Mr. Graham Is Feted at Farewell Party in Pilot Mountain
Herbert Graham, Jr., of this city, who has been located in Pilot Mountain for the past seven months, and who has enlisted in the U. S. Army Air Corps, was honored at a farewell party in Pilot Mountain on November 15. The party, a dinner-bridge, was given by twenty-six friends of Mr. Graham at the home of Mrs. Naomi Nelson. Red, white and blue favors and decorations were effectively used in the party appointments.

Jacqueline Brown Is Honored on Birthday
Mrs. Jack Brown entertained at a small dinner party at her lovely new home near Jonesville Monday evening, honoring her little daughter, Jacqueline, on her fifth birthday anniversary. The guest list included six little friends of the honoree. The table was centered with a bouquet of chrysanthemums in pink and white and the colors were repeated in the decorations of the handsome birthday cake, which was topped with the significant number of candles. A medley of indoor games followed the dinner.

Mrs. Madden Is Hostess At Party Wednesday
Mrs. J. L. Madden, who left on Friday of last week for Fort Bragg to reside, where her husband, Capt. Madden, has recently been transferred, entertained at a delightful morning party and luncheon Wednesday at her home on Elk Spur street. Autumn flowers were used in the living room and dining room. Bridge was played in the forenoon with the high score award going to

These Men to Get Free Theatre Tickets

Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Joe Bivins on Gwyn avenue Monday evening, with 18 members and one visitor present. Three new members, Mrs. A. C. Gibbs, Mrs. D. H. Cashwell and Mrs. Mercer Tyson, were enrolled. Mrs. Fred Colhard, class president, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. During the business meeting it was decided that the class give a basket of food to a needy family in the community during the Thanksgiving season, which is an annual custom of the class. Other routine business was dispatched. An interesting program on Thanksgiving was presented by Mrs. W. C. Cox, assisted by Mrs. H. P. Graham and Mrs. Henry Dobson. The program was concluded with excerpts from letters from children of war-torn nations of Europe thanking the American Red Cross for aid given them during the disaster, read by Mrs. Joe Bivins.

Mrs. Hall Is Hostess to Book Club Thursday Afternoon

Mrs. J. L. Hall entertained members of the Thursday Afternoon Book club and five additional guests at a delightful afternoon party Thursday at her home on West Main street. Chrysanthemums and crimson berries were used in the living room, music room and dining room, where table games were enjoyed during the afternoon. Mrs. F. W. Graham won the club award in the games. Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Sr., a bride of the summer, was presented a lovely gift, and Mrs. Herman F. Duncan and her guest, Mrs. Watson D. Duncan, of St. George, S. C., Mrs. A. C. Gibbs and Mrs. J. S. Atkinson, special guests were presented handkerchiefs.

A prettily appointed two-course collation was served during the afternoon.
