The Mason Lillard Bible Class of the Sunday school of the Methodist church will meet Monday evening, November 18, at the home of Mrs. Joe Bivins, on Gwyn Avenue. The program will be presented by Mrs. W. C. Cox. All members are cordially invited to attend.

Mission Circle to Observe Week of Prayer

A special program in observance of the Week of Prayer will be presented by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church at the church on Monday afternoon at 3:30. An interesting program is being arranged and all members are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Lafoon Entertains Round Dozen Club Tuesday

Mrs. H. F. Lafoon was hostess to members of the Round Dozen Book club at an enjoyable desert-rook at her home on Church street Tuesday evening. Two tables were in play, with the high score prize going to Mrs. Edworth Harris and the runner-up prize to Mrs. J. P. Ipock.

During the business session the club books were exchanged and discussed and plans were made for Christmas cheer for some needy family in the community, an annual custom of the club.

Communism Is Theme of Study Club Program

Mrs. D. G. Smith was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Study club at Hotel Elkin Wednesday, with 13 members in attendance. The meeting was held in the hotel parlor, which was arranged with autumn flowers and foliage. The program was presented by Mrs. Earl M. Hodel, who used as her subject, "Communism." Current events were given by Mrs. Errol Hayes.

At the conclusion of the program a beautifully appointed collation, in two courses, was served in the hotel dining room.

Marriage of Jonesville Girl Is Announced Today

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, of Jonesville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Virginia Kathryn, to Mr. Woodrow Wendell Mabry, of Asheboro, on November 2, at Bennettsville, S. C.

Mr. Mabry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mabry, of Albemarle, and holds a responsible position with the Asheboro Hosiery Mills.

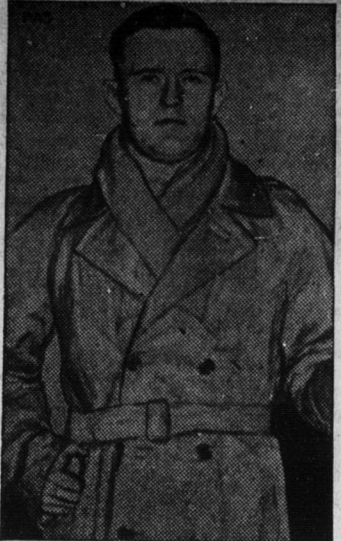

Mrs. Mabry, who has been in Asheboro for some time, is associate manager of a beauty shop there.

Mr. and Mrs. Mabry are making their home in Asheboro.

Baptist Leaders to Have Banquet Tuesday

The annual banquet for officers and teachers of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church will be held at the banquet hall at Hotel Elkin on Tuesday, November 19, at 7 o'clock. The affair is sponsored by the Young People's department of the church.

Rev. Herman F. Duncan, pastor of the Methodist church, will be guest speaker for the program.

Tickets are on sale by Misses Lucy Gray and Fannie Sue Harris and anyone desiring to attend is invited.

Mary Vance McAdams Entertains Scout Patrol

Miss Mary Vance McAdams, leader of the Thistle Patrol of the Girl Scouts, entertained members of the patrol at an enjoyable party at her home on Church street Thursday evening from 7:30 to 9:30. A number of games and contests were enjoyed, with prizes going to Misses Nancy Harris, Mable Cathey Leeper and Mildred Freeman.

Refreshments were served during the evening to the following guests: Misses Nancy Harris, Betty Ann Combs, Mildred Freeman, Jean Parnell, Mable Leeper and Virginia Graham.

Legion Auxiliary of George Gray Post in Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. F. Lafoon, on Church street, with 13 members present. The meeting opened with the ritual, the president, Mrs. Joe Bivins, presiding. During the business hour plans were made for the annual Christmas party of the auxiliary, to be held at the home of Mrs. R. L. Harris. Mrs. Mercer Tyson was welcomed as a new member.

An interesting and informative program on the United States navy was presented by Mrs. I. C. Yates, assisted by Mrs. Bivins. At the conclusion of the program Miss Beulah Yates gave a vocal solo "The Marine Song," with Mrs. Fred Colhard playing the piano accompaniment.

During a pleasant social hour the hostess served a tempting refreshment course.

Faculty Members of City Schools Are Honored at Dinner

Mrs. Marion Allen and Miss Betty Allen were hostesses at a delightful dinner party Tuesday evening at their home on Church street, having as guests members of the faculty of the city schools. The home was artistically arranged with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves and the dining room table was centered with a pumpkin, surrounded by fruits of the season, which was suggestive of the Thanksgiving season. Covers were laid for 24.

Miss Josephine Paul, a member of the faculty, whose engagement to James Scales Irwin, of Reidsville, has just been announced, was given two Chatham blankets, one by members of the elementary school faculty and one by members of the high school faculty.

Miss Josephine Paul cut high for the prize, a box of candy, and Miss Blanche Dixon was also awarded a box of candy in a series of contests.

