PLEASANT HILL

Services in the new church were held for the first time Sunday morning. A total of 276 was present for Sunday school. The Adults Men Bible Class was taught by Mr. W. S. Reich, who was one among the many visitors present. Several of the neighboring churches were represented by a number of their members. At the close of Sunday school, the classes assembled into the auditorium for the 11 o'clock service. The pastor, Rev. D. W. Day, delivered an inspiring message, his subject being, "The House of the Lord." He also gave a brief out-line of the history of the church and recognized the charter members which only three are living, they being, Mrs. Betty Couch, Mrs. Julia Darnell, and Mrs. Cinda Shore. The choir, and the "Singers of Yesterday," quartet (which consists of old people) furnished special music at both services.

The annual fall revival is now in progress. Rev. G. W. Swinney, of Burlington, who is assisting in the meeting, is bringing wonderful messages. Singers from his church are expected to render special music from time to time. Large crowds are attending each service. Everyone has a cordial invitation to attend.
