Legion Auxiliary to Meet Monday Evening

The Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion will meet Monday evening at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. H. F. Laffoon, on Church street.

All members are cordially invited to attend.

Bauguess-Byers

Announcement is made today of the marriage of Miss Marylee Bauguess to Ivan Byers. The marriage was solemnized in a quiet ceremony at Dobson on October 21.

Mrs. Byers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Bauguess, of State Road.

Following a brief wedding trip they are residing at State Road.

Mrs. Brown Is Hostess to Presbyterian Circle

Mrs. Ted Brown was hostess to the circle of the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church at her home on Church street Monday evening, with 14 members present. Mrs. O. V. Caudill conducted the devotional period and the program was presented by Mrs. W. R. Wellborn, assisted by Mrs. Dan Barbour, Mrs. O. T. Blackburn and Mrs. David Causey.

Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

Dorcas Class Meets Tuesday Evening

The Dorcas class of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church met in the regular business-social meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Harvey Baker, on Elk Spur street, with 22 members and two visitors present.

Mrs. Clyde Carroll conducted the devotionals and Mrs. T. L. Parnell, class president, presided over the business session, which featured routine reports and plans for class activities.

During a pleasant social hour a number of games and contests, directed by Mrs. Turner Carter, were enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Honor Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Arnold honored their daughter, Minnie Ruth, on her 17th birthday anniversary, at their home in Hamptonville, Tuesday night.

Games were enjoyed throughout the evening. The guests were ushered into the dining room, where the color scheme of pink and white was carried out effectively. There Miss Arnold opened the many lovely gifts that her friends presented her.

Cake, pickles and lemonade were served to the following: Miss Arnold, the honoree; Misses Gerry Weaver, Erlene Matthews, Dorcas and Grace Cranfill, Catherine Hinson, Caroline Bell, Marie Long, Anna Lou Reavis, Eva Ireland, Pearl, Ola and Lola Belle Steelman; Messrs. Jackson Brown, Cleo Laster, Billie Steelman, Hubert Hinson, Leo Waggoner, Claud and Ray Ireland, and Mr. and Mrs. Buford Steelman.

Masquerade Party Is Held At Nurses' Home Thursday

Members of the nursing staff of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital were hostesses at a delightful Hallowe'en masquerade party at the nurses' home on Thursday evening. Approximately 50 guests enjoyed the affair.

The entire lower floor of the home was decorated with autumn leaves, Jack o' Lanterns, shocks of corn and a colorful array of autumn flowers. The guests were masked and in costume. Miss Mary Fletcher won the costume award for ladies, and the prize for the men's costume went to Julius Speas. Miss Fletcher was presented toilet water and Mr. Speas was given a bill fold.

Various games, suggestive of the season, were enjoyed, and novelty prizes were awarded. The climax of the entertainment was the fortune telling booth, where a "real" fortune teller held sway. Punch, sandwiches, doughnuts, apples, pop corn and peanuts were served buffet style during the evening.

Elkin Valley Y. W. A. Celebrates Third Anniversary

Celebrating the third anniversary of the organization of the Carrie Woodruff circle of the Y. W. A. of the Elkin Valley Baptist church, members of the auxiliary entertained their mothers and Sunday school teachers at a social at the church on Monday evening.

Miss Grace Lawrence, president of the association, presided over the meeting and welcomed the visitors. The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. E. G. Jordan. A musical reading, "Somebody's Mother," was given by Miss Helen Hayes, with Miss Mildred Lawrence playing the piano accompaniment. Mrs. H. D. (Carrie) Woodruff, gave a brief talk, which was followed by the history of the organization by Miss Frances Martin. George Walters, superintendent of the Sunday school, Mrs. Mary Darnell, first Y. W. A. counsellor, and Mrs. Roy Collins, present leader, Mrs. Eli Jordan, Mrs. Robert Transou and Jim Mitchell all contributed to the program with brief summaries of the work of the church and its affiliated organizations. A vocal trio, composed of Misses Helen Hayes and Frances and Jean Martin, gave special music.

A social hour followed. The rooms were decorated in green and white, the auxiliary colors. The birthday cake, bearing three candles, was the central decoration of the refreshment table. Mrs. Woodruff lighted the candles on the cake and gave the invocation. Punch, cake and sandwiches were served the 40 guests attending.

Methodist Circle Meetings Well Attended
