Has Collection Of Almanacs for Past 50 Years

W. W. Whitaker, of this city, who is a collector of various types of antiques and curios, has in his possession a collection of Blum's Almanacs for the past 50 years. Mr. Whitaker, who is Elkin's oldest merchant, has been a distributor for Blum's Almanacs for a number of years and he says that equally interesting with the data in the almanacs is the dealers' names stamped on the fronts, many of whom are dead or have been away from Elkin for many years. Not one year of the past 50 is missing from Mr. Whitaker's collection and he is endeavoring to get them even farther back, but he says that so far he has been unable to secure older copies, with the exception of one which has been promised him.

SLOT MACHINES SCORED BY JURY

Yadkin County Body Takes Up Matter in Its Report to Judge

REMOVAL IS SOUGHT

Yadkinville, Aug. 21.—(Special)—The superior court grand jury adjourned yesterday after a two-day session. Roger Hunt, of East Bend, was foreman, and D. R. Groce, Yadkinville, route 2, secretary. The usual inspections were made, with a special recommendation regarding slot machines, asking that all illegal slot machines be removed from the county, and went so far as to ask the next grand jury to investigate and see if their recommendations have been carried out. The report is as follows:

To His Honor, Allen H. Gwyn, Judge Presiding:

The Grand Jury respectfully reports its proceedings as follows: Number of Bills Acted on.....13 Number of True Bills Found.....7 Number Not True Bills.....3 Presentments.....1

We visited the County Home in a body and found the same well kept and inmates told us they were well cared for and well fed. We found that the pumps in the well were in need of immediate repair and we recommend that these pumps be repaired at once; also the floor around the well needs repairing.

We visited the County Jail in a body and found the same in excellent condition.

We visited the following County Offices in a body: Clerk of the Superior Court, Register of Deeds, County Accountant, and Sheriff, and found them to be in good condition and well kept.

We have made an investigation with reference to Your Honor's charge on illegal slot machines, and we find that there have been operated in Yadkin county numbers of illegal slot machines and gambling devices, but we did not make any presentments for the reason that we understand that the Yadkin County Criminal Court has jurisdiction, and we, therefore, recommend that the Sheriff of Yadkin County seize all illegal slot machines and gambling devices in Yadkin County and swear out warrants for the owners and operators of said machines and devices. We further recommend that the Judge and the Solicitor of the Yadkin County Criminal Court cooperate with the Sheriff of Yadkin County in ridding Yadkin County of all illegal slot machines and gambling devices. We further recommend that the next succeeding Grand Jury make an investigation as to whether these recommendations have been carried out.

We wish to commend His Honor, Allen H. Gwyn, for the business-like and impartial manner in which he has conducted this term of Court, and his fine sense of justice displayed in all cases.

Former Wilkes County Woman Passes Away

Mrs. Marshall Anderson, 35, of Greensboro, formerly Miss Emma Walker, of Denneysville, Wilkes county, died at her home in Greensboro Friday night. Mrs. Anderson had suffered from a heart ailment for the past ten years and for the past five years she had been an invalid.

She was a daughter of Rev. Marcus Walker, of Denneysville, well known retired Baptist minister, and the late Mrs. Walker, and was a sister of L. F. Walker, of this city.

She is survived by her husband, three children, her father and several brothers and sisters.

Funeral rites were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 from the Denneysville Baptist church. The rites were in charge of Rev. Mr. Parker, of Greensboro, pastor of the deceased, assisted by Rev. Stephen Morrisett, pastor of the First Baptist church in this city. Interment was in the church cemetery.
