LOCAL BRIEFS.

If you have anything to sell, advertise it in THE ARGUS. Let the people hear from you in a business way.

Service and lecture at St. Stephen's church to-night at 7:45 o'clock. Subject of lecture: "The life and Times of St. Augustine."

EVERY indication points to the most ample fulfillment of what THE ARGUS recently predicted of great accomplishments for Goldsboro's welfare and progress in the course of the current year. Mark the prediction.

THE sociable at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary, this evening, is going to be something unusually entertaining. The musical feature of the evening will be especially inviting and so, also, will be the refreshments. You are cordially invited.

It will be a source of exceeding regret to his many friends in this city to learn that Capt. Swift Galoway is ill with pneumonia at Greenville, where he went to attend court, which is now in session there. We all wish the genial, big-hearted gentleman a safe and speedy deliverance.

THE marriage that THE ARGUS had reference to yesterday morning in regard to the groom's being on the belated train, came off in due time Wednesday night, at the home of the bride's father, Col. Jno. W. Isler, near Boston. The contracting parties were Mr. W. S. Peebles, of Virginia, and Miss Eliza Isler, a most amiable and popular young lady. The happy pair passed through this city yesterday en route for the groom's home. THE ARGUS wishes them all joy and prosperity.

OUR esteemed and talented townsman Mr. Ohas. B. Aycock, on Wednesday night, at the home of the bride's father, near Wilson, led to the Hymeneal altar Miss Cora, third daughter of Elder Wm. Woodard. The marriage was so emmized in the presence of only the immediate members of the family. The groom's many friends in this city and section are very sincere in wishing him and his amiable young bride length of days and fullness of joys and prosperity always, in which THE ARGUS heartily joins.

A HAPPY event was solemnized at the home of the bride in Mt. Olive Wednesday night, which many friends of the contracting parties gathered to witness and remained to participate in the festivities that were bounteously spread for the enjoyment of the occasion. It was the marriage of Mr. Ike Faison, of Faison's, and Miss Lola Davis, a most charming young lady, who has a wide circle of friends in this city that will join with THE ARGUS in wishing the happy young couple a full meed of life's joys and prosperity.

A YOUNG white fellow, "on a lark," giving his name as M. M. Weaver, and hailing from Asheville, attempted to pass a forged check upon a gentleman in this city Wednesday night. The check was signed "Robert Porter & Co.," and Weaver on presenting it stated, in answer to a question from his would-be-victim that he got it from Mr. Porter's agent in this city, but as the gentleman was familiar with Mr. Hilker's hand writing, as well as the correct style of the Porter firm, he readily "caught on," and told the fellow flatly that he was a forger, whereupon the latter skipped and has not since been seen hereabouts. Mr. Hilker, Mr. Porter's agent here on being informed of the affair, promptly pronounced it a forgery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. J. A. English, of Mt. Olive, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. S. L. Dill, Supt. of the A. & N. C. R. R. was in the city yesterday.

Mr. D. D. Peele, of Fremont, one of the cleverest young bachelors in the State, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. Geo. J. Robinson, of Smithfield, returned yesterday from a Christmas visit to his daughter and sister in Barlow, Fla.

The Legislature.

A joint legislative caucus was held in the House last night to nominate an Enrolling Clerk. Senator W. D. Turner, of Iredell, presided; 85 members of the House and 35 Senators were present.

Mr. McGill, of Cumberland, nominated Mr. A. K. Smith, of Johnston county, and stated that he was in every way competent. He is a self-made young man and has experience in that line of work.

Senator Russell, of Durham, nominated Capt. J. B. White, of Vance county. He comes from a Republican county, and its Democrats are like those of New Hampshire who strive against great odds. He comes from the second district and deserves recognition.

Senator Williams, of Pitt, seconded Mr. White's nomination. His sympathies were on the farmers and he had sought to reduce the charges on tobacco sold in warehouses.

