VOL. No. XXXVII No. 25

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ELKIN, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1949

$2.00 PER YEAR

20 PAGES—TRREE SECTIONS

ELKIN BOY IS JUNIOR HEALTH KING

Paul Lewis Wins For Health Achievement

ATTEND MEETING

Evelyn Waugh, George Venable Win Senior Queen and King Title

AT DOBSON COURTHOUSE

Paul Lewis, Elkin Elementary School, was crowned junior king of the Surry County 4-H Club Health Pageant Monday at Dobson. Evelyn Waugh, White Plains, and George Venable, Franklin School, were named Senior queen and king while Julia Jessup, Westfield, was crowned junior queen.

The coronation of the kings and queens took place Monday at the courthouse in Dobson before approximately 1,000 Surry 4-H Club members.

The Surry County health kings and queens were picked on the basis of their club records on health achievement and other records over a period of years.

The following attended court: Mary Faye Jackson of White Plains and Tommy Creed of Beulah; Sara Lou Schuyler of Lowgap and Shirley Blackburn of Mountain Park; Rachel Miller of Franklin and John Lee Thompson of Dobson; Eloise Edmonds of Mountain Park and J. B. Gentry of Copeland; Lolise Hensley of Copeland and Bobby Perkins of Copeland; Jeannette Priddy of Beulah and Billy Whitaker of Pilot Mountain.

Peggy Marion of Shoals and Henry Lee Goins of Flat Rock; Rebecca Luffman of Mountain Park and Thomas Ray Allen of Shoals: Mabel Brinegar of Elkin and Tommy Marshall of White Plains; Melrose Cooper of Elkin and Clarence Whitaker of North Elkin: Della McEride of Flat nd Roger Reeves of Pilot Mounn, Betty Patterson of Copeland and Bud Marion of Siloam; Bonnie Coe of Pilot Mountain and Robert Joyce of Westfield.

Ruth Berrier of Franklin and Don Ramsey of Lowgap; Bobbie Hall of Siloam and Reid Simmons of White Plains; Peggy Snow of Beulah and Gray Southern of Beulah; Mary Ruth Jackson of North Elkin and Kay Hiatt of A. G. Hiatt of Bannertown.

written and directed by Miss Angela Taylor, assistant home demonstration agent.

(Continued On Page Eight)

The program also consisted of

MILK MEETING

Dairy Buyers Will Explain Reasons For Recent

Drop In Prices

A meeting designed to give buyers an opportunity to explain reasons for the recent drop in milk prices will be held Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the Surry Court House, agent, yesterday extended invita- graduating members. tions to all milk producers and prospective producers of grade A and grade C milk to attend the gathering. Mr. Smith said that representatives of Surry Dairies, Mt. Airy; Coble Dairy Products Company, Lexington; Carnation Milk Company, Galax; and Southern Dair-Parents Night To Be ies of Winston-Salem have accepted invitations to attend the F. R. Farnham, extension dairy specialist of State College will discuss the history and problems of milk producers in North Carolina. Mr. Smith urged as many producers as possible to attend and have questions ready to ask representatives of companies now purchasing their milk.

Surry Singing To Be Polly Price have planned the pro-Held In Dobson 29th

The annual Surry Singing Convention will be held in Dobson, Sunday, May 29, it was announced will do the dance, "Ace of Diathis week. Singing will begin at monds. 1 p. m. at the courthouse, ending

The Rev. J. G. Wright, chair- year. man, said that all groups of sing- A display of the Scout work ers are especially invited to take done during the year will be expart on the program.

