All members are urged to attend and visitors and new comers to Elkin are cordially invited.

Junior Church Choir is Feted Friday

Following the weekly practice of the junior choir of the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, Mrs. O. V. Caudill and Mrs. O. T. Blackburn entertained the young people at a surprise party at the home of Mrs. Blackburn on Bridge street. Twenty-three members of the choir and four visitors were present. A number of games and contests were enjoyed, with prizes going to Jim Hanks, Dick Webster, Walter Gaynor and Betty Long. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Amburn-Edwards Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Luther F. Amburn of Boonville announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Anne, to Earle Beecher Edwards of Fayetteville. The wedding will be solemnized in a simple ceremony October 13.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Boonville high school and of a Greensboro business college and has made her home in Greensboro some years. Mr. Edwards is a native of Charlotte, attended Tulane University at New Orleans, La., and for two years has been in business at Fayetteville.

Mrs. Gray and Miss Masencup Entertain Friday

Mrs. Burrus Gray and Miss Grace Masencup entertained at a delightful party Friday evening at the Lucy Hanes Chatham clubhouse honoring Misses Florence and Margaret Westmorland and Gilmer Dinkins and Kenneth Duddley on their birthday anniversaries. The club house was attractively decorated with autumn flowers and in the center of the room the table was centered with a handsome birthday cake, topped with candles. Surrounding the cake were rosebuds and fern. Games and contests were enjoyed during the evening. Cake and punch were served. The guest list included twenty-five.

Mrs. Biggs is Hostess to Garden Club Thursday Afternoon

Mrs. M. A. Biggs delightfully entertained members of the Yadkin Valley Garden club at the regular meeting at her home on West Main street Thursday afternoon. Guests in addition to the thirteen club members present were Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Sr., and Mrs. W. L. Cawthon, the latter of Jackson, Tenn.

A colorful array of autumn flowers was arranged in the living room, hall and dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Folger Honor Guests at Party

Honoring their week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Long of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Folger entertained at a delightful bridge-dinner Saturday evening at their home on Gwyn avenue.

Autumn flowers were used in the living room, dining room and hall, where covers were placed for twenty at five small tables. Dinner was served at 7:30 and bridge was played during the evening. Scoring honors went to Mrs. A. O. Bryan and Thomas Roth at the conclusion of the play. Mr. and Mrs. Long were each presented a gift.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Folger were: Dr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Hayward, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spainhour, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Poindexter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Page, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Dortch, and Mrs. Hartley Lord of Wellesley Hills, Mass., the latter a sister of Mrs. Folger.

Mrs. Cawthon is Honored by Mrs. Poindexter

Honoring Mrs. W. L. Cawthon of Jackson, Tenn., who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mrs. Carl Poindexter was hostess at a lovely morning party and luncheon Thursday at her home on Gwyn avenue. Bridge was played at four tables in the forenoon, with the high score award going to Mrs. W. L. Cawthon at the conclusion of the play. Mrs. Cawthon was also presented a gift as guest of honor. Mrs. John Raper of Lexington and Mrs. M. E. Motsinger of Winston-Salem, out of town guests, were also presented remembrances.

Four additional friends, Mrs. G. T. Roth, Mrs. I. L. Halsey of Mouth of Wilson, Va., Mrs. L. E. Osborne of Pittsburg, Pa., and Mrs. E. F. McNeer, came in for lunch. Among these Mrs. Roth drew the prize and Mesdames Halsey and Osborne, out-of-town guests, were presented remembrances.

A beautiful arrangement of autumn flowers was used in the living room and dining room, and as a centerpiece for the luncheon table.

Parent-Teachers Meet in First Session of Year Monday

The initial meeting of the school year of the Parent-Teacher Association was held at the elementary school auditorium Monday afternoon, with a splendid attendance. The meeting opened with the P-T. A. song, followed by the devotional period in charge of Rev. Herman F. Duncan.

Mrs. Harold Click, president of the association, presided over the business session, which featured routine reports. Miss Minnie Ruth McNeill, of the school faculty, gave a report of the Parent-Teacher Institute at Chapel Hill during the summer, which she attended.

