

SOCIETY.

Mission Circle to Meet This Evening

Circle number four of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet this evening (Thursday) at 7:45 with Mrs. Alden Hunt and Mrs. Ralph Reich, on Vine street. All members are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Lankford Is Hostess At Bridge-Luncheon

Mrs. W. B. Lankford was hostess at a lovely bridge-luncheon Friday at her home on Hospital Road. Garden flowers were used in an attractive arrangement throughout the home and as centerpieces for the four small tables where covers were placed for sixteen. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon, with the high score award going to Mrs. Errol Hayes at the close of a series of interesting progressions.

Circles To Meet In Group At Methodist Church

The day circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet in group session at the church Monday afternoon at 3:30 for the August meeting. The Bible lesson will be taught by Mrs. H. C. Salmons. At the close of the program a social hour will be enjoyed. Hostesses will be Mesdames F. W. Graham, W. A. Finney, R. L. Harris, Claude Farrell, R. L. Church and Anna Graham. All members are cordially invited to attend.

Round Dozen Club Meets With Mrs. J. Walter Darnell

Mrs. J. Walter Darnell was hostess to members of the Round Dozen Book Club at the fortnightly meeting Friday evening at her home on Gwyn Avenue, with a full membership attendance. A dessert course was served upon the arrival of the guests and during the evening rummy was enjoyed with the high score award going to Mrs. Fred McNeely and the runner-up prize to Mrs. H. F. Laffoon. Club books were exchanged and discussed at the conclusion of the play.

Shirley Ann Lawrence Is Feted on Birthday Anniversary

Honoring her little daughter, Shirley Ann, on her sixth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Beulah Lawrence entertained at a birthday party Friday afternoon at her home in North Elkin. Fifteen children of a similar age were invited and outdoor games were enjoyed, with prizes going to John McPhail, Tommy Sprinkle, Sarah Martin and Betty Lawrence.

A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in detail on the party appointments. Cake, ices, mints and lemonade were served. The honoree received many lovely gifts.

Miss Hayes Is Hostess at Dance To Honor Visitors

Miss Eleanor Hayes was hostess at a delightful dance at her home on Church street Friday evening to honor a number of out-of-town visitors, including Miss Nell Rousseau and Lula Hester Brame of North Wilkesboro, Miss Irma Shore Sicehoff of High Point, Miss Elizabeth Lindsay, Miss Phyllis Gordon and Henry Whitaker of Winston-Salem, Miss Alice Ross and Jack and Bob Ross of Charlotte, and Miss Betty Messenger and Dick Messenger of Hartford, Conn. The guest list included about fifty friends.

Punch was served on the lawn during the evening, from an attractively arranged table.

G. A. Meets Thursday The Intermediate Girls' Auxiliary of the Elkin Valley Baptist church met at the home of Miss Mary Lee Couch Thursday afternoon at four o'clock. The meeting opened with the scripture reading, followed by prayer by Mrs. Virginia Couch.

Miss Ruby Johnson presided over the meeting. An interesting program was presented.

During a pleasant social hour the hostess served iced melon to the following members present: Mrs. Virginia Couch, Misses Lucille Collins, Betty Hayes, Ruby Johnson, Louvene Jordan, Emma Lou Lyon, Jean Shores, Elizabeth Cooper, Mary Lee Couch and Hazel Tubert.

Miss Myers, Bride-Elect of Month, Is Honored Friday

Honoring Miss Amy Kathryn Myers, of this city, bride-elect of the month, Mrs. Harvey Church entertained at a delightful dinner party Friday evening at her country home near Ronda. The guest list included Miss Myers, honoree, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Myers, Mrs. Beatrice Myers Phillips and Thomas Phillips, of this city, Miss Gena Church, of Charlotte, and Ernest Edwards.

The dining room table was centered with a graceful bouquet of yellow calendulas and candles in the same shade were used on either end of the table. A four-course dinner was served.

Miss Myers was presented a lovely gift.

