Baptist Circles Meet Monday and Tuesday

The circles of the Woman's Missionary Union, of the First Baptist church met Monday and Tuesday in the following homes:

Monday afternoon at 3:30 the Naomi Shell circle met with Mrs. George Chatham, Sr., with 17 members present. Mrs. Parks Hampton conducted the devotionals and the program on "God's Plan of Stewardship" was presented by Mrs. T. W. Church. The closing prayer was by Mrs. T. L. Parnell.

The Neal Young circle met with Mrs. T. F. Cooley, with 10 members and two visitors present. A study of missionary current events was presented by Mrs. David Brendle and Mrs. I. C. Yates.

The Emma Leechman circle met with Mrs. F. A. Brendle, with 19 members present. Mrs. F. M. Norman presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. The program on "Times of Testing and Trouble" was presented by Mrs. L. C. Couch and Mrs. Silas Nichols.

Monday evening at 7:30 the Pearl Johnson circle met at the church with Mrs. June Robertson and Mrs. Catherine Branon hostesses, with six members present. Mrs. George Adams conducted the devotionals and the program on "European Conditions" was presented by Mrs. Mary Douglas, Mrs. Leslie Reinhardt and Mrs. J. D. Jones.

The Rosalee Appleby circle met with Miss Roxie Bowen, with 12 members and two visitors present. Miss Ola Crowder conducted the devotionals and the program was in charge of Miss Lee Mae Lowery.

The Edith Adair circle met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Minnie Ruth McNeill, with 9 members and one visitor present. Miss Lucy Gray, circle chairman, presided over the meeting. The devotionals and program were in charge of Mrs. Lawrence Wall. Assisting Mrs. Wall in the program were Miss Emma Cooke, Mrs. W. O. Hooper, Mrs. Reginald Gambill and Mrs. Jack Terrell. Refreshments were served by each hostess during a pleasant social hour.

Woman's Club In Departmental Meetings Tuesday

The initial departmental meetings of the Woman's Club were held Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. E. G. Click was hostess to the Department of Education, with 26 members present. Mrs. Mason Lillard, department chairman, presided over the meeting, which opened with the song "God Bless America," in unison by the group. Routine business was dispatched.

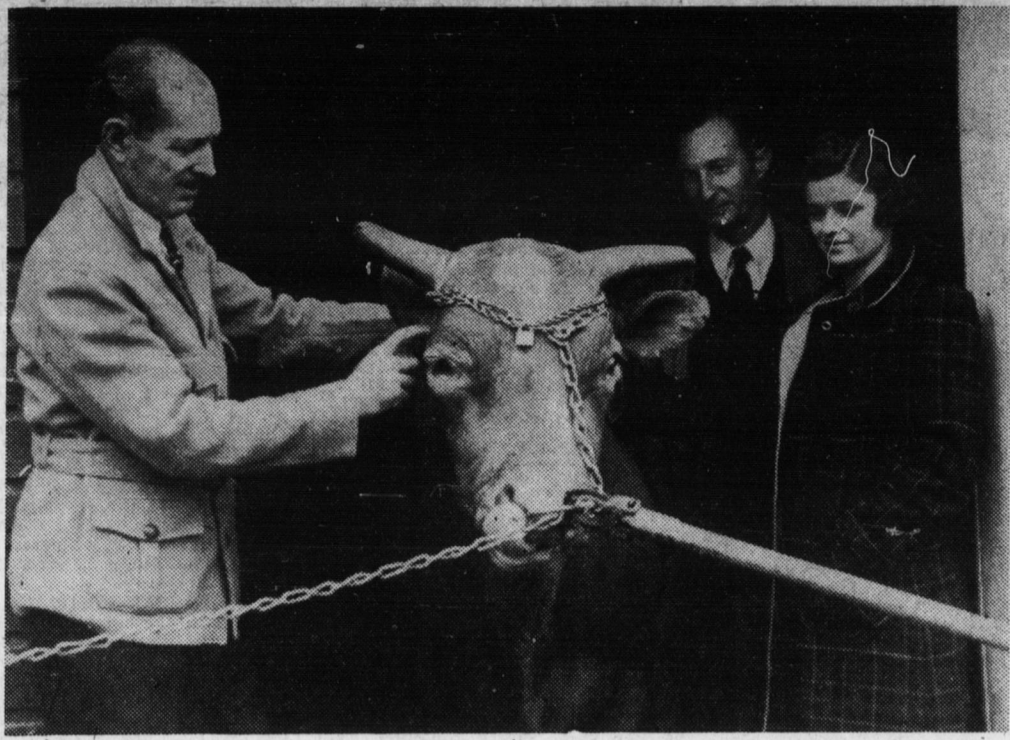

Mrs. Errol Hayes presented an interesting program on "Songs the Appalachians Sang." She gave an interesting study of mountain ballads and read several of the more famous songs, together with their histories.

The Garden Department met with Mrs. Fletcher Harris, with 28 members present. Mrs. D. G. Smith, department chairman, presided over the business session. Mrs. C. C. Poindexter, chairman of the Town Beautiful committee, announced that clean-up week would be observed the week of November 18.

An interesting program on "Soil Conservation, Past and Present," was presented by Mrs. Wallace Reynolds. Mrs. Reynolds introduced Marion Sherrill, CCC enrollee at Camp Clyde R. Hoey, who explained the methods of soil conservation as practiced by the CCC, contrasting this with former methods. A vocal solo by Mrs. J. H. Beeson and piano solos by Mrs. Stephen Morrisett were enjoyed.