Mrs. Mills Is Hostess at Series of Parties

Mrs. Lathan Mills was hostess at two lovely parties during the week at her home on Circle Court. On Friday she entertained at a bridge-luncheon. Chrysanthemums in colorful autumn shades were used in the living room, dining room and hall, and as centerpieces for the small tables, where the guests were seated. Covers were laid for 28.

Following the luncheon bridge was played at six tables during the afternoon. The high score award went to Mrs. Marion Allen at the conclusion of the progressions. Mrs. Fred Page and Mrs.

Van W. Dillon, Sr., brides of the summer, were presented lovely gifts. Mrs. John Reich, of Statesville, an out-of-town guest, was given a remembrance. Mrs. Dillon also drew the prize among the luncheon guests who did not remain for bridge.

Mrs. Mills was hostess again on Wednesday at a bridge-luncheon, having as guests twenty friends from Statesville, her former home.

Supper and Dance Friday Evening Are Greatly Enjoyed

Members of the Lucy Hanes Chatham clubs entertained at a buffet supper Friday evening at the school gymnasium, having as guests their husbands and friends and officials of the Chatham Manufacturing company. The gymnasium was attractively decorated with native pine and autumn leaves. The decorations were interspersed with yellow chrysanthemums and the same flowers were used as a centerpiece for the supper table. The decorations were in charge of Mrs. Noah Darnell and Miss Catherine Whitener.

Mrs. Hope Brown, Miss Lexie Cummings and Mrs. Leonard York greeted the guests. Upon their arrival the guests were presented fancy paper hats. The ladies were given noisemakers as favors and the men were given cigars.

Following the supper, which was served by the home economics class of the high school, under the direction of Miss Mary Holland, instructor, a dance was held, with Shirley Smith's orchestra, of Winston-Salem, furnishing the music. The public was invited to the dance and approximately one hundred couples attended.

Engagement of Miss Paul and Mr. Irwin Announced Saturday

Mrs. Edwin Harris entertained at a lovely dinner party at her home on Circle Court Saturday evening to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Josephine Ring Paul, of this city, to James Scales Irwin, of Reidsville.

White chrysanthemums and a hemlock were used in the appointments of the home to effect the bridal colors of green and white. The guest list included sixteen close friends of the honoree. A beautifully appointed dinner was served.

Miss Paul's gift from the hostess was coffee spoons in her silver pattern.

Out-of-town guests for the party were: Mrs. James Paul, of Wilmington, sister-in-law of the bride-elect; Miss Norma Cawthon, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. John Reich, of Statesville.

The wedding, which will unite two prominent families of the state, will be solemnized in late December. Miss Paul is the daughter of Mrs. William Edmund Paul, of this city, and of the late Mr. Paul, and a granddaughter of the late Dr. J. W. Ring, pioneer Elkin physician, and Mrs. Ring. She is a graduate of Guilford College and has been a member of the faculty of the city schools for several years.

Mr. Irwin is the son of Mrs. George Lee Irwin, of Reidsville, and the late Mr. Irwin. He was educated at Davidson College and is associated with the American Tobacco Company, with headquarters in Reidsville.

Miss Womble and Mr. Burcham Wed Saturday in Raleigh

A wedding of beautiful simplicity was solemnized in private ceremony at the Edenton Street Methodist church in Raleigh Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, when Miss Jane Aman Womble became the bride of James Russell Burcham of this city. Dr. John C. Glenn, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the ring ritual of the church.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, palms and cathedral candles. A program of wedding music was rendered prior to the ceremony, with both organ and vocal solos. Only the immediate families and close friends of the young couple attended the service. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a tailored three-piece suit of river blue wool. Her hat was an off the face model of black felt, with a short veil, and her other accessories were black. Her shoulder bouquet was of white orchids.

Mrs. Burcham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gurney William Womble of Raleigh, and is a charming and attractive young woman. She was educated in the Raleigh schools and at St. Mary's College.

Mr. Burcham is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. James Martin Burcham of this city. He was educated in the city schools, at Fork Union Military Academy in Virginia and North Carolina State College, Raleigh. He was graduated from State in 1938 in textile engineering, and since his graduation has been associated with the Chatham Mills here. During his college career he was accorded many honors. He was a member of the Sigma Tau Sigma, Upsilon Sigma Alpha fraternities, also the president of the Blue Key, honorary fraternity, a member of the Golden Chain, Scabbard and Blade, Tompkins Textile Society, and in his junior year was president of the R. O. T. C. at the college, in addition to being on the publication board and other honors. He was also listed in Who's Who of American colleges and universities.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Burcham left on a wedding trip to unannounced points, and upon their return they will have an apartment in the home of the bridegroom's parents, on West Main street.

Following the wedding rehearsal on Friday evening, members of the bridal party and close friends were entertained at a reception and cake cutting by the bride's sister.