It was decided to observe bundle day today (Thursday) and anyone having usable clothing for children from the ages of 6 to 14 is asked to call Mrs. T. A. Leeper, who will arrange to have the bundles gathered. They will be distributed to children in the elementary school who do not have adequate clothing.

Group singing, led by Miss Josephine Paul, and two piano solos by Mrs. Stephen Morrisett, concluded the program.

Attendance awards went to Miss Mary Hendren's first grade in the elementary school, and Miss Mary Virginia Barker's tenth grade in the high school.

Three Groups Enjoy Picnics During Week

Three groups have enjoyed picnics during the week at the W. A. Neaves picnic park in West-over Heights.

On Thursday evening of last week members of the George Gray Post of the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary held a joint meeting which was climaxed with a chicken stew and picnic supper. Approximately 60, including a few invited guests, enjoyed the delightful outing.

Rev. J. S. Hatt spoke briefly during the evening and members of the Legion also made impromptu talks.

On Friday evening approximately 50 employees of the Central Electric and Telephone company, including employees from the offices in Elkin, Mount Airy, Mocksville, Leaksville, North Wilkesboro, Sparta, Pilot Mountain, Rural Hall and Charlottesville, Va., enjoyed a picnic supper at the park. The occasion marked the annual get-together meeting of the company.

The last of the series was the annual chicken stew given by members of the Mason Lillard Bible class of the Methodist church Monday evening. The guest list, which included members of the class and their families, and several visitors, numbered about one hundred. A bountiful supper was served.

Woman's Club Luncheon Is Held Tuesday; Mrs. Binford Speaks With ninety-five members present, the annual get-together luncheon of the Elkin Woman's club was held Tuesday in the banquet hall at Hotel Elkin. The ment, introduced thirty-two new club members.

During the business session, over which Mrs. R. C. Freeman, club president, presided, plans were made for the work of the club year, which included the adult night school, the public library project and the equipping of the elementary school playground, which are the major club objectives. An appeal was made for workers for the American Red Cross by Mrs. P. M. Greene, in charge of the work locally, and Mrs. Marion Allen made a motion to supply the recreation room of Camp Clyde R. Hoey, local CCC camp, with pictures. The club year books were dedicated this year to the enrollees of the camp for their splendid citizenship during the recent flood disaster.

The program was interspersed with two vocal solos, "By the Bend of the River" and "Joy," by Miss Josephine Paul, accompanied by Mrs. Franklin Folger, Jr. The meeting closed with the more heat Faster!

GUARANTEED WITH South Wind 90 SECOND CAR HEATER

Heats Hot In 90 Seconds By The Stop Watch

DON'T drive in an "ice box" again this winter, inviting colds and sniffles. Come in today and let us show you the greatest car heater invention you ever saw... the amazing South Wind that heats hot in 90 seconds by the stop watch.

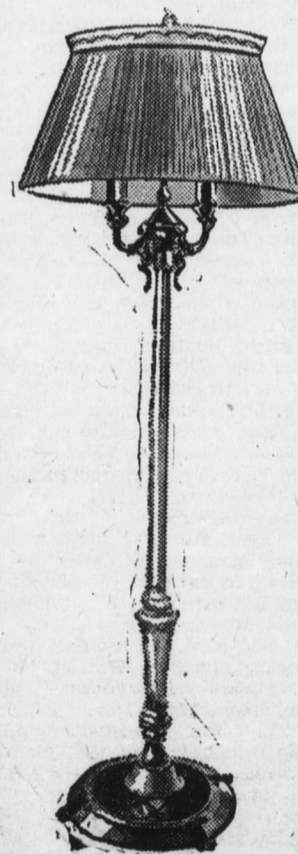

The South Wind is America's fastest-selling quality heater because it gives hot heat while your engine is still cold! It makes its own heat—burns fuel from the carburetor inside a patented sealed chamber, from which all fumes pass out the engine exhaust!

You get real fireside comfort for less per hour than the price of a stick of gum—comfort no other heater at any price can give. Yet the South Wind costs no more than a good ordinary heater. Let us install your South Wind now—before colder days arrive.

New! South Wind "Special"
Identical in principle to the bigger South Wind, the new "Special" is smaller, and costs less, yet gives more heat in shorter time than any other heater except the South Wind itself. See it here.
