Miss Frances Gilliam Entertains Junior Class

Miss Frances Gilliam entertained the 11th grade with a party at her home Tuesday night.

Games and contests were played and prizes were awarded to Helen Brown and Helen Wall.

At the conclusion delicious refreshments were served to the following: Claude Wilkins, Mary Finney, Elizabeth Minish, Garland Robinson, Vertle Vestal, Clarence Weatherman, Helen Wall, James Pardue, Helen Brown and the hostess, Miss Gilliam.

Hallowe'en Carnival Given Thursday Night

The witches and goblins gathered Thursday night at the Jonesville school to enjoy a carnival. Some of the features of the entertainment were two dances, the "Looping Loo" and the "Seven Jumps" given by members of the second and fifth grades. Two black-face plays were given by members of the high school, "The Ghost of the Past" and "Spooks and Hootin' Owls" which added to the spirit of the occasion. A vocal duet, "Sparkin' Peggy Jane," was sung by Lott Mayberry and Helen Wall. At the close of the costume parade, prizes were presented to Tommy Ann Myers for best girl's costume and to Billy McBride for best boy's costume.

As a fitting climax of the evening, the queen of the carnival was crowned. After a close race, it was found that Doris Haynes was the most popular girl in the school, with Camilla Burcham and Mary Sue Finney following closely.

The event was thoroughly enjoyed by all.
