Mr. and Mrs. Spainhour Entertain Fortnightly Club

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spainhour entertained members of the Fortnightly Bridge club Friday evening at their home on West Main street. The guests were invited for dinner at seven o'clock. The dining room table was centered with a centerpiece of evergreens and crimson berries, surrounded by crimson candles, suggestive of the Christmas season.

In the bridge progressions during the evening the high score award went to Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Folger.

Mrs. Whitaker Is Hostess to Junior Garden Club

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker was hostess to the Junior Garden club Thursday afternoon at her home on Church street, with twelve members present. The program consisted of Christmas decorations by the members of a console table, a tea table, a mantel and a luncheon table.

The home was arranged throughout with Christmas decorations, centering around a lighted Christmas tree.

Refreshments in keeping with the season were served during a pleasant social hour.

Mrs. Holcomb Is Hostess to Round Dozen Club

Mrs. H. B. Holcomb entertained members of the Round Dozen Book club at the fortnightly meeting Saturday evening at her home on West Main street at a dessert-ruok. Bowls of narcissi were used in the living room, where three tables were placed for the games.

In the games the high score and runner-up awards went to Mrs. H. F. Laffoon and Mrs. J. P. Ippock.

Club books were exchanged and discussed and other routine business dispatched during the business session.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodel, Mr. and Mrs. Hatch Entertain

The most elaborate and widely attended party of the week was the dinner-bridge given Saturday evening at Hotel Elkin by Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Hodel and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatch. Holly and red candles were used in the decorations of the dining room, where dinner was served at 7:30. Fifty-six guests were invited for bridge and several additional friends were invited for dinner.

In the bridge progressions during the evening the high score awards went to Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Folger and the consolation prizes to Mrs. J. W. L. Benson and Charles Dixon.

Miss Eleanor Taylor, of Winston-Salem, was the only out-of-town guest.

Miss Durham Is Bride of Frank Parker Curtis

Announcement is made today of the marriage of Miss Doris Mozelle Durham and Frank Parker Curtis, both of this city. The marriage was solemnized September 15, at Independence, Va., with Rev. Mr. Mayberry, pastor of the Independence Methodist church, officiating, using the ring ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore a dress of navy, with touches of white, and her accessories were also of navy. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Durham, of Swan Creek, and is associated with Hotel Elkin.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Curtis, of Murphy, formerly of Elkin, and is associated with the Western Auto Store here.

Miss Paul and Mrs. Page Are Honored by Mrs. Graham

Miss Josephine Paul, bride-elect of the month, and Mrs. Fred Page, Jr., the former Miss Barbara Weedon, of Detroit, were honored at a luncheon Wednesday by Mrs. H. C. Graham at her home on Terrace avenue. Sharing honors with Miss Paul and Mrs. Page was Mrs. Charles Hanes, a bride of the summer, the former Miss Delphine Crump, of Winston-Salem.

The luncheon table was beautiful in all white appointments. Wedding bells were used as place cards. The living room was decorated in the Christmas colors of red and green. The luncheon was served buffet style and Mrs. Thomas Roth assisted the hostess.

The honorees were each presented a floral print.

Samples Entertain at Dinner-Bridge; Mrs. Sample Is Luncheon Hostess

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Sample, who left Tuesday for a vacation of a month before going to Baton Rouge, La., to reside, entertained at a delightful dinner-bridge Wednesday evening at Hotel Elkin. Christmas decorations were used in the table appointments for the dinner, where covers were laid for twenty-four.

In the bridge games during the evening the high score awards went to Mrs. Thomas Roth and A. O. Bryan. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanes, who were married during the summer, were presented a lovely gift.

Mrs. Sample was hostess again on Friday at a bridge-luncheon. Christmas decorations were again used. Twenty guests were invited for bridge, and one additional guest, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, was invited for luncheon. In the bridge games scoring honors went to Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Jr. Mrs.

Robert H. Harris, Mrs. Van W. Dillon, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Hanes, brides of the summer, were presented gifts, and Mrs. Whitaker was given a remembrance.

Miss Paul, Bride-Elect, Feted by Students, Grade Mothers

Miss Josephine Paul, seventh grade teacher in the city schools, whose marriage to James Scales Irvin, of Reidsville, will be solemnized late in the month and whose resignation from the school faculty was effective Tuesday of this week, was honored on Tuesday morning by students of both sections of the seventh grade of elementary school and her associate teacher, Miss Emma Cooke, and grade mothers of the classes, Mrs. W. M. Maxwell, Mrs. H. G. York, Mrs. C. O. Garland, Mrs. G. P. Dockery, Mrs. W. M. Wall and Mrs. C. I. Boger.

A refreshment table was placed in the hall adjoining the class room and refreshments consisting of hot chocolate, wafers and mints were served. Miss Paul was presented a shower of miscellaneous gifts.

