

SOCIETY.

Mrs. Poindexter Is Hostess To Club Wednesday

Mrs. Carl Poindexter was hostess at a delightful bridge-luncheon Wednesday at her home on Gwyn Avenue, having as guests members of her bridge club. Bridge was played at two tables in the forenoon. At one o'clock four additional friends came in for luncheon. The club award for high score in bridge went to Mrs. Chas. L. Haywood, Jr., and Mrs. E. G. Click drew the prize among the luncheon guests.

The home was attractively arranged throughout with garden flowers.

Mrs. Cox Is Hostess to Club Friday Evening

Having as guests members of the Round Dozen Book club, Mrs. W. C. Cox was hostess at a delightful party Friday evening at her home on Gwyn Avenue. A dessert course was served upon the arrival of the guests and during the evening rook was played at three tables. The high score award went to Mrs. H. F. Laffoon at the conclusion of the play and the consolation prize to Mrs. H. B. Holcomb. Colorful garden flowers were used in profusion in the living room and dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Spainhour Entertain Friday Evening

Having as guests members of the Fortnightly Bridge club and several visitors, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spainhour entertained at a delightful bridge-dinner Friday evening at their home on West Main street. Covers were placed for twelve at three small tables, which were adorned with bouquets of garden flowers. Dinner was served upon the arrival of the guests and during the evening bridge was enjoyed. Scoring honors went to Mrs. R. M. Ogburn at the conclusion of the play.

Mrs. Harold Messenger, of Hartford, Conn., an out-of-town guest, was presented a lovely remembrance.

Mrs. Edworth Harris Is Club Hostess Thursday

Mrs. Edworth Harris was hostess at a delightful afternoon party Thursday at her home on West Main street. The guest list included members of the Thursday Afternoon Book club. Three tables were placed for rook amid a pretty setting of garden flowers. In the games the high score award went to Mrs. George Royall. Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Sr., a special guest and a bride of the summer, was presented a lovely gift.

At the conclusion of the play new club books for the year were distributed.

A salad course, followed by a sweet course, was served during the afternoon.

Mrs. Chatham Is Club Hostess Thursday

Mrs. Richard G. Chatham entertained members of the Thursday Morning Bridge club and several visitors at a luncheon

Thursday at Hotel Elkin. Summer flowers were used as a centerpiece for the luncheon table, where covers were placed for eight. Club members enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Chatham were: Mrs. Raymond Chatham, Mrs. Charles G. Ashby, Mrs. Errol Hayes, Mrs. R. C. Freeman and Mrs. Paul Gwyn. Additional guests were Mrs. Gavin H. Dortch, Mrs. E. S. Spainhour and Mrs. Harold Messenger, the latter of Hartford, Conn.

In the games the club award for high score went to Mrs. Raymond Chatham and the visitor's prize to Mrs. Gavin H. Dortch.

Mrs. Woodruff Is Hostess To Carrie Woodruff Circle

Mrs. H. D. Woodruff was hostess to members of the Carrie Woodruff circle of the Y. W. A. of the Elkin Valley Baptist church, at her home Monday evening, with twelve members present.

The meeting opened with a hymn, followed by the devotional period, in charge of Miss Helen Hayes. An interesting program on "We Build for Tomorrow," was presented by Misses Ruby McCoin, Frances Martin, Helen Hayes, Grace and Louise Lawrence and Ruth Martin and Mesdames Worth Vestal and Blanche Cokerham.

Delicious refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

Jane Boyles Is Feted on Fourth Birthday Anniversary

Honoring her little daughter, Jane, on her fourth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Carl Boyles was hostess at a lovely party Saturday afternoon from three until five o'clock. The guest list included thirty children of a similar age. A number of outdoor games and contests were enjoyed. Mrs. Boyles was assisted in entertaining the guests by Mrs. F. W. Graham, Mrs. Max Boyles and Mrs. Clyde Hall.

The guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table was adorned with a handsome birthday cake, iced in pink and white, and topped with four lighted candles. Ice cream and individual cakes were served. The cakes were iced in pink and white and adorned with tiny green umbrellas. Favors were balls and bats and wooden whistles.

Miss Ellington Is Bride of Mr. Eller

Of widespread interest is the marriage of Miss Louise Ellington of Winston-Salem and Eugene Walter Eller of Elkin and Jonesville, which was solemnized Saturday afternoon in Independence, Va. Rev. Mr. Mayberry, pastor of the Independence Methodist church, officiated, using the ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Shugart of this city, who accompanied the young couple to Virginia, were the only witnesses to the ceremony.