KINGS AND QUEENS, DAIRY TEAM WINNERS - Evelyn Waugh and George Venable (center) were crowned 4-H Club king and queen of Surry County Monday at Dobson. Julia Jessup (left) and Paul Lewis were crowned junior king and queen. Lower photo, Ruth Nichols (left) and Shirley Waugh won the dairy team demonstra-

Franklin; Betty Jean Hemric of Little Richmond and Allen Lane; Bonnertown and A. G. Hiett of Bannertown and DR. C. A. MILNER VFW Post Receives Reply From Chatham On Hiett of Bannertown and Delos Martin; most original Mary Blevins and Original The 4-H health pageant was TO BE SPEAKER

Will Deliver Commencement Address At Dobson High

School Tuesday

28 TO BE GRADUATED

Dr. Clyde A. Milner, president Elkin Kiwanis Club. TO BE TUESDAY of Guilford College, will deliver the commencement address at Dobson High School Tuesday even of Guilford College, will deliver Dobson High School Tuesday evening in the school auditorium presented to the Post Office De- Mann; and kindest, Claudine Ves-

Exercises will begin at 8 p. m. Commencement will begin Sunday with a baccalaureate sermon the Post Office Department as it at 3:30 p. m. by the Rev. Howard will strengthen our request for AT DOBSON COURTHOUSE J. Ford, pastor of the First Bap- this additional mail service." tist Church of Elkin. This program will also be held in the school auditorium. Senior class night exercises will be held Monday evening beginning at 8 o'clock. The program will feature a class night play, "It Hap- ganization. The measure would

Those comprising the graduating class are: Hallie Badgett, Virginia Wright, Stella Key, Homer White, Edna Williamson, Jobie Lee Draughn, Nancy Harrell, Lil- years old.

(Continued On Page Eight)

Girl Scouts and Brownies willhold Parents Night at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, May 27, at the Gilvin Roth Y. M. C. A., at which time the Scout investiture and

Court of Awards will be held. As this will be the last meeting of the year, all Scouts will invite their parents to the event.

In conjunction with the program, the Scouts will do two folk dances taken from Dutch and Boheimian songs and the Brownies

Carol Stuart, Glenda Spicer and

The troop committee will decide on the best Scout work of the hibited at Parents Night.

Foreign Wars received Tuesday a personality, June Miller and Leonfavorable reply from Congress- ard Lineberry; prettiest, best lookman Thurmond Chatham to their ing, Sarah Nell Mathis and David between Elkin and Dobson. liams, post adjutant, Mr. Chat- R. Gilliam; wittiest, Ellen Weathham reported that he had also re- erman and Dexter Rose; most talceived a similar proposal from the ented, Jeannette Myers and when 28 seniors will be graduated. partment and is now being investigated by the Field Office," he continued. "I am glad a copy of your resolution was forwarded to

The local veterans' group last week submitted their resolution to both Mr. Chatham and the Post Office Department after a meeting at which the proposal was unanimously adopted by the orkin and Dobson twice each day.

The actress Eleonora Duse play-

FORD TO SPEAK SCHOOL FINALS

Local Baptist Minister To Deliver Address At Jonesville Commencement

The Rev. Howard J. Ford, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Elkin, will deliver the Jonesville High School commencement school auditorium.

WELLS TO GIVE SERMON

Commencement exercises will begin at 3 p. m., Sunday when the Rev. R. J. Wells, pastor of the Jonesville Pentecostal Holiness Church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon.

Class night will follow, Wednesday when seniors will present a class night play, "The Wedding of Miss Senior Class and Mr. Life T D C

Senior superlatives for the Jonesville school were announced this week as follows:

Most intellectual, Patricia Boles and Joe Stroud; most athletic Pearl Fisher and Jimmy Everidge; most likely to succeed, Mary Ellen Holleman and Bob Hughes; cutest, Edith Johnson and D. R. Gilliam; best all around, Sara Lou Reece and Leonard Lineberry: original, Mary Ellen Holleman and Bob Hughes; most original, Fran-The Elkin post of Veterans of ces Dowell and Bill Rhyne; best resolution proposing a star route Mann; friendliest, Helen Blackburn and Ralph Cheek; best In a letter to Livingston Wil-dressed, Betty Lou Felts and D.

Charles Martin; quietest, Alta "I am pleased to inform you Chappell and Ralph Cheek; neat- SGT. IRA SAMUEL GAMBILL Jr. that this matter has already been est, Sara Lou Reece and David tal and Delos Martin.