The Literature Department met with Mrs. Howard Hatch, with 33 members present. Mrs. Clyde Eller, department chairman, presided over the business session. Routine reports were heard and committees were appointed as follows: Mrs. Roger Carter, Mrs. Henry Butner and Miss Minnie Ruth McNeill, to prepare a program for the observation of Safety Week, to be observed later in the month, and Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mrs. Franklin Folger, Mrs. Chas. Dixon, Mrs. Garland Johnson and Mrs. Chas. Hanes as a committee to supervise the improvements in the elementary school playground, a major department objective.

Member of Byrd Expedition Has Reunion With Iceberg

A. H. "Bud" Waite, member of the third Byrd Expedition to the South Pole, pictured as he called on Klondike Iceberg at Klondike Farm here last Friday. Mr. Waite, who lectured Friday at the local school auditorium, said that Iceberg was a small fellow when last he saw him. He told a number of interesting stories concerning the birth of the calf while en route to Little America, and remembered him as a frisky little animal during the long months there. Pictured at right is Mrs. Waite, while in background is T. F. Cooley, manager of Klondike Farm.—(Tribune Photo.)

Flames Destroy Shugart Home in Jonesville

Flames which were thought to have originated from a chimney, shortly after noon Monday completely destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Shugart. The photo above was made at the height of the blaze. A few moments later only glowing coals and a few charred embers marked the place where the house had stood.—(Tribune Photo.)

The program on "Family Finances," was presented by Mrs. James Booher, who gave a budget plan for expenditures. The program was concluded with a humorous reading by Miss Glenda Norman. Refreshments were served by the hostess groups of each department.

COOL SPRINGS

Our protracted meeting is now beginning with many visiting ministers and a good crowd at each service.

Rev. David Day preached on Monday at eleven, and Rev. Stinson of High Point Monday evening. Rev. Philmore Lawrence is also with us.

Our Sunday school is doing fine, and the Young People's meeting each Sunday evening is well attended. They had as recent visitors the group of Y. P. from Little Elkin.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Holbrook had as their week-end guests their daughter, Mrs. John Burton and Mr. Burton of Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Matilda Alexander spent the past week here the guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. R. C. Harris and Mr. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Glenn Key of Winston-Salem are guests of Mr. Key's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Key. They are attending the meeting here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Harris spent Sunday visiting their daughter, Mrs. Boyd Linder and Mr. Linder of Kannapolis.

Miss Raye Harris entertained at a Hallowe'en masquerade Thursday evening at her home here. About fifty of her young friends enjoyed the party. Games were played, fortunes told and refreshments served during the evening.

Our meeting is expected to continue two weeks, we invite you to any and all services. Come and be with us.

BOONVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Amburn and two friends from Atlanta, Ga., visited Mr. Amburn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Amburn, the past week-end.

Rev. J. P. Davis, former pastor of Boonville Baptist church, and Mrs. Katherine Mangan were the guests of friends in Boonville Tuesday afternoon and night. Mr. Davis is now pastor of Spray Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Steelman and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Stinson, of Winston-Salem, visited friends in North Fork, W. Va., recently.

A large number of teachers attended the district teachers meeting at Winston-Salem last Friday. Those attending from Boonville were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin, Misses Grace Hayes, Amanda Hallman, Bertha Hine, Martha Speas, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jessup, Mrs. Louise Coram, Miss Ruby Winkler, Miss Ruby Hinshaw, Mrs. Nova Reece, Miss Frances Thomas, J. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Watt Deal, Robert Woodward, Miss Sadie Fleming, Mrs. Robert Gaither, Jones Todd.

Mrs. Cornelia Burch, Miss Elizabeth Bohannon and Messrs. Alvis Hobson and Paul Mathis were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Coram and family.

Mrs. Posie Lyon spent the week-end at Jonesville the guest of her sister, Mrs. Odell Holcomb. Mrs. G. H. Hudler, who went to the Chatham hospital last week, is reported to be improving at this time. Her condition may improve so that she will be able to come home by Wednesday of this week. She has been suffering from pleurisy.

Miss Sadie Fleming had as her guests during the past week-end Misses Myrtle Fleming and Magdalene Brummitt, of Raleigh. Both Misses Brummitt and Fleming are connected with the Department of Agriculture. Miss Fleming is secretary to W. Kerr Scott, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Miss Brummitt is seed analyst in the agricultural office. Saturday Miss Fleming and her guests took a trip over the scenic highway by way of Roaring Gap, Jefferson, Boone, and Blowing Rock. They returned by North Wilkesboro.

Miss Pauline Jones, of the Gibsonville school faculty, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones, Sr.

Mrs. Jettie Matthews, who is teaching near Lexington, spent the week-end here visiting her sister, Mrs. R. M. Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Connell visited their parents in Kannapolis Monday.

LYRIC IS TO FEATURE STAGE SHOW SATURDAY

Slim, Smokey, Curley and Chuck, radio, stage and recording artists, known as "The Singing Cowboys," will be an extra attraction at the Lyric theatre Saturday when they appear on the stage there in person in a musical and comedy program.

In addition to the stage attraction, the Lyric will also present on the screen "The Leather Pushers," with Richard Arlen and Andy Devine.

Vivid Description

Pat Man—Well, what do you think of my boy?

Friend—Well, I'd say he is a stave off the old barrel.

Right "Old age nothing," said the gardener when the doctor told him that his years were the cause of his rheumatism in one leg. "My other leg's just as old, and there is no rheumatism in it."

ZEPHYR

Rev. J. W. Calloway will fill his regular appointment at the Baptist church Saturday evening at 7:30 and again Sunday morning at 11.