The bride wore a tailored dress of white silk with white accessories.

"Our Town" to Show at Elk Theatre Here

Her shoulder bouquet was of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Eller is a native of Winston-Salem, and was educated at R. J. Reynolds high school.

Mr. Eller is a son of Mrs. John D. Eller and the late Mr. Eller, of Jonesville, and is engaged in business here.

Mr. and Mrs. Eller will reside in Jonesville.

Dunnagan-Woodard Marriage

Miss Rachel Dunnagan and Ralph H. Woodard of Goldsboro and Selma, were united in marriage last Wednesday evening, August 7th, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Blanche Dunnagan, in Yadkinville, in a quiet home ceremony. The vows were spoken before Rev. J. H. Green, pastor of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of the Woman's College, University of North Carolina, in Greensboro. She has been a member of the Goldsboro city school faculty for the past two years. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of North Carolina. He has been connected with the Branch Banking and Trust Co., of Goldsboro, for the past three years.

The bride is well known here, where she has frequently visited in the home of her grandfather, Dr. M. A. Royall.

They are making their home in Goldsboro.

Mrs. Whitaker Compliments Visitors at Luncheon

Complimenting week-end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Whitaker and Mr. and Mrs. Errol Hayes, Mrs. Whitaker entertained at a lovely buffet luncheon Saturday at their home on Church street. The dining room table was centered with Shasta daisies and baby's breath in a low silver bowl on a mirror reflector, and ivory candles in silver candelabra were used on either end of the table. Small bouquets of white flowers were used to center the four small tables in the living room and library, where the guests were seated.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker were: Mrs. Minnie B. Marshall and Robert Marshall of Greensboro, Mrs. S. E. Marshall of Mountain Park; Mrs. R. A. Frye of Pilot Mountain, Mrs. J. Matt Tuttle of Winston-Salem, and Mrs. H. L. Lyon of Oxford. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes were: Mrs. C. B. Clegg of Greensboro, Mrs. Dallas Kirby of Danbury, Mrs. Henry Wolfe and Mrs. Rosa Marshall of Mountain Park and Mrs. William H. Waring of New York City.

Oxford Singing Class Is to Be Here August 15

A singing class from Oxford Orphanage will present a concert Friday evening, August 16, at the Lyric theatre. The concert will be presented in connection with the feature picture "The Biscuit Eater." There will be no advance in the admission price.

The appearance of the group here is sponsored by the Elkin Masonic Lodge, and a generous per cent. of the box office receipts will go to the orphanage.

A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

Fleming Reunion Will Be Sept. 8

The annual Fleming reunion will be held at Mt. Pleasant Methodist church, Boonville, route 1, Sunday, Sept. 8. A picnic dinner will be served on the church grounds at noon and all members, relatives and friends of the Fleming family are invited to attend.

The committee in charge of arrangements is J. A. Fleming, E. A. Fleming and Arnie Shore.

REASON DE LUXE

It happened in night court. The drunk swayed before the judge.

"This is the sixth time you've been brought before me on a charge of drunkenness," cried the annoyed judge. "What's the matter with you?"

He paused for a reply. The stew's head kept bobbing up and down aimlessly. The judge shrugged. "This guy was hopeless."

"Guilty or not guilty?" droned the judge.

The drunk looked up blearily. "Guilty," he hiccupped. "With an explanashun."

The judge glared at him impatiently.

"Very well," said the justice. "What is your explanation for being drunk this time?"

The stew moved closer.

"Jus thish, your honor," he confided. "I drank too much!"

One More Thing
Hubby—I've already admitted that I was wrong. What more do you want me to do?
Wifey—Just own up that I was right.

WITH THE SICK

The following patients have been admitted to the local hospital during the past week: Ernest Brown, Traphill; Luther Hurt, Ronda; Mrs. Lydia Caudill, State Road; Pansy Stoker, Glade Valley; Mrs. Hazel Stanley, Dobson; Mrs. Lizzie Gillispie, Dobson;

Pierce Hare, Boonville; Mrs. Della Newman, Elkin; Betty Jean Roberson, Jonesville; Jessie Wolfe, Mountain Park; John B. Jones, Jr., Elkin; Rev. W. L. Hutchins, Waynesville; Gilmer Phillips, Elkin; Mrs. Josie Carico, Yadkinville; Pearl Ashley, Boonville; Walter E. Hayes, Yadkinville; Mrs. Gene Lewis, Elkin; Mrs. Lucille Berry, Granite Falls;

Mrs. Margie Stonestreet, Elkin; Robert Swaim, Benham; Fred Day, Elkin; Carrie Bryant, Rockford; Mrs. Lonnie Brown, Benham; Howard Sparks, Elkin; Rev. L. B. Abernethy, Elkin; Artie Bryant, Jonesville; Ralph Martin, Elkin; Reeds Wilmoth, State Road; Mrs. Mamie Apperson, Elkin.