Baptist Circles to Meet

The circles of the W. M. U. of the First Baptist church will meet Monday and Tuesday.

Circles meeting Monday afternoon at 3:30 will be the Neal Young circle with Mrs. Gurney Hampton; the Naomi Shell circle with Mrs. H. G. York, and the Emma Leechman circle with Mrs. E. T. Reece.

The Rosalee Appleby circle will meet Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock in the church parlor and the Pearl Johnson circle will meet at the same time with Mrs. J. D. Jones.

The Edith Adair circle will meet Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock with Mrs. Thomas Hendren.

All members are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Atkinson Is Hostess To Garden Club

Mrs. J. S. Atkinson delightfully entertained members of the Yadkin Valley Garden club at the monthly meeting at her home on West Main street Thursday afternoon. Summer flowers were used throughout the home in an attractive arrangement. Eleven members of the club were present for the meeting.

The program was in charge of Mrs. W. W. Whitaker and featured a competitive arrangement of miniature garden flowers by the members, each member bringing a vase of small flowers from her own garden. Mrs. E. C. James and Mrs. E. G. Click tied for the prize and each of them was presented a vase. A round table discussion of small garden flowers followed the program.

A beautifully appointed collation was served during the afternoon.

Miss Royall Is Luncheon Hostess Thursday

Miss Peggy Royall was hostess at a delightful luncheon Thursday at her home on Church street, to honor her guest, Miss Nell Rousseau, of North Wilkesboro, and Miss Lula Hester Brame of North Wilkesboro, and Miss Irma Shore Sicehoff of High Point, guests of Miss Mary Elizabeth Allen. Summer flowers were attractively arranged throughout the home. Covers were placed for sixteen at small tables, which were centered with bouquets of small flowers, in pastel shades.

The guest list included, in addition to the honorees, Misses Clyde and Madeline Myers and their guest, Miss Mable Dare Tilley, of Chapel Hill; Miss Eileen Shamel and her guest, Miss Phyllis Gordon, of Winston-Salem; Miss Betty Messenger of Hartford, Conn.; Misses Eleanor Hayes, Mary Elizabeth Allen, Mary Crater, Faye Hiatt, Nan Johnson, Louise Laffoon and Dorothy Harrell.

Each out-of-town guest was given an attractive gift.

Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Sr., Is Feted at Afternoon Tea

Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Sr., Mrs. Fred Colhard, Miss Alice Dixon and Miss Blanche Dixon were among those from here who attended the tea given by Mrs. Milas W. Mackie, Mrs. Kate Mackie Waynick, and Miss Blanche Mackie at their home in Yadkinville last Thursday afternoon. The tea honored Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Sr., of this city, Mrs. Frank Siefer, of Oakland, Calif., and Miss Margaret Eaton, of Yadkinville, whose marriage to Lieutenant Alfred Jennings Floyd, of Lumberton, was solemnized Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Joe Williams greeted the guests at the door. Receiving in the living room were Mrs. Milas Wilson Mackie, Mrs. Frank Siefer, Mrs. Kate Mackie Waynick, Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Sr., Miss

Blanche Mackie and Miss Margaret Eaton. Mrs. Paul Price Davis directed the guests to the dining room where Mrs. John Myers, of Winston-Salem, presided. The table was covered with a cut lace cloth and centered with a crystal bowl of varicolored gladioli, snapdragons, shasta daisies, baby's breath, and lace fern. White tapers in silver holders were placed at either end of the table. Tea and sandwiches were served by Miss Mary Kelly, Miss Cecil Prim and Miss Peep Zachary.

Miss Wiley E. Dobbins received in the hall and directed the guests to the sun room where Miss Mary Harding presided. An ice course was served by Miss Ann Hall, Miss Mildred Logan, and Miss Edith Jessup. Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Rossie S. Shore.

Miss Billie Williams played several piano selections during the afternoon.

More than 175 guests called between the hours of four and five-thirty.
