ALLISON IS HANGED BY A MOB. The Murderer of Brown at Mt. Airy Taken from His Ceil and Lynched-No Clus to the Rerpetrators.

Special to the Observer. Mr. Arsv, N. C., Sept. 13 .- Thos. Allison, the murderer of three men-one in Sullivan county, Tenn., one in Statesville, N. C., the last one, W. H. Brown, on the streets of Mt. Airy about three weeks ago, was found this morning early hanging from a white oak tree two miles this side of Dobson, our county seat. He had been taken from the jail by a masked mob and lynched. At the last term of court his case was postponed and a number of our best people became enraged, believing that he would fail of the gallows. Last night about I o'clock about twenty men went to the jail, pretending to have a prisoner and upon the jailer's opening the door they went in and overpowered him, securing the key to the cell. They took Allison out in his night clothes and despite of his pleas swung him up to the

There is little regret expressed by any one over the affair, as he was undoubtedly guilty. There is no clue as to who composed the posse that did the work. Plenty of horse tracks could be seen but could hardly be traced. Your correspondent learns of a number of horses taken from different stables last night and found this morning loose in the stable yards with bridles on. The body of Allison was taken down after the coroner's inquest and will be sent to his people at Statesville to-morrow.

SOUTH CAROLINA COTTON CROP.

The Weather Has Been Very Disastrous to the Plant-Not Over Seventy Per Cent. of Last Year's Crop Made.

Special to the Observer. COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 13.—The weather Observer makes the following discouraging report of the cotton crop for the week ending to-day: "This has proven a very disastrous week to the cotton plant in a large area of the State -drought, with warm days, cool, cloudy. dewless nights have combined to bring about a complete collapse in the cotton crop, withering and blighting all young pods from blooms to half grown bolls. In many sections rust has attacked the plant and stripped it not only of its leaves but most of the young fruit, leaving it injured beyond recovery.

Picking has promised satisfactorily and with favorable weather for the next month most of the crop will have been gathered. The Observer states that the crop is certainly in a serious condition. It is shedding everything, and even in the dry sections it does not retain its fruit. The crop will be picked out by the middle of next month and not over seventy per cent. of last year's crop will A good deal of rice has been damaged, corn and all other crops are in fine condition except peas, which are in-

Beautiful Ring to Be Presented to Him-The Gold and the Stones of the Setting Native Metal and Minerals-A Case of Libel.

Special to the Observer. ASHEVILLE, Sept. 13 .- A handsome gold ring, to be presented by an anonymous friend to-night to Rev. Leo Haid, Catholic Bishop of North Carolina, has been made by Jeweler M. Alexander, of Asheville. The ring is an artistic bit of workmanship, and made entirely from North Carolina gold, coming from Gold Hill mine, Rowan county. Twelve Yancey county beryls and a magnificent amethyst from Macon form the setting.

The presentation is to take place at St. Mary's College, Belmont, previous to the Bishop's departure for New York on the 24th instant.

Shooting Affray at Wadesboro-Third or the Ebb Tide in Anson. Special to the Observer.

WADESBORO, N. C., Sept. 13.-A shooting affray occurred a few miles north of here Saturday night. John Tyson, colored, had retired for the night, when he was aroused by some one throwing stones into his house. He arose and went out with his gun. He saw a man coming out of his garden; he hailed him and told him he would shoot. The man (Calvin Little, colored) told him to shoot. John Tyson then fired. Little received the whole load in his hip and side. It is thought that he will recover. Both men had guns. Domestic troubles were the cause of the shooting.

STATESVILLE IS NOW VERY BUSY Preparations to Fittingly Receive Stavenson—A Township Meeting Where a Democrat "Landed"—Loge and Dr. Mott in Conference—The Powerful

Sermon of Dr. Wood. Correspondence of the Observer.

STATESVILLE, Sept. 12.—Things are hot enough in "the hot-box of politics."
The Democrats are making the most elaborate preparations for the reception of Mr. Stevenson Saturday evening. There will be a horse-back and a torchlight procession. Many of the transparencies have already been prepared and the local talent has done itself credit in some of the caricatures. It has called to its assistance Mr. F. L. Fithian of Haddonfield, N. J., who maradence of the Observer. It has called to its assistance Mr. F. L. Fithian, of Haddonfield, N. J., who married here and is here with his pretty wife, a daughter of Rev. Dr. W. A. Wood. Mr. Fithian is one of Judge's artists, and a Republican, but he has entered into the preparations for this demonstration with great zest.

There was a meeting in Bethany township Saturday night for the purpose of organizing a club. Messrs. W. D. Turner and J. A. Harkness, of the Statesville and J. A. Harkness, of the Statesville bar, went out and were at first denied a hearing, but they talked pretty to the managers who finally consented for Mr. Turner to speak a half hour. He poured out Democratic doctrine for the space of two hours and at the conclusion of his speech two of the leading Third par-ty men of the township announced that hey would at least vote the Democratic State ticket.