Patronize Tribune advertisers.

Advertising is ROMANCE

YOU READ THE ADS. As you read, visions come, and a desire for better things.

Do you see dresses? You picture yourself of a summer evening in this drifting white chiffon, softly printed with delicate blossoms.

Hats? Your mind's eye frames your face with a pastel shaded halo.

Foods? A cool, jolly dinner, with exciting news of the family's day.

Sporting goods? A slashing tennis game. A well-hit drive from the tee. A hard-hooked fish and a screaming reel.

Some people say that all enthusiasm should be taken out of advertising. In books and speeches they crusade for bleak little ads that give nothing but thread counts, strength and chemical tests, dimensions and prices. What a pity if they had their way!

Advertising is one of the welcome voices that directs our eyes upward. It has worked wonders, in raising our standard of living. Let's encourage it to continue on its inspiring way.

Courtesy Nation's Business

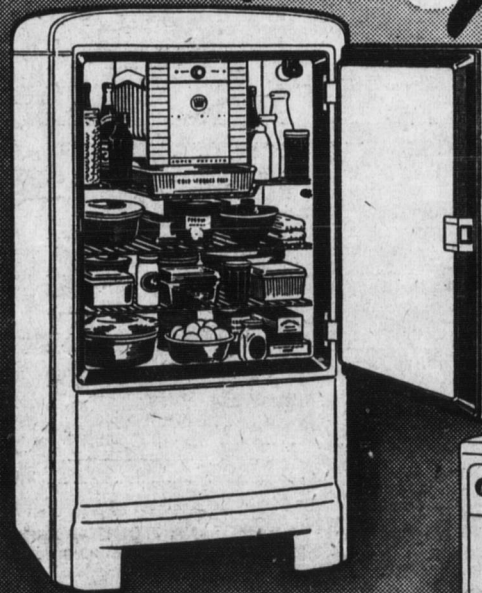

HOPE TO SEE OLD FRIENDS AUGUST 18

The Tribune is requested by Rev. W. V. Brown of East Bend, to announce that he and his family will spend Sunday August 18, at their old home near Cycle, and attend services at Oak Grove church, where they hope to meet many of their old friends and neighbors during the day.

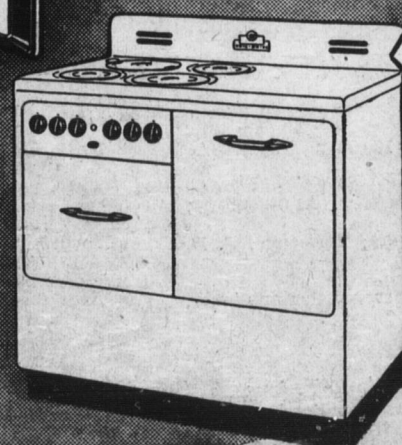

Another FRIGIDAIRE Every 17½ Seconds!
World's Largest Refrigerator Factory Now Producing at Fastest Pace in History to Meet Greatest Public Demand!

Easy Way to a Bright, Cool Kitchen!

Frigidaire AT ALL-TIME LOW PRICES

MODEL SVS 6
Only $114.75
EASY TERMS

MODEL B-10
Only $99.75
EASY TERMS

Say Good-bye to cooking problems with this thrifty cabinet model Frigidaire Electric Range. Does not over-heat the kitchen even when large oven meals are prepared. And costs much less to operate than you'd expect! Come in and see its many features including 5-speed cooking units, large twin-unit oven, thrifty Thermizer Well-Cooker—and many others!

See Our Midsummer Magic Demonstrations!
They take the mystery out of Refrigerator and Range buying!

HARRIS ELECTRIC COMPANY

Phone 250

Elkin, N. C.

WANT to save money on oil, folks? Then use Sinclair Opaline or Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil. These oils save you money because they last so long. You don't have to add oil so often between drains.

SINCLAIR

Copyrighted 1940 by Sinclair Refining Company (Inc.)

Agent Sinclair Refining Company (Inc.)

H. P. Graham, Elkin, N. C.