Junior Garden Club Meets Thursday Afternoon
Members of the Yadkin Valley Junior Garden club met Thursday afternoon at the home of the club leader, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, on Church street, for a business session. During the meeting the club year book was outlined and other business matters attended to.

Refreshments, consisting of orange juice and cookies, were served during a pleasant social hour to the six members present.

Mrs. Cooley Entertains at Party Thursday

Mrs. T. F. Cooley was hostess at a delightful party Thursday when she entertained at a bridge-luncheon at her home at Klondike Farm. Bowls of zinnias in bright colors were used in the living room, dining room and den. Sixteen guests were invited for bridge and two additional friends were invited for luncheon. Among the luncheon guests Miss Louise Grier drew the prize. In the bridge progressions the high score award went to Mrs. D. G. Smith and Mrs. Marion Allen won the honor prize.

Miss Katherine Reardon Is Bride of Mr. Vier
Of interest to friends of the bride here is the announcement

Need Laxative? Take All-Vegetable One!

Don't let impatience with constipation lead you into harsh measures for relief. Gentle but thorough action usually follows a good night's rest when BLACK-DRAUGHT is taken at bedtime by simple directions. Its principal ingredient helps tone bowel muscles. Next time, take all-vegetable, spicy, aromatic, time-tasted BLACK-DRAUGHT. It is economical; 25 to 40 doses, 25c.

Outdoor games were enjoyed during the afternoon with the prize going to Delop Layne.

Following the games the children were invited into the dining room for refreshments. A handsome birthday cake was the central adornment. The cake was decorated in pink and white and topped with six gleaming candles. Baskets of mints were presented to each guest as a souvenir and the party was climaxed with a watermelon feast.

The honor guest received a number of lovely gifts.

Cake Cutting Honors Myers-Rudd Bridal Party

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Myers and Mrs. A. G. Click entertained members of the Myers-Rudd bridal party at a cake cutting Saturday evening at their home on West Main street following the wedding rehearsal.

The table was overlaid with a handsome cloth of Irish linen and lace and graceful tendrils of ivy and jasmine were arranged at intervals along the length of the table. On either end were silver candlesticks holding lighted white tapers. The candlesticks were tied with bows of tulle and adorned with a single white gladioli. In the center of the table was a handsome bride's cake, with a miniature bride and bridegroom adorning the top, and containing the traditional symbols.

Punch and cake were served during the evening. The guest list numbered twenty-four.

Mrs. D. G. Smith Is Hostess at Bridge-Luncheon

One of the loveliest parties of the week was the bridge-luncheon given Friday by Mrs. D. G. Smith at Hotel Elkin. Twenty-eight guests were invited for bridge and four additional guests were invited for luncheon. The private dining room of the hotel was attractively decorated with colorful summer flowers and bouquets of small flowers were used as centerpieces for the eight small tables, where the guests were seated.

In the bridge games, which were enjoyed during the afternoon, the high score award went to Mrs. Hoke F. Henderson, Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Sr., and Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Jr., brides of the summer, were presented lovely gifts and Mrs. R. M. Hudgins, of Mt. Airy, an out-of-town guest, was given a remembrance. Miss Louis Grier drew the prize among the special luncheon guests.

Miss Colhard Fetes Miss Myers, Bride-Elect, at Dessert-Bridge

Miss Dorothy Colhard entertained at a lovely dessert-bridge at her home on Church street Friday evening to honor Miss Amy Kathryn Myers, whose marriage to Clyde Rudd was solemnized Sunday afternoon.

Upon the arrival of the guests a prettily appointed ice course was served with individual decorated cakes. Covers were laid for twelve. The three small tables were centered with bouquets of garden flowers in pastel shades, and a nosegay of old-fashioned flowers marked the place of the honoree. Gladioli were used elsewhere in the home.

During the evening bridge was enjoyed, with the high score award going to Miss Nancy Click and the consolation prize to Miss Madge Glazener, of Chillicothe, Ohio, who was maid of honor for the wedding. Miss Glazener and Mrs. Pete Lea, of Raleigh, the only out-of-town guests, were also presented souvenirs. Miss Myers was given crystal in her wedding pattern. At the conclusion of the play punch was served.