Mrs. Clyde Eller Is Hostess at Two Parties

Mrs. Clyde Eller was hostess at two parties during the week at her home on Bridge street. On Friday she was hostess at a luncheon-bridge to honor Mrs. Fred Page, Jr., a bride of the summer, the former Miss Barbara Weedon, of Detroit. Decorations of holly, suggestive of the approaching Christmas season, were used throughout the home. Place cards were needle cases made of felt and cut in the shape of holly leaves. Twelve guests were invited for luncheon. In the bridge progressions the high score award went to Mrs. Rich Chatham. Mrs. Page was presented a lovely gift.

Mrs. Eller was hostess again on Saturday at a luncheon-bridge to honor Miss Josephine Paul, whose marriage to James Scales Irvin, of Reidsville, will be solemnized this month. Twelve guests were again invited. The decorations were identical with the previous day.

Mrs. Grace Snow James won the high score award in the bridge games which were enjoyed during the afternoon. Miss Paul was presented a gift of crystal in her wedding pattern.

Weddle-Nicholson Wedding Is Solemnized Friday

Miss Hassie June Weddle, of The Hollow, Va., and Elkin, and Basil Meredith Nicholson, of Pilot Mountain, were married Friday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Abernethy on Hospital Road, with Rev. Abernethy officiating, using the ring ceremony of the Methodist church. Only a few close friends were present for the ceremony.

The bride wore a suit of blue, edged in mink, with harmonizing accessories. Her bouquet was of gardenias.

Mrs. Nicholson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Weddle, of The Hollow, Va., and is a graduate of Bethel high school and also of the City Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in Winston-Salem. She is a member of the nursing staff of Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital.

Mr. Nicholson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Nicholson, of Pilot Mountain, and is associated with the Nicholson Casket company in Pilot Mountain.

Legion Auxiliary Enjoys Annual Christmas Party

The annual Christmas party of the American Legion Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. R. L. Harris on West Main street Monday evening, with Mrs. F. W. Graham associate hostess, with twenty-one members present. The home was decorated throughout with crimson berries, evergreens and candles, appropriate to the Christmas season.

The meeting opened with prayer by the chaplain, Mrs. Fred Colhard. Mrs. Joe Bivins, president, presided over the meeting. Plans were made for the annual Christmas remembrances to veterans of the World War at Oteen and for families of veterans locally. It was announced that American flags, bought jointly by the American Legion, the Legion Auxiliary and the Daughters of the American Revolution, had arrived and would be installed within a short time in each of the class rooms of the city schools. Other routine business was dispatched.

The program was in charge of Mrs. J. H. Beeson, who presented an interesting paper on the Christmas celebration at Bethlehem, Pa. She was assisted by Mrs. George Royall. The concluding feature was a medley of Christmas carols sung by the group.

During a delightful social hour the hostesses served delectable refreshments of ices, fruit cake, mints and coffee. The plates were adorned with sprays of spruce to which were attached brilliantly colored Christmas ornaments. The exchange of Christmas gifts between the members, as is the annual custom, afforded much pleasure.

Miss Elizabeth Church Is Bride of Mr. Lankford

A marriage of widespread interest is that of Miss Mary Elizabeth Church, of Roaring River, to Robert Hamilton Lankford, Jr., of Elkin, which was solemnized Saturday in York, S. C., with Judge E. Gattis Nunn officiating. The young couple were accompanied to South Carolina by Richard G. Chatham, of this city. Mrs. Lankford is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Church, of Roaring River, and is a beautiful and accomplished young woman. She was graduated with the class of 1940 from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro. At the time of her marriage she was a member of the faculty of the Forbush school in Yadkin county.

Mr. Lankford is a native of Harmony, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton Lankford, Sr., of Asheville. He was educated at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and for several years has been associated with Chatham Manufacturing company here in the capacity of production manager.

Mrs. Lankford will continue with her school work until the close of the school for the Christmas holidays. After that Mr. and Mrs. Lankford will reside at the Lewis Apartments on Church street in this city.

VEGETABLES

An early severe frost in the deep South in mid-November materially reduced the prospects for fall planted tender vegetables, reports the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Malays gather their bread from trees, the leaves ranging in weight from 10 to 75 pounds.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

How to Make Your Man Believe in Santa Claus?

He may not sit up all night waiting at the chimney... or lie awake in bed listening for Santa's sled... but when he opens his gifts from The Men's Shop—his own store—you may feel sure he'll be tickled pink.

Harassed Wives

Befuddled Mothers

Distracted Sweethearts

Here's the Solution to the Problem of What to Give:

HUBBY

Now here's something we all know he'll like... a beautiful robe to lounge or smoke in. Then, too, the new Interwoven socks of all patterns are here. We'll bet he's been looking them over.

DAD

Dear old dad. He deserves the best. Let's see... there's a new Knox hat, and that new pair of suspenders he's been putting off buying. And a new muffler to keep him warm.

BROTHER

All of the fellows are wearing snappy sweaters, such as we carry right along. And then, too, how about a smart new tie and a pair of warm dress gloves. Sure, you can please him here.

JIM

Now, in this case, it is the Boy Friend. So, hoping to make the right impression, we'll suggest a lounging robe, zipper sport jacket, a fine shirt along with a half dozen of smart linen handkerchiefs.