Loge Harris came up from Raleigh vesterday and had a conference with Dr. Mott, returning last night. It is the understanding that he and Mott will give cordial support to Harrison, but will fight the Republican State ticket. Chairman Eaves leaves this evening for Washington and will be gone the remainder of the week. He said to me to-day that it will be a pretty race in the State this year and that if the Republicans get a fair count in the East they Judge Furches, the Republican candidate for Governor, went from the State convention last week to Wilkesboro to attend court and has not yet gotten home. The oil in a kerosene lamp in the kitchen of Hon. W. M. Your correspondent interviewed the doctor, and he spoke openly and freely on the issues of the day, and his position as candidate. From what he said it might be inferred that he intends withdrawing from the field, although he would not commit himself fully. He said, "I was forced into the candidacy for Governor. I did not want it. I was never much of a politician." "You have an appointment to speak in Salisbury to-morrow. Will you be here," was asked. "No, speak to-morrow night. Butler will be here." "Doctor, it is reported that you have withdrawn, or intend withdrawing from the field." "That is not true, I have not done so yet. I have been misrepresented by every paper in the State except the paper published at High Point. Let me tell you; I used to think all I saw in a Democratic paper was true, but now I don't believe a word see in any paper."

"I suppose, then, you do not believe all you see in the Progressive Farmer." "No, the Progressive Farmer lies, too." "What are your politics? Are you a Democrat or a Republican." THE MEETING LAST NIGHT.

Heterogeneous tiathering of Political County Ticket to Be Put Up.

There was a meeting in the court house last evening, but just what sort of one it would be hard to describe.

"Maj." Wilson stated afterward that it was called by an "onknown" party, and that the object was for Gordon and his crowd just to keep the party "broke" up."

The meeting though was brought about in reality by the announcement several days ago by Mr. J. O. Steele, whose card appears elsewhere, that he would speak in the court house last night on favoring a Republican county ticket. When the hour arrived the crowd was there but no Mr. Steele; he in the meantime Mr. Monk Robbins ran into the building, had changed his political creed and was non est at the meeting. There was no lack of speakers, as all the local politicians of the various "fractional" splits were there. After the meeting resolved itself into somewhat of a mass meeting, Wheeler Grier was asked to act as chairman and Max King as secretary. Gordon on being called upon rose and addressed the meeting. He urged the support of the national and State ticket, and also indorsed a county exchange of hot shot, which threatened mingling of forces every minute. "Maj." Wilson rose to remark, but was completely subbad. "This," said the "major," "was just in accordance the "major," "was just in accordance with my feelings. I was too onwell to talk, and it suited me to be put under.' But all the same, the "major" had an injured air as he related the events of the

LOON LAKE HOUSE, Sept. 13 .- Mrs. Harrison's condition vesterday was crit ical. There is a slight improvement this Hopewell is preparing for a big tournament Friday. As sentiment is pretty well divided in that section between Capt. Vail, Third party nominee for the Senate, and Mr. F. B. McDowell, Democratic nominee, a very feasible plan has been decided upon for settling the question as to which shall receive the vote of the township. Both nominees are to ride at the tournament, and to which ever one takes the most rings, will be pledged the vote of the township. As this may be the first intimation that either nominee has of the conspiracy "agin" them; and as the tournament is only two days off the gentlemen had better get their steeds, lances, and armor ready, and practice for the run.

At Chatatnooga—Rain. Perhaps Kaiser William Will Come. BERLIN, Sept. 12 .- William Steinway had an interview with Emperor William yesterday. The Emperor conversed in English and German, according to the subject brought up. He inquired par-ticularly in regard to the growth of Socialism in America, and concerning the Homestead riots, and expressed his satisfaction when Steinway replied that the sound sense of the American people was not conducive to the growth of Socialism. Steinway said that the Germans in America, while loyal to the land of their adoption, still loved the fatherland, and they would greet the Kaiser at Chicago with boundless enthusiasm.

The Emperor replied: "My going to Chicago is not at all impossible.' Emperor referred to the many talented American musical students in Berlin and said that there were also some prominent painters among Americans, from one of whom, an artist named Weeks, he

Some of the Berlin papers call upon the government to deny that the Emperor will visit the Chicago Fair The Vossische Zeitung, in a particularly venomons article, decries the importance of the Chicago World's Fair and says: "The dry, practical Yankees do not honor the Kaiser, and if he goes to Chicago he will

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 13.—Cheering reports come from the Democratic canvass all over the State. This is truly a campaign of education. At the mass meeting to consider arrangements for the Stevenson celebration, several good speeches, full of Democracy, were made.

