Kiwanians Told How to Detect Counterfeit Bills by U. S. Agent

GUESTS ARE PRESENT

"Know Your Money" was the subject of an interesting illustrated lecture presented before the Elkin Kiwanis club at their meeting last Thursday evening by Mitchell Gold, of the Charlotte office of the United States Treasury Department secret service.

Kiwanian D. G. Smith, who arranged the program, presented the speaker, who spoke on the twin dangers of counterfeit money and government check forgery. Mr. Gold explained how to detect counterfeit bills, coins, government checks and described the portraits which appear on bills of the different denominations.

In case of receiving a counterfeit bill from a stranger, a person should call police, delay the passer of the bill under pretext, avoid argument and write down a description of the passer should he leave, the speaker advised. In discussing government checks, he said that anyone cashing such a check should know the payee, compare his signature with the endorsement or require satisfactory identification.

President L. S. Weaver presided over the session. Special guests were Dr. A. C. Chamberlain, of North Wilkesboro, who was with Dr. E. G. Click; R. W. Walters, of Mount Airy, a member of the Mount Airy Kiwanis club; and Dr. O. K. Richardson, of Elkin, who was with Kiwanian George Royall.

The parade here will form on West Main street near Big Elkin Creek bridge in time to be ready to start at 2:30 p.m. The parade will proceed east on Main street, going through the business section to the intersection of East Main and Market Street extension, just in front of Smithy's Department Store. There it will turn around and retrace the route to Big Elkin Creek.

Cars furnished by local dealers will be used as the driverless car and the control car. Behind the control car will be a car bearing prominent town officials.

Between 12:00 and 1:00 o'clock Captain Lynch will appear at the Western Auto Store, where he will make a safety talk to youngsters who own bicycles. All youngsters who have bicycles are urged to be present to hear him. To those with the best equipped and safest bicycles will be given prizes awarded by the Western Auto Store.

suspension from his Franconia post were not made known.

COLORADO Springs, Aug. 6.—Wendell L. Willkie gave the nation's farmers today his pledge that "if elected President, I will not take away any of the benefits gained by agriculture in the past few years." The Republican presidential nominee made the statement at Des Moines, shortly before flying back to his vacation retreat here after a conference with midwest Republican governors and farm leaders. "I do not favor changing the present farm program unless a better one is gradually evolved," Willkie asserted.

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—The German counter-blockade, designed to turn fatally upon Britain her greatest historic weapon, was called today to be smashing British shipping at a far higher rate than in the unrestricted submarine campaign of the first world war. The Nazi high command asserted a total of 4,986,860 tons of British merchant vessels, and those usable by Britain, had been knocked out in 11 months of warfare—3,725,547 by the German navy and 1,261,313 by the air force. (The British admiralty has stated that in the period July 8 through July 29 the combined losses of all British, allied and neutral merchant ships were but 174,850 tons.)

Resigns to Vote For Willkie

It is a rather strange sight in South Carolina to see a Democratic candidate for any office resigning in order that he may vote for the Republican candidate for President.

But rather than vote for a third term for President Roosevelt and being free to cast a vote for Wendell Willkie, the G. O. P. nominee, Lionel K. Legge, well known Charleston attorney, has announced that he has withdrawn his candidacy in the Democratic primary for the State House of Representatives.

He said in part: "As a Democrat, I have the right to vote in the general election according to my own conscience and judgment, without dictation from the national Democratic convention. The surrender of that right is too dear a price to pay for the privilege of running for a local office on the Democratic ticket. I therefore withdraw my name as candidate."

In South Carolina Democratic candidates must pledge themselves to support state and national candidates of the party.
