

SOCIETY

Legion Auxiliary to Meet Monday Evening

The Women's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion will meet Monday evening at 7:45 at the home of Miss Effie Crater on Gwyn avenue, with Miss Mattie Mae Powell and Mrs. Ruth Byrd Crater associate hostesses. All members are cordially invited to attend.

Mounce-Steel Marriage Is Announced

Miss Nina Lucy Mounce and Charlie Lee Steel were married at Johnson City, Tenn., on October 5. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mounce, of East Bend, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. Arlis Steel and the late Mr. Steel, of Harmony. After October 13, Mr. and Mrs. Steel will reside in Harmony.

Presbyterian Circle Meets Monday Evening

The circle of the Presbyterian church met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. O. V. Caudill on Gwyn avenue, with seven members present. Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Sr., taught the Bible study and conducted the devotionals. An interesting program, on the greatest home mission needs, was presented by Mrs. Dan Barbour, assisted by Mrs. O. V. Caudill, Mrs. O. D. Causey and Mrs. W. R. Wellborn.

A delicious refreshment course was served during a pleasant social hour.

Mrs. Wade Is Club Hostess Saturday Evening

Mrs. L. I. Wade entertained members of the Round Dozen Book club at a dessert rook at her home on West Main street Saturday evening, with three tables in play. Autumn flowers, in brilliant colors, were used in the reception rooms. In the games the high score award went to Miss Mattie Mae Powell and the runner-up award went to Mrs. J. P. Ipock.

Mrs. Elizabeth Abernethy, of Hamlet, niece of the hostess, was the only visitor.

Fortnightly Club Meets With Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn entertained members of the Fortnightly Bridge club at their home on Gwyn avenue Friday evening. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock, and during the evening bridge was enjoyed. The high score award went to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers at the close of a series of interesting progressions.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers and Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell.

Mrs. Gwyn Is Hostess to Bridge Club Thursday

Mrs. Paul Gwyn delightfully entertained members of her bridge club at a morning party and luncheon Thursday at her home on Gwyn avenue. Two tables were placed for the games amid a pretty setting of autumn flowers. In the progressions the high score award went to Mrs. R. C. Freeman.

Those making up the tables were: Mrs. Raymond Chatham, Mrs. R. C. Freeman, Mrs. Charles G. Ashby, Mrs. Errol Hayes, Mrs. Marion Allen, Mrs. R. M. Ogburn, Mrs. T. A. Redman and Mrs. Charles Dixon. Luncheon was served at one o'clock.

Miss Gene Click Celebrates 11th Birthday

Honoring her daughter, Gene, on her 11th birthday anniversary, Mrs. E. G. Click entertained at a delightful party Thursday evening from seven until ten o'clock at their home on Circle Court. The guest list included 24 girls and boys of a similar age. A number of games and contests were enjoyed during the evening.

The home was attractively arranged throughout with pink and white asters and the dining room table was centered with a handsome birthday cake, bearing 11 lighted candles, and decorated in pink and white. Ices and cake were served during the evening and the girls were presented favors of small china baskets and the boys were given ship models.

Beta Club Meets With Misses Hayes and Aldridge

Misses Eleanor Hayes and Maxine Aldridge were hostesses to the high school Beta club on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Hayes on Church street, with seventeen members and the faculty advisors, Misses Mary Virginia Barker and Evon Eldridge, present.

An interesting program on the "Origin and Development of Dress" was presented by Bobby Chatham, assisted by Misses Marie Hutchines, Marjorie Kingsley, Mary Frances Combs and Maxine Aldridge.

During the business session five new members were initiated by Eugene Aldridge, master of ceremonies.

Hot chocolate and doughnuts were served during a pleasant social hour.

Unique Party to Be Held by Woman's Club

A telephone party, a unique type of party, will be sponsored on Monday afternoon and evening of next week by the Elkin Woman's club. In the afternoon bridge and rook will be played and in the evening the players will engage in rook and set back.

The party is under the direction of Mrs. Franklin Folger, Jr., chairman of the ways and means committee of the club, and the plans are for as many people as will to have one or more tables in play in their homes, the play to begin in the afternoon at 2:30 and close at 5 o'clock, and in the evening to begin at 8 o'clock and continue until 10:30. At the conclusion of the games the scores of the respective players are to be telephoned to Mrs. Folger, who will deliver high score awards to winners in the various groups. Each person having the tables of players is expected to collect a small cover fee, the fee to go to the general club treasury.

For details of the plan club members and other interested parties are requested to call Mrs. Folger at telephone 316 or 18.

