FRENCH newspapers are distributed at the reception given the German Emperor in England.

THE English flag floats over one sixth of the population and one eighth of the surface of the habitable globe.

THE Philadelphia Bulletin, Rep., rises to remark that "The Republican party in Ohio will unite against the farmers." The Bulletin is a back number. The Republican party united against the farmers about twenty five years ago—Wilmington Star.

THE Fourth of July was very generally celebrated in the South. In New Orleans all business was suspended, bunting flew from every house, and many distinguished speakers addressed many meetings. The day was never so fully observed there before.

THE Secretary of State requests us to say that the delay in getting out the Laws this year is due: First, to the fact that the paper contractor made a contract with a machinist to put in improved works in his mill in four weeks time, and consumed ten weeks in doing so, thereby delaying supply of paper three weeks. Second, at the time of the passage of the law requiring the public laws to be printed in ninety days from adjournment of Legislature (1872-'73) the average size of the volume was about 600 page in large type. The volume of laws for 1891 will be 1,600 pages of small type, making four times the amount of printed matter. The distribution of the laws will begin about the middle of this month.—Raleigh Chronicle.

ON the 5th and 6th inst, there was a great storm at Galveston Texas. A driving southwest wind, accompanied by heavy rain, caused much of the lower portion of the city to be inundated. At 7 o'clock Sunday night the wind reached a velocity of fifty-five miles an hour. The electric light plant was useless, and the darkness added to the furies of the storm made everything like travel impossible. All street railway service was abandoned. The terrific force of the surf carried away almost everything within its reach. Buildings were damaged and in many instances their occupants were compelled to ascend to the second floor to avoid the water. Boating was impossible, and going on foot exceedingly hazardous. The people were blown against houses and fences and fractured arms was the result in several instances. The scene along the beach beggars description. Taken all in all, it was the most disastrous storm which Galveston has seen for years, and it will take many thousands of dollars to repair the damage.

Four men were executed by electricity at nine o'clock Tuesday. The electrodes were not applied, as in the Kemmler case, to the top of the skull and base of the spine, but were bound to the forehead of the condemned men and the calves of their legs. The current was turned on in each case for twenty seconds. The voltage was about 1,500 and 1,600. In each case there were apparent evidences of a revival as in the Kemmler case, and in each of these four cases the current was turned on a second time. In spite of the fact that the sponges were kept constantly wet, all of the executed men were burned by the current and especially about the calves of their legs. The medical men present agree that death came on the first contact and that the seeming revival was merely a reflex muscular action. None of the witnesses were overcome by fright, and all of them who have spoken have made the statement that the electrocutions were successful, and that death in all cases was instantaneous and painless.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS Bargain Store—Umbrellas. Big Ike—Great robbery, etc. Howard—Be there a will, etc.

There was a considerable drop of the mercury yesterday. The temperature, registering 86 degrees the day previous, went down to 70, very nearly demanding fires.

A special excursion will be run over the A. & N. C. R. from New Berne to Morehead, Sunday, leaving at 8:45 and arriving back at 11:30. The round trip from New Berne will be $1.00.

The United States Coast and Geodetic Survey gives notice that a bell buoy has been substituted for the P. S. can buoy formerly shown off the lower edge of the dredged channel at the North river entrance to Albemarle sound, N. C. This affects charts 140 and 408.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger says: "Your correspondent had another interview with the treasurer this morning, relative to the direct tax payments. He is authorized to state that Governor Holt has decided to wait only a few days more for the check of $35,000 from Washington. If for any reason it should be longer delayed, the Governor will commence payment in full. There is an agent now in Washington looking after the matter, and a dispatch is looked for from him at any moment."

