FRIDAY JULY 10, 1914.

And many gems of thought turn out to be paste.

When relatives do a favor they never allow the recipient to forget it.

A woman loves a man in proportion to his ability to make her angry.

Miseries in life have a gay old time these torrid days.

Domestic discord is the apple of the eye in the case gets the core.

We must sow good deeds today to reap happiness tomorrow.

It is easier to induce a man to accept a favor than a joke.

There are other pipe friends besides plumbers.

If a fool keeps his mouth shut he may pass for a wise man.

Revenge is sweet only to the very small individual.

Let the Reflector follow you on your vacation.

Horns hoping that Greenville will trim the horns in Kingston.

Most of us work much harder trying to dodge work than we would do to do the real job.

Perhaps the New Board will put those street cars in and work some of those bad streets.

When a bachelor gets tired of leading a single life he should marry and be led.

Charity may cover a multitude of sins, but there are several still uncovered.

And every sweet girl graduates expects to marry and rule that roost sooner or later.

It's a waste of time for a father to attempt to train up his son in the way he should go if he doesn't keep in the middle of the same path himself.

Crops are up and doing since all these nice showers and the farmers are all smiles.

Success never comes to the man who sits on a dry goods box and whistles for it.

If you would get a line on your popularity as a public speaker go hire a hall and charge 50 cent admission.

It's as difficult for the women to get their hats on in the evening as it is for some men to get theirs on the next morning.

Over in London they put a man in jail for singing too loud in church, he was a blacksmith, and having been used to swinging a heavy sledge must have thought he should use his voice on the same scale.

They have accused George Fred Williams, minister to Greece, of having a head too big for his hat. Some other men beside George Fred are built the same way, but that is not excusing him from opening the hole in his head to much.

Roosevelt does not seem to be taking his doctor's advice in regard to cutting out so much talk. He opens his mouth at every opportunity.

The appearance of the bubonic plague in New Orleans has started a rat killing crusade in far Southern Coast Cities.

The United States Express Company has gone out of business, perhaps to the growth of the parcel post.

Let the Reflector do your job work.

Greenville needs to get in the play ground movement.

North Carolina Wants more corn and less corn whiskey.

Mexico can get us as big a farce on holding an election as on some other things.

Present day prosperity is about to put the calamity howler out of business.

The farmers are all smiles, since these nice rains are coming nearly every day.

The hot wave has disappeared and these rains make it ideal summer weather.

The woman who pins her faith to a man won't find a safety pin strong enough to stand the strain.

There never was a man big and strong enough to get out his clean shirt and collar and fix the water for his bath.

A fellow in Pennsylvania had his arm broken five times cranking his auto, it looks in this case that one bad turn deserves another.

In spite of the backwardness and drought early in the season, it looks now like Pitt county farmers will raise as much crop as they can get harvested.

In these days of profitable farming, the farmer makes a mistake who pulls up and moves into a town. Yet, if he will make a change, he cannot find a better town than Greenville.

It is to be hoped that those planes which observe the fourth of July will go about it safely.

They have called off the mediation at Niagara, and Mexico is no nearer peaceful than before.

WHY THE COACHES WERE CHANGED

Mr. R. A. Barnes, of Washington, traveling soliciting agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, was in Greenville Tuesday, and while here showed us a letter from the officials of the road, explaining why the good passenger coaches had been taken off the Weldon-Kinston branch of this road and old, dilapidated coaches put in their places. It is recalled that several weeks ago The Reflector commented on this action of the railroad officials, no reason being given for the change of coaches with the consequent discomfort to patrons of the road. Quite naturally a copy of the paper containing this editorial fell into the hand of the railroad officials, hence the explanation they sent to Mr. Barnes. In substance the officials say that the reason for taking off the good coaches that had been in use on this line the last few years, was that they might be sent to the shops for overhauling. They added that the change in coaches is only temporary, and that as soon as they can come out of the shops, which will be only a few weeks longer, they will be returned to this road and the old ones taken off.

We are glad to make public this reason for the change in the passenger coaches, and to know that it was not due to any lack of appreciation on the part of the railroad officials the patronage this branch of their road receives.