Marriage Permits Go To 5 Couples

Five couples received marriage permits last week from the office of the Register of Deeds at Dobson. They were as follows: be conducted Sunday afternoon Max Stafford Norris, 32, and Mary Jo Bledsoe, 26, both of Boone; William Major Nunn, 60, Claude-Neill M. Smith, Surry farm pened Yesterday," presented by call for mail delivery between El-Charlotte; Archie G. Riggs, 26, and Haver Towe, 23, both of Mount Airy; McAdoo White, 26, Dobson, and Rosa Lee Wall, 22, ed Juliet when she was only 14 Elkin; J. G. Pilson, 54 and Nannie Coble 31, both of Kernersville.

Scouts Plan Camporee Held By Girl Scouts Here Saturday, Sunday

Approximately 100 Boy Scouts | in 20 patrols will attend the Elkin-Yadkin Spring Camporee Saturday and Sunday at Neaves Park, it was announced yesterday by Scout Leader Paul Price. Troop 25, Jonesville; 46 and 48, Elkin; 54, Pleasant Hill; and 91, Ronda, will compete against attainable standards graded on points in camping. Scouts winning blue ribbons will be eligible to compete in the Old Hickory Council comporee to be held later. Last year, every Scout attending camp won a blue ribbon.

Boys will begin checking in at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and will draw for camp sites. At 7:30 p. m., a campfire program will be conducted. The public has been invited for camp inspection at all times. Camp will break Sunday after a church service conducted by the Rev. Marvin Boggs. Awards will be made following the ser-

Simultaneously, with the conducting of the Elkin-Yadkin Camporee, other districts in the council will be competing.

Mr. Price explained that provisions would be made for those Scouts attending singly but that they would not be eligible to compete for prizes.

Gilbert Meed has taken the chairmanship of camping and activities in the place of Davis Reece, who is leaving Elkin. Mr. Meed will direct the camporee along with Mr. Price and other Scout leaders.

DISTRICT VFW MEET WILL BE Governor To Discuss HERE MAY 21 Roads Bond Issuance

Delegates of Five Counties Slated To Come

ELECTION TO BE HELD

Governor Scott, Congressman Chatham To Be Guests At Banquet

SATURDAY P. M., SUNDAY

Delegates of five counties will convene here Saturday and Sunday in a call meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars District

Election of district officers will be made among the 12 posts comprising the district at a business meeting at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, it was announced yesterday by Livingston Williams, commander of the district.

Simultaneously, the VFW auxilitary will hold a district meeting. Both groups will adjourn in time

Gov. W. Kerr Scott and Congressman Thurmond Chatham will be guests of the Veterans of Foreign Wars 11th District meeting banquet to be held at 7 p. m., Saturday night. The meeting is scheduled to adjourn before the open meeting on roads and school bonds.

to attend service at one of the Elkin churches. The veterans' meeting will be held in the VFW clubroom. The auxiliary meeting address Thursday, May 26, in the will be held at the Gilvin Roth Y.M.C.A., at which time new of-

(Continued on page eight)

Last Rites For Sgt. Gambill I o Be Sunday

The body of Sgt. Ira S. Gambill, Jr., who was killed in action on February 12, 1945, in Luxembourg, arrived at Hayes & Speas Funeral EHS Glee Club To Home yesterday (Wednesday) morning at 10 o'clock. It will be taken to the home Saturday afternoon, where it will remain until the hour of the funeral service Sunday.

Graveside military service will at Hollywood Cemetery at two o'clock by the William J. Jones Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The Reverend Howard J. Ford will be the officiating min-

Sgt. Gambill, a son of Dr. and Mrs. Ira S. Gambill, Sr., was married to the former Miss Edna Hair. He was a member of a Combat Engineers Unit of General Patton's Third Army. He entered the armed forces May 15, 1943, and trained at Ft. McClellan, Alabama, State College, Raleigh, and Fort Jackson, South Carolina. He was sent overseas in October of 1944 and served in England and France before going to Luxembourg.