Our townsman, Mr. W. B. Swindell, tells us of a case that occurred while he was jailor in Hyde county, for which but few if any parallels can be found. A colored man came to him fifteen miles from where he was tried and delivered himself up to be placed in jail twenty days, bringing the order therefor with him. The man either had to pay for a cow and the costs of the trial or spend that length of time in jail, and he chose the latter as he could not make the needed amount in the same time, and to keep from incurring additional expense and thereby increasing his penalty, he requested to be allowed to go without being taken by an officer, and was granted the deserved permission and he did as he proposed.

Laborers Wanted. Mr. C. C. Bordeaux is in the city after a large force of hands to work on the Oaslow Railroad. There are now at work about eighty hands clearing the right-of-way and grading seven miles this side of Jacksonville. A thousand more workmen are wanted to push this road on as fast as possible in this direction.

The advent of the new road, with the present solid and steady impetus given business in this section by good crops last year, and the unusually heavy and profitable truck season, seals the prophecy that has been claimed for our future development and prosperity.

Up to Snuff. How much snuff do you suppose is sold in New Berne? We think any one without information on the matter would suppose the amount to be greatly less than it is. One merchant alone, Mr. E. B. Hackburn, ordered 11,000 pounds of one kind yesterday. It takes about $4,000 cash to pay for that much snuff. This is not, as some might suppose, an order of several firms clubbed together, but is Mr. Hackburn's own individual order. He has before this bought as high as 10,000 pounds at a time. Is there another city in the State—tobacco town or any other kind, that can show as large single snuff orders as these?

New Berne and Washington's Orator. The following are a portion of the comments of the Washington Gazette on the Fourth of July address of Hon. Jno. S. Long in that, his native city: Jno. S. Long, LL.D., of New Berne, was the orator. In the language of the great Cicero, his address was "wisdom speaking fluently."

What an ornament for our parlors would be the picture drawn by the Dr. of the old town, could we have it with the painter's brush on canvases, here in the presence and site of the "Old Academy," where 45 years ago he was a student, he said, "under that scholarly and christian gentleman, Gilbert Bowers." The speaker gathered inspiration, and with words truly beautiful and sublime told of the old town, of her noble sires, of her helenic women, her hospitality and of her great prosperity and wealth. The words of his childhood, saying, "It is said, Old men live in the past."

Old men and women wept tears mingled with joy and sorrow while the young generation's hearts were filled with pride for old Washington's distinguished son.

Orators are indigenous to North Carolina soil, but the greatest of the great is John S. Long of New Berne. This is the verdict of the vast, intelligent throng who heard him.

NEW BERNE.

Her Inducements to Citizenship.

NUMBER ONE.

We assert that there is no city on this continent that presents higher inducements to citizenship than New Berne. Her people are social, industrious, intelligent and hospitable to such a degree that the visiting friend and the stranger within our gates feel the charms of her society and reluctantly turns from them to regain the pleasures of home. Living here is an ecstasy, and he who has once enjoyed it wants no other dwelling place. A little while ago, when New Berne was quietly sleeping, restless natures sought a place of activity, but she has aroused herself, and now the busy mart and the delightful domicile are under the same wide spreading elms whose branches wave in the health giving breeze.

There has been an impression abroad that New Berne rests her claim to consideration upon ancestral greatness and historic fame. She has no occasion to blush for her past, but the past is to the future as the flush of the morning is to the full-orbed splendor of a cloudless day.

It would be pleasing to trace the history of New Berne's churches from the earliest colonial period to the present time, but to do so would too much extend this article. It must, for the present suffice to say that the religious privileges of our people are unsurpassed by those of any community. Ours is pre-eminently a religious people. New Berne affords excellent educational facilities. There is no university or college here, but the New Berne Collegiate Institute and the Graded School afford ample opportunity for obtaining a good education. Besides, there are private schools of a high order. Thus it is seen that in her religious privileges and educational advantages New Berne will attract population.

There is very much here in business to attract citizenship. We pass by the mills that have been so often mentioned in the JOURNAL, and come to the vocations that more usually engage the attention and give employment to men.

