The election held by the Goldsboro Rifles in their Armory Thursday night to fill the position of Captain, made vacant by the resignation of their former beloved commander Capt. W. L. Hollowell, who has been elected Major of the First Regiment, 2d Lieutenant, W. T. Dortch, carried off the honors. The selection is a good one, as Capt. Dortch is skilled in the manual of arms and thoroughly posted in military tactics. He has always taken a lively interest in the affairs and progress of the company and will make a popular commander.

Ish December term, Davidson Superior court.

The Governor's message was then read. It is a long document and covered forty-five pages, type-written it starts out with the public debt, stating that all the suits against the State, regarding the public debt, etc., (such as the Temple case) were decided in the State's favor. The matter of the Swasey suit, regarding the State's stock in the North Caro lina railroad, was also finally disposed of. The State's indebtedness and assets can now, says the Governor, the sasets can now, says the Governor, the sasets can now, says the Governor, the limit of the control of the first line of the control of the con Tun election held by the Golds-

RALEIGH, N. C. Jan. 8 .- At 11 o'clock the House met, Speaker Doughton presiding, and the formal-ity of reading the minutes ot yester day's session was proceeded with, after a prayer by Rev. Dr. Carter. The mamber from Dare was sworn in, and a message from the Senate, announcing its organization, was read. The Senate resolution notifying the Governor of the organization was also concurred in, Mr. Sutton announcing that the Governor had been waited on yesterday by the committees and had notified them he would send in his message to-

Mr. Sutton offered a resolution in regard to the repeal of the law against State banks of issue, as it now exists under the United States revenue laws. It arges Senators and immediate adoption of the resolution, saying the present system was detri-mental to the financial interests of the Southern country. Two years ago a similar resolution passed the House, he stated. The proposed law would not interfere with the Nationby wire yesterday afternoon was to the effect that he is improving, which is exceedingly gratifying to his many and anxious friends in this city.

The news from Capt. Galloway would not interfere with the satisfactory all banks; it would permit the borrowing of money on land, and would break up the great monopoly which the National banks now form, and would make money cheaper. Mr. Skinner said he fully coincided with The County Farmers' Alliance held a numerously attended session in this city yesterday for the discussion of business relating to the interests of the Alliance. Among other things the question of establishing an Alliance store at this place engaged considerable of their attention in a business way. It is probable that such a store will be opened here. that such a store will be opened here. died and the interests of depositors better looked after than under the present system. Mr. Jones of Wake. favored the resolution, but suggested some modifications. The resolution was taken from the calendar and