Sgt. Gambill, a graduate of Elkin High School, and the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, distinguished himself in many fields while in school. He was listed in the 1942-43 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges:" was a member of the Golden Fleece; was Secretary-Treasurer of the U.N.C. Student Body; Exchequer of the Order of the Grail; president of the junior class and a member of the University Club. Surviving, in addition to his wife and parents, are one sister, Nancy Carol Gambill of the home, a brother, John Gambill, student at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gentry of Thurmond.

Here Saturday Night Surry Farm Bureau Heads Denote Favor

The proposed bond issue for schools and roads was approved Tuesday night at a meeting of the board of directors of the Surry Farm Bureau.

S. H. Atkinson, president of the group, reported that 27 county officers took part in the discussion and reached a unanimous de-

"The opinion of the group was that it would be a step backward not to approve the issue in the June 4 election," Mr. Atkinson

A review of the progress of roads since the first road bond issue in North Carolina in 1921 was reviewed.

The Surry Farm Bureau had recommended earlier to Governor W. Kerr Scott a number of secondary roads in need of paving. Some of these roads have already been authorized and now under construction, including Westfield to Pilot Mountain; Pipers Gap Road; Shoals School to Truelove's Store; and Prison Camp to Bottom.

Others still under request by the group are Mountain Park up Mitchell's River; Copeland to Rockford; Dobson via Ararat to Pilot Mountain; Cook School to PLANS ARE BEING MADE Elkin meeting will be the climax ion Cross to Twin Oaks; Zephyr to Mountain Park to Highway 21, Springs Church to Zephyr: Pine Ridge to Crooked Oak Church; Assembly recently. Cook to Westfield; Skull Camp Service Station to Lowgap, Blevins Store Highway; and Lowgap-Blevins Store-Salem Fork.

Dr. T. C. Johnson To Address Farmers

Dr. T. C. Johnson, state paroles land farmers tomorrow (Friday) at 8 p. m. on the subject of and Bryan townships will be tried North Carolina. The meeting will kin township will be tried in Elbe held at the school auditorium. The F. H. A. Girls of Copeland School will present a style show at the beginning of the program. announcing the community meeting, reminded members of the community that the North Caro- Powers Hurls; Elkin lina Farm Bureau Federation recently supported the bond issue

Sing For Kiwanis

and asked for a large audience

Friday night.

The Elkin high school glee club, under the direction of Miss Margaret Cole, will entertain members of the Elkin Kiwanis Club at their meeting at the YMCA this evening (Thursday), at 6:30 o'clock. Kiwanian Bill Mann will be in charge of the program.

May 25th, the members will go Mountain for an afternoon of relaxation, and dinner. The meeting will be observed as ladies'

GOV. SCOTT TO SPEAK-W. Kerr Scott, North Carolina governor, who throughout his campaign last year for the election of chief executive advocated better roads and schools spending, will address an open meeting here Saturday night in appeal for support of a proposed bond issuance for this measure.

Dobson, Bryan and Marsh Townships Also Included In Extension Plan

Elkin, Dobson, Bryan and Similar meetings are being held thus connecting Dobson and Spar- Marsh townships will be included throughout the state until the ta with all-weather roads; Pine in the extension of the Mount Ridge to White Plains; Poplar Airy recorder's court in accordance to an act of the General

At a meeting of the Surry Board of Commissioners and Bar Association, it was decided that election may vote, Mr. Johnson additional courts would be set up pointed out. at Dobson and Elkin, and tentatively decided that could would be held in each of the additional places twice each month. Judge Harry Llewellyn is in charge of the Mount Airy court. E. C. Bivins is assistant judge and commissioner, will address Cope- Attorney Robert Lovell is solicitor. Cases arising in Dobson, Marsh Schools and Roads bonds for at Dobson. Cases arising in the El-

Plans for the courts are still tentative but definite arrangements will be made at the next County Agent Neill M. Smith, in meeting, M. Q. Snow, chairman of the board, said this week.

