The meeting was opened with the singing of "America" and the devotionals were conducted by Mr. Harvey Madison.

A short business session was held during which minutes of the last meeting were read and reports were given from various committees. Following the business session, the following program was rendered: a reading, "Tommy On Parent-Teachers," by Leonard Lineberry; a duet, "The P.-T. A. Song," by Miss Ruby Bray and Mrs. Odell Holcomb, accompanied by Mrs. R. G. Boles at the piano. An interesting address was made by Supt. Fred C. Hobson on the "P.-T. A." Following the program, a social hour was enjoyed during which refreshments were served.

COMPLETE RED CROSS QUOTAS

New Allotments Are Expected Soon; Women Urged to Join in Work

MRS. BRYAN CHAIRMAN

Mrs. P. M. Green, production chairman of the Elkin Red Cross, has announced that all war relief quotas have been filled and that a new quota will be received soon, the National Red Cross to supply the materials for this allotment instead of the local unit. An urgent appeal is being made to all women of Elkin to join in this work.

The quota completed included 34 sweaters, six beanies, three shawls, 16 pairs of booties, and 10 layettes. Five of the latter were made by the Devotion members.

The American Red Cross Roll Call is again drawing near. Mrs. A. O. Bryan has been appointed Roll Call chairman of the Elkin branch of the Surry county chapter.

It has been pointed out that the responsibility of enlarging the services of the Red Cross to meet the needs of the National Defense lies ahead. This will involve carrying out charter obligations of expanding every service bearing on the health and welfare of the nation.

To carry out this task, officials here stated, "we must seek the membership support of every loyal American."

STABLE

American food prices held remarkably stable during the first year of the European War, showing little change, reports the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

CANNED

Of Florida's 1939-40 grapefruit and orange harvest, more than 13,000,000 field boxes, almost a third of the crop, went into cans, reports the State Citrus Commission.

Real Difference

Teacher: "Now, Freddie, explain the difference between 'sufficient' and 'enough'." Freddie: "If mother helps me to cake, I get sufficient, if I help myself, I get enough."

THIRTY-SIX WILD TURKEYS RELEASED

A total of 36 wild turkeys have been turned loose in Alleghany and in the edge of Surry county recently, it was learned Saturday from George Royall, of Roaring Gap.

Mr. Royall stated that there is no open season on wild turkeys and that it is unlawful to kill them at any time.

Violators of the law in this respect will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law in case of their apprehension, he said.

HOME-COMING AT MT. HARMON ON 6th

There will be a home-coming at Mount Hermon Baptist church, one mile north of Crutchfield, next Sunday, October 6th. Everyone is invited to come and bring a basket.

It will be an all-day service and lunch will be served on church grounds at the noon hour.

Week of Prayer Is Observed Friday Night

The annual Week of Prayer was observed Friday night at the church. Miss Bertha Adams was in charge of the program and was assisted by the following Y. W. A. girls: Misses Evelyn Arnold and Cornelia Lineberry and Mrs. Dewey Helton. The contributions were made, after which they were dismissed by prayer.

POPLAR SPRING

The fifth Sunday singing convention was held with the Poplar Spring Baptist church Sunday, with a large attendance. Rev. John Hinson was appointed chairman for the day. Singers taking part were: Mount Pleasant quartet, Stalling quartet of Salisbury, Victory Sacred Singers quartet of North Wilkesboro, South Thomasville Trio of Thomasville, Friendly Four quartet of North Wilkesboro, Macedonia, Little Elkin, Maple Spring, Hinchshaw Street of North Wilkesboro, and the Poplar Spring Choirs.

Singing was enjoyed in the morning, and at noon a bountiful dinner was spread on the church grounds. Everyone enjoyed the great singing feast and it was voted for the next singing to be held at Macedonia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hayes and children spent Friday night with Mrs. Hayes' mother, Mrs. Alice Durham, of Roaring River.

Mrs. J. H. McCoin, who was injured in a wreck Saturday, is still in the Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital. Her condition is somewhat improved.

Rev. Mr. Peeler will preach at the Poplar Spring Baptist church Saturday night, October 5. The public is cordially invited to attend the service.

Mr. E. J. Durham, of Roaring River, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hayes. On Sunday Mr. Durham, accompanied by Mr. Hayes and family, motored to Independence, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ray and daughter, Alma, of Winston-Salem, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Guyer and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Isaacs, of Mountain Park, a short time Sunday afternoon.

Liabe North Carolina employers had paid $35,911,303.91 into the State Unemployment Fund through June 30, 1940.
