MUSEUM

The United States is the only major agricultural country without a national agricultural museum, and there is agitation that such an institution be established.

ALFALFA

Alfalfa, good as it is, could be much better and plant breeders of the college experiment stations and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, are at work seeking to improve on the existing varieties.

APPLICATION IS APPROVED

Surry Tenant Farmer Seeks Loan from FSA to Buy a Farm

OTHER LOANS OKEYED

Roscoe L. Chilton, tenant farmer of Shoals section, Surry county, has received notice that his application for a loan to buy a farm has been approved by the Farm Security Administration, subject to satisfactory title.

Clyde O. Fickle, county RR supervisor of the FSA, Dobson, has instructed Mr. Chilton to exercise the option he holds on the 80-acre farm he proposes to buy and to have the seller prepare the necessary papers. A check will be passed in payment for the property when satisfactory title has been furnished by the present owner.

The loan to buy this farm, made possible by the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act, also included money for improvements, repairing existing buildings and erecting new buildings needed. Terms of the loan provided for annual repayments over a period of 40 years at 3 per cent. interest.

Other tenant farmers for whom loans to buy farms recently have been approved in this county include: Mr. Claude O. Draughn, Elkin, Route 1; Clarence Benge, Elkin, Route 1; John D. Montgomery, Pilot Mountain; Eugene Stanley, Dobson, Route 2; Dallas E. Coe, Rockford.

Other tenant farmers who are interested in purchasing a farm through the Farm Security Administration may secure an application blank from the FSA office located in the court house in Dobson.

EAST ELKIN

Mr. Doyle Newman is spending this week at Pinnacle, the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Dock Culler.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Rogers and family attended home-coming services at Hills Grove Baptist church at Pilot Mountain Sunday.

Rev. J. L. Powers conducted a most successful revival at Mt. Hermon Baptist church near Crutchfield last week where he is pastor. Several joined the church and many professions were made. It has been termed the greatest revival held at this church in years.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Rollins filled the pulpit at East Elkin Baptist church Sunday and Sunday night. He preached good sermons at both services.

Mr. John Barker and Mr. Russ Powers were supper guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Barker at Crutchfield. Mr. and Mrs. Dock Cullers, of Pinnacle visited relatives here Sunday.

The Woman's Missionary society of East Elkin Baptist church will hold their meeting this week at the home of Mrs. T. M. Gambill. Miss Turner, field worker for the Woman's Missionary society of the Baptist church, will be the principal speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gambill spent Sunday afternoon at Pleasant Hill visiting their son, Folger Gambill.

Miss Turner, field worker of the Woman's Missionary union, will be at East Elkin Baptist church Tuesday night. Her object will be to organize a young women's Missionary society.

Love Nature

Mrs. Gushley—I just adore nature, don't you?

Mrs. Noorich—In moderation, yes. But as one acquires a widah cultyuh one comes to feel that natyuh was intended for the lowah clahshes.
