at Elkin, with 7 elementary teachers at North Elkin school. Two negro teachers were allotted the Elkin negro school.

Mountain Park unit—8 elementary and 6 high school teachers at Mountain Park, with 3 elementary teachers for the Zephyr school.

Lowgap unit—8 elementary and 4 high school teachers at Lowgap, with no outlying school in the unit.

Beulah unit—12 elementary and 4 high school teachers at Lowgap, with no outlying school in the unit.

Beulah unit—12 elementary and 5 high school teachers at Beulah, with no outlying schools in the unit.

Franklin unit—17 elementary and 6 high school teachers at Franklin, with 4 elementary teachers at Green Hill school. Two negro teachers were allotted for Sandy Level.

White Plains unit—10 elementary and 4 high school teachers at White Plains, with no outlying white schools. One negro teacher was allotted for Red Brush.

Flat Rock unit—14 elementary and 5 high school teachers at Flat Rock, with 3 elementary teachers at Shelton town. One negro teacher was allotted for Combstown, where one was lost last year.

Westfield unit—8 elementary and 5 high school teachers at Westfield, with 3 elementary teachers at Cooke's school. Four negro teachers were allotted for the Westfield and Chestnut Ridge negro schools.

Pilot Mountain unit—15 elementary and 5 high school teachers at Pilot Mountain, with no outlying schools in the unit. One negro teacher was allotted for the Pilot Mountain negro school.

Shoals unit—7 elementary and 3 high school teachers at Shoals, with no outlying schools in the unit. No negro teachers allotted.

Copeland unit—11 elementary and 7 high school teachers at Copeland, with 6 elementary teachers at Eldora and 2 elementary teachers at Rockford. No negro teachers were allotted.

The people of the U. S. owe each other today more than $250,000,000. Of these debts, $178,000,000 are in private credit institutions.
