Having just received a bill from his tailor dated July, 1929, and marked, "Please remit by return, 51st notice," Bill Stoney replied: "Dear Sir: I do not remember ordering a suit such as you mention. If I did order it, you certainly never made it for me. If you did make it for me, I never got it. Furthermore, if I got it, I must have paid for it. And if I didn't, I can't."

Christmas Party For All Farmers December 17

Winston-Salem, Dec. 2 — If twenty thousand toys, 650 pounds of stick candy, one hundred crates of oranges and fancy colored hats for everybody can make a Christmas party, Winston-Salem is set for the biggest Santa Claus celebration in North Carolina. This is the annual Christmas Party given for tobacco growers and their families, to be held in Bowman Gray Memorial Stadium on Tuesday, December 17.

Meantime, construction on a gigantic Santa Claus who will talk, laugh, joke, sing and actually hand out his generous supply of toys and treats to the children, is going forward at a place deeply shrouded in secrecy. Preparations are being made to take care of ten thousand farm children, with two toys, fruit, candy and good times for each one.

Dozens of substantial Christmas presents will also be made to adults in the form of prizes for various contests. Among these will be contests to determine the tallest tobacco grower, the fattest grower, and the farmer bringing the largest family to the party. One of the prizes will be a thoroughbred bird dog, "Peerless Prince Albert," sired by Louis Bobbitt's famous national field trials champion, Sports Peerless Pride.

Another feature of the Christmas Party will be a square dance contest held during the afternoon, with more prizes for winning couples and individuals.

All tobacco growers, regardless of where they live, are invited to the Winston-Salem celebration.