Invigorating to the Pale and Sickly

The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC, drives out Malaria, enriches the blood and builds up the system. A true tonic. For adults and children. 50c

Secretary of States William J. Bryan has leased a house in Asheville and will make his summer home there. North Carolina will be glad to claim him as a citizen, even if it is for only a few months.

A dispatch sent out from New Bremen says that Solicitor C. L. Abernethy will soon change his home to that city from Beaufort. The move is for the purpose of residing nearer the center of the district.

This week is the time good roads advocates should be making towards Durham to take part in the Good Roads Convention. Pitt County could profit by sending a good sized delegation.

It is estimated that there are 400,000 rats in New Orleans. Must have been some statistician who took the rat census and produced these figures. We'll bet a watermelon that he missed the number at least 25.

Added to "Swat the fly" will be the new phrase, "Exterminate the rat."

A new bottle drink is to take its place on the market, and its name is Chero-Cola.

In these days a farmer would not notice a "keep off the grass" sign, but he goes right on the grass with a vim.

Just now there is no need of going to either seashore or mountains to keep comfortable, as it can be done right here at home.

The Kennedy Memorial Home in Lenoir county, the eastern branch of the Thomasville Orphanage, will soon be ready for opening.

Tomorrow is the day that the contract for the erection of the new County Home is supposed to be let. If built by its present plans it will be one of the most modern of its kind in the State. Pitt county always would do things right.

A New York policeman took his monthly pay check to a saloon keeper to get it cashed and received a $1,000 bill through mistake for a $100 bill. When he took the bill back to the owner he was rewarded with two cigars. That was quite a liberal saloon keeper.

The defeat of Roosevelt in 1912 did not seem to be enough for him, and he is again at work trying to line up the fragments to make himself leader of the Republican in 1916. We had as soon see him beaten again as anybody they could run for president. If President Wilson stands re-election next time, it can easily be said in advance that he will sweep the country again.

Tells of the Flourishing Crop Condition Near Farmville

Editor Reflector:

FARMVILLE, R. F., D. July 3-1

want to tell your intelligent readers what fine crops we have in this part of Pitt County. We had a time getting our tobacco set out, but the crops that were gotten out reasonably early are looking fine now. Mr. D. N. Edward has three acres that takes the shine off of Beaver Dam. It is as much larger than the average as Mrs. Sutto's boy of Beaver Dam is larger than the average man.

Mrs. Cora Moye is not as old as Mrs. Clemmie Allen but her son Joe has four acres of corn that none of the Allen's can touch. Mrs. Phineas Carr has not spent as many years on this mundane sphere as Mrs. Alley Joyner but her husband has the very finest piece of cotton that I ever saw for the time of the year.

Preacher Mashburn had a larger congregation out to hear him preach last Sunday night than Beaver Dam has ever had to listen to a minister.

If any body doubts what I have written we invite him to come and see.

Our hog crop is not as fine as we could wish but we expect to have a few at the Pitt County Fair this Fall. We are hoping that this may be the very best fair that we have ever had if for any reason that Fair does not materialize there will be more disappointed people around here than a little for we shall have so many nice things to exhibit.

We are of the opinion that the Democratic State Convention was more discreet than the Editors, for they, the former refused to endorse the proposed amendments to the Constitution and the latter went all the way—even endorsing the "War between the States." Now what puzzles us is when the war between the States occurred and we are curious to know which State fought another. When did Ohio ever engage in a war with Alabama or Massachusetts attack Virginia. Did any state ever make war upon North Carolina? if so when?

Don't our educators think it worth while to keep history straight?

We had a fine rain last evening. It presages a fine corn crop for every body.

Mr. Titus Elks, aged 85 years, an old Confederate soldier who resided in Beaver Dam township on the John Harris place, died suddenly Friday afternoon. He had started to Arthur to visit a son there, and after walking about two miles reached the home of Mr. Ivey Smith. He complained of feeling too tired to walk any further and asked Mr. Smith to take him on to Arthur. Mr. Smith invited Mr. Elks to rest awhile, and in less than ten minutes after taking a seat he was dead.

Mr. Elks was a member of the 44th North Carolina regiment, and took part in several battles of the civil war and was among the number of Confederate soldiers captured at Bristol.

Mr. John Grimley, of Snow Hill has been spending a few days in Greenville.
