

These Three Get Free Theatre Tickets

The three persons pictured above will be given two theatre tickets each, good for admission to both the Elk and Lyric theatres, if they will call at The Tribune office. They were photographed by The Tribune cameraman last Saturday afternoon on West Main street.

Serial Numbers of 2,443 Registrants Appear in Tribune

The third number drawn which affected this area was 105, being held by Troy Clifton Caudie, of Pinnacle, Route 2. This number was contained in the 19th capsule to be taken from the fish bowl.

Due to the tremendous amount of time necessary to set all the order numbers affecting this draft area, The Tribune found it impossible to publish them all in this issue, although every capsule was drawn from the bowl at Washington by 5:48 a.m. Wednesday morning.

Selective Service Director Clarence A. Dykstra estimated that the first 1,500 to 3,000 numbers will provide the 800,000 who will form the first trainee contingent in the new national army. The remaining thousands are a backlog for next year and the year after as training progresses.

The order number assigned to each man will determine the order in which he will be called up for classification. All order numbers appearing in this issue of The Tribune are unofficial.

MR. DUNCAN IS RETURNED HERE

three years as presiding elder of the old Mount Airy District of the Methodist church, which at that time included the local church, and is not a stranger to Elkin. Rev. and Mrs. Gibbs will come here soon to make their home. They have three daughters and one son, all of whom are away in college, with the exception of the youngest daughter, who is a senior in high school.

It is with regret that the people of Elkin see Rev. and Mrs. Hiatt and their family go. They have been valuable additions to the town during their residence here. Rev. Hiatt has also made a splendid showing in the district during the year, 19 churches in the district having been repaired and painted and four new churches having been built. Seven parsonages have been repaired during the year and in the district 523 new members have been received into the various churches.

Rev. Dwight B. Mullis, who has capably served as pastor of the Jonesville charge for the past two years, was returned for another year. The Jonesville charge includes the churches at Jonesville, Ronda, Grassy Creek, Longtown and Maple Springs. Rev. J. W. Parker will succeed Rev. R. G. McClamrock on the Dobson charge, which includes the churches at Dobson, Rockford, Pleasant Ridge, Siloam and Stony Knoll.

Rev. L. B. Abernethy, of this city, was reelected as Mission Secretary to the Conference and Director of the Golden Cross.
