

SPORTSMEN FORM CLUB

Surry County Men Form Club Following Meeting of Lowgap Group

PICNIC PLANNED HERE

Friday evening of last week the Lowgap Fishing club, known as Rainbow Trout, Inc., was host to a number of friends and invited guests at their lodge near Lowgap. A delightful supper of trout, fried chicken, ham and accessories was served. A string band made the welkins ring with mountain music.

Among the guests from a distance were: Thurmond Chatham, Alex Chatham and Worth Gray, of Elkin; George Royall and Guy Wallace, of Alleghany county; Rev. T. R. Wirsing, of Galax, Va.; R. A. Freeman and J. G. Wood, of Dobson; W. M. Johnson, T. G. Fawcett, Joe Jackson, W. E. Woodruff and D. C. Rector, of Mount Airy.

After the supper W. E. Woodruff, acting as toastmaster, called upon Thurmond Chatham, Guy Wallace and others for speeches. Mr. Chatham made a most appropriate talk on the need for thought and organization in the matter of game and fish conservation and, whether by design or chance, laid the ground work for a sportsman's club. Mr. Royall then told the group how such organizations had been effected in other counties.

Worth Gray, of Elkin, made a motion that the group proceed to the organization of a club to be known as Surry County Sportsmen's club (a Conservation Society). The motion was carried and the toastmaster appointed as temporary chairman of the organization, D. C. Rector. Sixteen men of the group joined the organization and paid a dollar each as annual dues.

The society appointed the following sportsmen as a temporary committee, authorizing this committee to proceed to the organization of a permanent society: Thurmond Chatham, Alex Chatham, W. M. Gray, Joe Bivins and F. M. Norman, of Elkin; Charley Patterson, R. B. Davis, Charley Fulk, Blake Carson and W. E. Matthews, of Pilot Mountain; T. N. Woodruff, W. L. Jackson and Claude Lowe, of Lowgap; Chris Bunker, R.F.D., Mount Airy; Dr. S. T. Plippin and Howard Hardy, of Siloam; Dr. Beach and Prof. M. C. Minor, of Westfield; Joe Saylor, of Devotion; Grover Wood and J. E. Stanley, of Rockford; W. Frank Thompson, of Mountain Park; Mont Worrell, R.F.D., Lowgap; Bausie Marion, Dr. Joe Folger, Dr. Paul Folger and R. A. Freeman, of Dobson; D. C. Rector, Joe Jackson, Martin Bennett, W. M. Johnson, J. S. Belton, Dr. T. C. Britt and W. E. Merritt, Sr., Mount Airy.

Thurmond Chatham invited the various county groups charged with putting over the county-wide organization and their friends to hold their meeting in Elkin within the next week or so, stating that he and the Elkin sportsmen would supply a picnic supper. For the purpose of this larger group meeting Mr. Rector will notify the members and urge each of them to round up and bring along their hunting and fishing friends.

Karakul Boom

RAMONA, Cal. . . . Boom days are here for ranchers who have been raising Karakul sheep. The inability of buyers to obtain pelts from Asia Minor has proved a bonanza for the few American sheepmen who raise them. Here Mary Hewlett is pictured with a little fellow who some day will be worth his weight in gold.

No Change in Thanksgiving Day, Says Hoey

Raleigh—Thanksgiving Day in North Carolina will be November 28, as it was last year, Governor Clyde R. Hoey said Tuesday.

Hoey disclosed he had received a resolution from the North Carolina Merchants Association requesting that the holiday be moved to the third Thursday in November.

"I am thoroughly sympathetic with any move to increase the business of our merchants, but I see no reason why they should wait until Thanksgiving Day to display their Christmas goods or to open the Christmas sales," the Governor said.

SAFETY TALK IS MADE TO CLUB

Chief Assistant to Highway Safety Director Is Kiwanis Guest

OUTDOOR MEET TODAY

N. C. Barefoot, chief assistant of Ronald Hocutt, director of Highway Safety in North Carolina, was guest speaker at the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis club at Hotel Elkin Thursday evening at 6:30. Mr. Barefoot's subject was "Highway Safety and How It Can Be Solved." The speaker stated that in 10 years approximately 10,000 people had been killed on the highways and 85,000 injured, some permanently, in North Carolina. Accidents last year cost the state $25,000,000, equivalent to the cost of operating the schools of North Carolina for two years. One person is injured every hour and 15 minutes, and one killed every eight hours, on the highways of North Carolina, he said.

H. P. Graham, chairman of the Public Affairs Committee of the club, introduced the speaker and was in charge of the program.

This evening (Thursday) the club meets at the gymnasium for a Brunswick stew, which will be served by the Elkin Woman's club. It will be a ladies' night affair. Proceeds of the dinner will be used by the Woman's Club for the public library here. Supper will be served at 6:30.

Tomorrow (Friday) at 6:30, the club will meet at Roaring River. This will be an inter-club meeting with North Wilkesboro. There will be no meeting of the club next week, due to the fact that two meetings are being held this week.

During the business session President L. S. Weaver, W. M. Allen and Julius Hall were elected as delegates to the Carolinas District Convention, which will be held in Winston-Salem, October 6th, 7th and 8th. Hoke Henderson, Wilbur Carter and I. C. Yates were named as alternates.

Charlie Weaver was welcomed into the club as a new member. John W. Comer, superintendent of Surry county schools, J. Sam Gentry, principal of Mountain Park school, Paul Lewis, principal of North Elkin school, and Patrolman Lee Phillips, were guests of the club. Lieutenant W. B. Lentz, of Asheville, was a guest of Kiwanian Hugh Royall.

THURMOND

A marshmallow roast was given by Miss Cecil Mae and Mr. Bert Richardson at their home on Wednesday night, September 11. The 28 guests who were present enjoyed a number of games. Miss Irene Simmons won the bingo prize. Favors were miniature American flags and toy airplanes.

Everyone reported a delightful evening. This was given as a farewell party for Miss Richardson, who left Sunday for Bridgewater, Va., where she will be a freshman at college this year.

WILKES LEGION POST PLANS SQUARE DANCE

A small admission fee will be charged. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Vegetable Laxative Has Important Points

This laxative does three important things for most users. If simple directions are followed, it usually acts punctually, thoroughly, gently. You will like spicy BLACK-DRAUGHT'S way. Chief of its all-vegetable ingredients is an "intestinal tonic-laxative" which helps tone lazy bowel muscles. Next time, take BLACK-DRAUGHT. Economical, too; 25 to 40 doses, 25c.