Miss Myers and Mr. Rudd Are Honored at Dinner

Complimenting Miss Amy Kathryn Myers, of this city, and Clyde Wesley Rudd, of Raleigh, who were married Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Beatrice Myers Phillips, of this city, and Miss Maie Myers, of Charlotte, aunts of the bride-elect, and Miss Gena Church, of Charlotte, cousin of the bride-elect, entertained at a lovely dinner party Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, at Hotel Elkin. The guest list included members of the bridal party and a number of out-of-town wedding guests.

Dinner was served in the main dining room of the hotel from a long table which was centered with a bouquet of white asters, baby's breath and fern in a silver bowl. Tall tapers in silver holders were used at intervals along the table. A miniature bride and bridegroom marked the places of Miss Myers and Mr. Rudd and the places of the other guests were marked with cards attached to small golden slippers. Covers were placed for twenty-four. A four-course dinner was served.

Miss Myers was presented crystal in her wedding pattern and Mrs. Pete Stokes Lea, a bride of the year, was given two Godey prints.

Miss Pauline Dickerson Is Wed at Kings Mountain

Of cordial interest to friends here and elsewhere in this section is the marriage of Miss Pauline Dickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dickerson, of Elkin and State Road, to L. M. Logan, Jr., of Kings Mountain, which was solemnized in Kings Mountain on July 27, with Rev. L. Boyd Ham, pastor of the St. Matthews Lutheran church, officiating, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a navy sheer dress with a bolero jacket trimmed in imported linen lace. Her shoulder bouquet was of orchids, yellow rose buds and valley lilies.

Mrs. Logan was educated at Mountain Park high school and attended Meredith College, Raleigh. She has been residing in Kings Mountain for some time, where she is associate owner of a beauty shop.

Mr. Logan is the only son of Mrs. L. M. Logan and the late Mr. Logan, pioneer family of Kings Mountain. He was educated at Appalachian State Teachers College, and is with the Superior Stone Company in Kings Mountain.

Following a honeymoon on the coast of South Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Logan will reside at Kings Mountain.

The wedding of Miss Amy Kathryn Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Myers, of this city, and Clyde Wesley Rudd, of Raleigh, was solemnized in a ceremony of beauty and simplicity Sunday afternoon at 4:30 at the home of the bride's parents on West Main street. Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, of Norton, Va., a former pastor of the bride, officiated, using the ring ceremony of the Baptist church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and her only attendant was her maid of honor, Miss Madge Eugenia Glazener, of Chillicothe, Ohio.

The bridegroom had as his best man his former college mate, Milton Cheshire, of Albemarle. Ushers were: Thomas Phillips, of Elkin; Howard Whitaker, of Henderson; Richard Parlier, Jr., and John C. Fletcher, Jr., of Charlotte; J. I. Myers, Jr., of North Wilkesboro; Garland Talton, Jr., of Oxford, and Pete Stokes Lea, of Elkin.

A beautiful program of wedding music was rendered by Miss Jessamine Holder, of Garner, pianist, and Craven Holder, soloist, also of Garner.

For her wedding the bride wore her travel suit, an advance fall ensemble of teal blue wool crepe, with accessories of navy blue, and a shoulder bouquet of orchids. The maid of honor wore an ensemble of plum colored wool crepe with accessories of burgundy and a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Miss Myers is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myers and is a popular young woman of the town. She was graduated this year from Meredith College, Raleigh.

Mr. Rudd graduated from Elon College with the class of 1936 and is now connected with the G. M. A. C., with headquarters in Raleigh.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held. Mrs. Garland Talton, Jr., Miss Dorothy Colhard and Mrs. Pete Stokes Lea presided at the punch bowl and wedding cake, cut in diamond shape, and iced in green and decorated with sprays of lily-of-the-valley, and ices frozen in the shape of wedding bells, were served by Miss Gena Church, Miss Mary Estelle Parlier, Miss Mary Frances Rudd, Miss Ina Myers, Miss Eleanor Myers and Miss Louise Fletcher.

Miss Maie Myers and Mrs. A. G. Click presided at the bride's register. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rudd left for a two weeks' wedding trip to Washington and New York. After August 20 they will be at home in the Vance Apartments, Raleigh.

Our-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Miss Madge Eugenia Glazener, of Chillicothe, Ohio; J.