Senator Bellamy nominated Mr. Julian A. Turner, of Guilford, and said that if experience and efficiency are qualifications, Mr. Turner fills the bill. He has in two seasons made an excellent officer, and is a faithful Democrat.

Col. Pickett, of Anson, seconded the nomination of Mr. Turner, whom he had known for twenty-five years, and know him to be worthy and capable.

Mr. Alston, of Franklin, nominated R. J. Harris, of Wake. He thought that Wake's glorious work ought to be recognized, and he would make a good officer.

Senator Lucas, of Hyde, said all the men were worthy, but he believed Mr. Smith the best. He spoke not for sections. Hyde county had asked for nothing for one hundred years—and had never got anything. He brought out a laugh by a personal allusion. Mr. Smith is struggling to make a man of himself; he is bright and sprightly and wants to finish his education. He was Assistant Enrolling Clerk two years ago.

Senator Willis Williams, of Pitt, was heartily applauded for his humorous allusions to Johnson county, and pressed Mr. White's claims.

Mr. Holman, of Iredell, spoke strongly in favor of Mr. Turner, with whom he had served in the House and whom he knew very well.

Senator King defended Mr. Turner from some reports made against him, and made a sensible speech against allowing sectionalism to control in the elections. He referred to his record on the present system of county government, having defended it and stood by the people. He is well qualified and was for two years chairman of the Committee on Enrolled Bills.

Mr. Sutton, of Cumberland, earnestly urged Mr. Smith.

Senator Atwater referred to Capt. White's honorable war record and urged his claims.

Senator Avery urged Mr. Harris and paid a tribute to the Democrats of Wake for the grand victory they had won.

Messrs. Sutton and King were appointed tellers.

The second ballot stood:
A. K. Smith, 73
J. A. Turner, 38
R. J. Harris, 8
J. B. White, 7

Mr. A. K. Smith, having received the majority of votes cast, was declared elected.

to elect an enrolling clerk to night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Alexander, of Tyrrell, moved that the caucus adjourn to meet to-night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. J. B. Holman, of Iredell, amended the motion making the caucus subject to the call of the chairman.

The door-keeper of the House, Mr. King, is a citizen of Onslow, and the assistant door keeper, Mr. Kilpatrick, is a citizen of Lenoir, an adjoining county. It is seldom that two men from the same section are chosen. They will make good officers.

Messrs. Sutton, Jones and Hendricks were appointed to escort Mr. Doughton to the chair. Upon taking the chair, Mr. Doughton said:

Permit me to extend to you my heartfelt thanks for the honor you have done me. I trust that you will never have cause to regret that confidence. I shall doubtless make mistakes, but they shall be of the head and not of the heart, and I trust that I shall have your hearty sympathy and co-operation, and that when we return home, it shall be truly said of us that we have well and faithfully served the people. Our labors will be arduous. Much is expected of this session of the Legislature, and let us work so that it may redound to the best interests of the people.

I believe, gentlemen, that this Legislature is in full sympathy with all that is for the upbuilding of the interest of the people of North Carolina, and that we will act upon that principle of equal and exact justice to all and special privileges to none. I certainly, and under that condition, for various reasons, one of which is that I will not crowd upon your time a speech to detain you, will declare this House ready for business.

He believes that this body is in full sympathy with all that is for the upbuilding of North Carolina, and that its proceedings will be characterized by the spirit of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

Mr. Hopkins, of Rockingham, nominated Mr. Kilpatrick, of Lenoir, who received every vote cast.

The oaths of office were then administered to the gentlemen elected to the several offices of both Houses. Mr. Sutton, of Cumberland, introduced a resolution providing for the appointment of three to act in conjunction with the Senate committee already appointed to wait upon the Governor to state to him that the General Assembly was duly organized and ready for the transaction of business. Messrs. Sutton, Skinner and Bryan, of Wilkes, were appointed as the committee.

On motion of Mr. Alexander, of Tyrrell, the House adjourned until 11 o'clock Thursday.—Raleigh Chronicle.
