HOLD ANNUAL REUNION OF GREEN-GRAY CLANS

The annual reunion of the Green-Gray clan was held September 22 at Clingman school, with a large crowd attending. The program began with the devotional and welcome by Rev. R. R. Crater, followed with songs by the Pleasant Grove quartet, composed of Loyd Martin, Walter Martin, Grey and Colin Pardue.

Inspirational and patriotic speeches were made by Attorneys I. E. Story and Eugene Trevette, of North Wilkesboro.

After a bountiful lunch was spread, Mr. Story was asked to return thanks.

The next reunion will be held at the same place in 1941. The program and arrangement committee will be H. G. Green, Tyra Gray and John Gray.