Miss Myers Is Married to Edworth Freeman

Of interest to friends here is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Huzle Ann Myers and Edworth Freeman, which was solemnized in a pretty ceremony Friday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. R. G. Myers, near Jonesville. Rev. David Day officiated, using the ring ritual of the Baptist church. An improvised altar was arranged in the living room with greenery and white flowers. Only the immediate families of the young couple attended the ceremony.

Little Carleen Myers, of Dillon, S. C., niece of the bride, was ring bearer, carrying the ring on a white satin pillow, and little Carolyn Freeman, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl. They wore identical dresses of wine velvet.

The bride wore a two-piece suit of soldier blue, trimmed in red fox, and her accessories were of black suede. Her bouquet was of sweetheart roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Grace Myers, as maid of honor, who wore a street length dress of navy blue, with navy accessories, and carried a bouquet of roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Woodrow Lawrence as best man.

Prior to the ceremony the wedding party and guests were entertained at supper by the bride's mother.

Mrs. Freeman is the daughter of Mrs. Myers and the late R. G. Myers, of Jonesville, and is a charming and attractive young woman. Mr. Freeman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman, of this city. Both Mr. and Mrs. Freeman are employed with Chatham Manufacturing company. They are making their home temporarily with the bridegroom's parents on Elk Spur street.

The Pauline Moore circle met Tuesday morning at 10:30 with Miss Beulah Lawrence on North Bridge street, with 8 members and one visitor present. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Clyde McBride and the program was in charge of Mrs. Charles Young, assisted by Mrs. Loyd Martin, Mrs. Burrus Gray, Mrs. Dallas Gilliam, Miss Lexie Cummings, Mrs. Woodrow Weatherman and Mrs. Herman Royall. The Edith Adair circle met Tuesday evening with Miss Hazel Byrd on Elk Spur street, with 10 members and one visitor present. Mrs. Thomas Hendren conducted the devotionals and the program was in charge of Mrs. Johnnie Sears, assisted by Misses Minnie Ruth McNeill, Emma Cooke and Lucy Gray.

One new member, Miss Ruby Bolt, was enrolled during the meeting.

Each circle made plans for the annual birthday party of the society to be held at the church on October 28.

Refreshments were served during a social hour at the conclusion of the programs.

Methodist Mission Circles Meet Monday Afternoon

The circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon in the following homes:

Circle number one met with Mrs. W. C. Cox on Gwyn avenue, with Mrs. Joe Bivins associate hostess, with 16 members present. The meeting was dedicated to the late Mrs. David Gough, beloved member of the circle, who passed away on Sunday.

The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. J. G. Abernethy, circle chairman, and the Bible study was taught by Mrs. H. P. Graham, Mrs. W. A. Finney, Mrs. G. T. Roth and Mrs. Herbert Graham.

Circle number two met with Mrs. E. E. Harris on West Main street, with Mrs. R. L. Kirkman associate hostess, with 21 members present. Mrs. R. L. Harris conducted the devotional and the Bible study was taught by Mrs. H. C. Salmons, Mrs. Herman F. Duncan, Mrs. George Royall and Mrs. J. L. Hall. A vocal solo by Mrs. E. G. Click concluded the program.

Circle number three met with Mrs. Carl Poindexter on Gwyn avenue, with 13 members present. Mrs. Errol Hayes conducted the devotionals and the Bible lesson was taught by Mrs. Harold Click.

Circle number four met on Thursday evening with Mrs. Hugh Royall on West Main street, with Mrs. Edworth Harris associate hostess, with 12 members present. Mrs. Max Boyles presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. The mission program was presented by Mrs. John Sagar and Mrs. Roscoe Poplin.

Each hostess served a delicious refreshment course during a pleasant social hour.

Started Wrong

Edith Mae: Say, mummy, I want to know something.

Mother: What is it now, Edith Mae?

Edith Mae: When the first man started to write the word "Psalm" with a "p," why didn't he scratch it out and start over again?

A black widow spider killed a mouse and lifted it ten inches off the floor.

Advertising is ROMANCE

YOU READ THE ADS. As you read, visions come, and a desire for better things.

Do you see dresses? You picture yourself of a summer evening in this drifting white chiffon, softly printed with delicate blossoms.

Hats? Your mind's eye frames your face with a pastel shaded halo.

Foods? A cool, jolly dinner, with exciting news of the family's day.

Sporting goods? A slashing tennis game. A well-hit drive from the tee. A hard-hooked fish and a screaming reel.

Some people say that all enthusiasm should be taken out of advertising. In books and speeches they crusade for bleak little ads that give nothing but thread counts, strength and chemical tests, dimensions and prices. What a pity if they had their way!

Advertising is one of the welcome voices that directs our eyes upward. It has worked wonders in raising our standard of living. Let's encourage it to continue on its inspiring way.