Wins Over Mt. Airy

Elkin's Blanketeers tallied five runs in the first inning to defeat league-leading Mount Airy Tuesday night here as Red Powers notched his second victory, 5-2. Erickson, Brown and Bishop the eight-hit Elkin attack.

In other Blue Ridge League aiti's seven-hit pitching.

The Blanketeers meet Radford Transou; Popeye, Raymond Vesto the YMCA camp near Stone in a doubleheader here Friday, tal; Orphan Annie, Joe Harris; starting at 6:30 p. m.

and fermented pods of orchids.

DISTRICT LEADERS - Livingston Williams, Elkin attorney, (left) and Mrs. Russell Burcham will be official hosts to a district meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the VFW auxiliary here Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Williams is commander of the 11th district. Mrs. Burcham is president of the 11th district auxiliary.

Open Meeting Planned At Y Starting At 8

W. Kerr Scott, governor of North Carolina, will address an open meeting here Saturday night on the proposed $200 million school and road bond issue which will be voted on in the State on June 4.

Congressman Thurmond Chatman, who will be in North Carolina for Mayodan's 50th anniversary celebration, is scheduled to introduce Governor Scott.

The meeting will begin at 8 p. m. in the gymnasium of the Gilvin Roth Y.M.C.A. Garland Johnson, who with Claude Farrell, is co-chairman for Better Roads and Schools, Inc., for Surry County, said yesterday that the meeting would be open to every citizen who wishes to attend. Members of the Elkin American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars will

Under the road improvement phase of the proposal, Surry County would receive $2,424,000. Wilkes would receive $3,066,000, and Yadkin, $1,448,000.

A meeting of the Surry branch of Better Roads and Schools was held Monday night in Mount Airy where groundwork for Saturday of the campaign in this section.

Registration for voting in the bond election began Wednesday and will continue through Saturday. Those whose names are now on registration books for general

Serving with Mr. Johnson and Mr. Farrell in Surry will be Sam Patterson, county sheriff, and D. B. Lawson of Pilot Mountain.

LEGION TALENT SHOW IS READY

"Laff It Off," To Play Here Today and Friday At State Theatre

"Laff It Off," an Elkin talent show, will be presented at the State Theatre tonight (Thursday) and Friday under the direction of Mrs. Florence Moor for American Legion benefit. Curtain time Thursday night will be 8:30. The show will open at 8:15, Friday night. Members of the cast were announced yesterday by Mrs. Moor each collected two hits to lead as follows: John Q. Public, Dr. Vernon Taylor, Jr.; Mrs. John Q. Public, Mrs. contests, Wytheville and Galax G. A. B. Moore; Cousin Katie, split a double-header. Wytheville Frances Lovelace; Pappy Chiseltook the first game, 9-8, and finger, David Brown; Gene Autry, dropped the nightcap, 18-5. Rad- Clay Watts; Judy Canova, Idelia ford swamped North Wilkesboro Benson; the Inquiring Reporter, 6-1 at Radford behind Pete Bak- Charles Neaves; Rochester, Gene Lewis; Blondie Bumstead, Joe and Daisy Mae, Donnie Harris. In connection with the show, a Vanilla is made from dried baby contest is being held. The winner will be announced on the stage at the show opening. Votes are one cent each. Voters may cast as many ballots as they wish.

Legionnaires working with Mrs. Moor in the show are Herbert Graham, Jr., Fred Norman, Charles Utley, Gene Aldridge, Mrs. Raymond Vestal and Mrs. Roy

Admission prices to the show will be 75 and 35 cents.

Jonesville Church Is Assigned New Pastor

Rev. Kenneth Dantzler of Durham was named to succeed Rev. R. J. Wells, as pastor of the Jonesville Pentecostal Holiness Church at a meeting of the Western North Carolina Conference in Greensboro Monday.

Rev. Wells was appointed pas-tor of the West Durham charge. Rev. Noah Holbrook, paster of the Longtown Pentecostal Holiness church for the past four years, was transferred to the Bassett, Va., Pentecostal Holiness Church. Rev. J. R. Hutchins of Francisco succeeds Mr. Holbrook.