In Wake county the Democratic nominees are waging a heavy fight. The large amount of Democratic doctrine now being promulgated throughout the State is having its effect. Almost every day come reports of the return of former Third partyites to the Democratic fold. This is especially so since they see the State election is a simple choice between the Democrats and Republicans. Whereever Third, party men speak and advocate the Omaha platform there do Democrats go and preach good doctrine. So badly have some of the Thirdites been beaten in argument that several have beaten in argument that several have canceled their engagements.

A gentleman who keeps up with things remarked to-day that the opponents of a white man's government would hear something drop in a few days. "Events in the nature of dissolving views," he said, "are about to transpire in the op-position camp." The action of the Mott Republicans was not unexpected. It was well known that J. C. L. Harris and others of the crowd were actively en-gaged in helping launch the Third party State ticket. They had nothing to hope for from the Democrats and since their recent complete shut-out in the State convention they hardly cared to affiliate with the straight Republicans. So that nothing is nore natural than they should support the Third party ticket. The only effect of their action will be a slight weaking of the Republican ranks.

The Signal, the organ of the Mott wing of the Republican party, will create a sensation to-morrow. It will attack in unmeasured terms the Republican State convention, and will say: "The "platform adopted is of no avail, because the unconditional repeal of the county government system not only raises the negro issue, but is opposed by many Republicans. It would be a great calamity if by any means Eaves and his venal and corrupt negroes should be put in control of the eastern counties. They would rob and plunder as they did twenty-three years ago. Knowing that the nomina-tion of the Furches ticket has a strong tendency to lose Harrison the electoral vote and ruin for ever the Republican party here, it is our duty to oppose this Washington, Sept. 13.—The following telegram reached the Executive Mansion:

Licket and to do all we can to bring about a crushing defeat for it. This we shall do without regard to personal or political consequences. Every phase of the political situation justi-fies and approves this action, and we have the firm support of Mott, Russell, and hundreds of other Republicans white and colored. Our advice is to vote against the Democratic annex headed by Furches. Vote for the ticket headed by Exum as a matter of principle in order to secure the two main results which are paramount with every Republican: First, to secure the electoral vote for Harrison; second, to secure the de-struction of the Democratic party in North Carolina. The ticket headed by Furches is simply and solely an auxiliary to the Democratic party; really a teaser to rouse the energies of the old Bourbons. The very men who placed it in nomination know that the ticket cannot be elected: don't expect it will be elected. Possessed of this knowledge, why they insisted on nominating a ticket is a mystery to every man who is endowed marines to the immigrant's camp at with any political sense." The chairman of all the committees of the Stevenson reception met this evening and completed the final arrangements for the reception of the party. Since to night's meeting, a good deal more money has been raised for the reception. In additiod to the Pythian band and the Durham band, the Fayetteville band has been secured. This will meet Gen. Stevenson at Greensboro and escort him to Raleigh. Mayor Badger, as the official representative of the city, goes to Asheville to-morrow evening to meet the party.

Democratic Chairman Simmons states to-night that he will leave to-morrow for Asheville to meet General Stevenson In the reception party will be ex-Chairman E. C. Smith, secretary of State Coke, State Auditor Sanderlin, Secretary Beckwith, of the State Association of Clubs, and Mayor Badger, of Raleigh. Others will join the party which will finally number about one hundred. At sbecial request of Chairman Simmons Paul B. Means, representing the central committee, and J. S. Grant representing the general executive committee, will go to Paint Rock on the Tennessee line to welcome Gen. Stevenson. Specials to-night say that both Third

The Raleigh centennial is now talked about every day. The occasion is being thoroughly advertised all over the country. Some of the show bills are attractive. Secretary Ayer says this and the State fair together will be the largest thing of the kind for years. On October 21st will be held the military competitive drill and target practice. There are good prizes offered,

The death of Mrs. J. T. Thomas yes terday was very sad. Mrs. Thomas wa the daughter of Capt. Joe Lockhart of Richmond. Her death was very sudden. She was well on Sunday night and died Monday. She was only twenty-one years old and had been married but a few months.

Peace Institute opens its fall session to-day. A number of young ladies have already arrived. The new Park hotel is rising into the fifth story. As soon as this story is fin-ished the roof will be put on and the tower completed.

Death of Mr. Shular.

Mr. Clarence O. Shular, whose ex-treme illness was mentioned in the Opannuen yesterday morning, died at 12 at Mrs. T. M. Graham's on South Church street. Deceased was 18 years of age. At the time he was taken sick, several weeks ago, he was employed at the West-ern Union office. He was a native of Pragnoll, near Charleston, and was a young man of exemplary character. His remains were taken to his home a Praguell this morning at 2 o'clock by mother and brother, who were pre
