WINSTON FAIR OCTOBER 1-5

Annual Event Is Announced As Biggest and Best Ever Planned

OFFICE IS REOPENED

The forty-first annual Winston-Salem and Forsyth County fair will be held at the fairgrounds in Winston-Salem from October 1st to 5th and promises to be the biggest and best ever. The management has widely advertised the event throughout the Piedmont section of North Carolina and several thousand premium lists have been distributed to assure a representative exhibition of agricultural and livestock products of this entire section. The list of premiums is still one of the largest offered in the South and competition in the various classes is certain to be keen.

The office of the fair secretary has been reopened at the fairgrounds and an attendant is constantly on duty during business hours to attend to the multitude of details essential to the operation of one of Carolinas' largest and most successful fairs.

In addition to increased space for the exhibits this year, the management has gone to extreme lengths to assure the finest and most completely satisfying entertainment for the 1940 fair visitors. The midway will feature the World of Mirth Shows, the largest organization of the kind in America, with over fifty rides and shows for the amusement and entertainment of old and young.

There will be the usual high class circus acts on the race track each afternoon and night, horse racing each afternoon, with automobile races on Saturday. The famous Roxyettes, direct from New York, will feature the evening entertainment at the grandstand.

All in all, it promises to be the finest outdoor entertainment program ever featured at any fair in this section of the South. Wednesday, October 2nd, will be county childrens' day when all school children from Forsyth and adjoining counties will be the guests of the management. Free tickets will be distributed later this month.