Are you a merchant? Look, what a splendid country is tributary to New Berne! See what facilities are offered for transportation: competing lines making freights so small that the merchant is able to sell low and yet preserve a safe margin. We know of no other place where seller and buyer so evenly preserve the equilibrium of profit.

If you are a farmer, here is your Canaan. Do you remember the grapes that were brought back by the men that were sent to "spy out the land" of Canaan. That is a biblical story and it is true. We have heard it said that in Hyde county pumpkins grow big enough for a negro cabin, and the corn stalks get so high it tires a coon to climb them. Hyde is tributary to New Berne. The story of the corn and the pumpkins is not literally true, but it gives an idea of the productiveness of that section. Laying aside fiction and coming to authenticated facts, what think you of trucking lands that are valued at more than a thousand dollars an acre? But you say, "that is a hindrance to the increase of population, for no farmer can buy land at a thousand dollars an acre." O, you haven't found the milk in the coconut! Just beyond the limits of New Berne are wild lands which, with proper culture, increase their value in geometrical progression. A few years ago $3,000 bought a farm. This spring the truck produce on that farm sold for $80,000 over and above expenses! Over 750,000 dollars worth of beans, potatoes, cabbage, and like products have left New Berne and gone North, to say nothing of the very considerable home consumption. We challenge the world to present its parallel.

In our next we will consider the men and the means employed in producing such wonderful results.

New Berne Yacht Club House. The Yacht Club are putting up their building at the foot of Broad street. It will be 30x23 feet. The lower floor will have a well at the center through which boats may be raised when it is necessary to overhaul them. The upper floor will be used for club meetings and entertainments. A double veranda will incircle the building, and a few feet below the lower portion there will be a ten-foot platform entirely surrounding it and it is desired later on to have an observatory at the top.

The club is getting on quite nicely. It now numbers over sixty active members about equally divided between ladies and gentlemen and it has fifteen boats and the number is expected to be increased to twenty during the month. All of them are held in common—any member takes any boat desired when it is not being used by others and almost every afternoon they are called into requisition by the members and rowing, sailing and racing engaged in to the delight of all participants.

Recreation is needed and an organization that supplies harmless and healthful amusement such as the Yacht Club does deserves success.

Syrup of Figs. Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, sets gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

Biggest Farm in the World. A company has just been organized with a capital of $1,000,000 for cultivating a farm of 112,000 acres in Florida. This will be the largest farm in the world, and upon it enough could be raised to supply the city of New York with food. The farm lies between the Indian, San Sebastian and St. John's river. The farm has a muck soil, similar to that in the Valley of the Nile. Sugar cane and coconuts are to be raised on this great farm.—New York Sun.

ALWAYS AHEAD IN ALL THINGS. $200,000,000 Business in Ten Years.

NEWBERNE, N. C., July 3, 1891. MUTUAL RESERVE FUND LIFE ASSOCIATION, NEW YORK:

I hereby acknowledge the receipt, through your State agents, Lench & Norman, of Raleigh, N. C. of your check for $3,000, amount of policy held by Marion M. Williams, deceased, in payment of the same, and am pleased to say is over thirty days in advance, and gives your company another and substantial claim to patronage, and refuses the assertion by OLD LINE COMPANIES that security of payment must be and can only be secured by a DOUBLE premium. Your ten years' experience with $3,000,000 surplus, and payment of $10,000,000 death claims, ought to satisfy the most skeptical.

Great Robbery in Newbern. Hundreds of people robbed of their few hard earned dollars with a promise of a hundred dollars in return for fifty and sixty.

How foolish our people are to be duped by such outlandish inducements. Mr. A. or Mr. B. from Philadelphia or New York writes to Mr. C. of Newbern to get him so many names who will pay sixty dollars at different assessments for the next six months, and he will give them one hundred dollars each in return. How wonderful it was that such things could be done, was the cry of our people. So wonderful that some even out their reasons down to try the experiment. Ought not common sense teach them that the only way to get a hundred dollars worth for sixty or seventy-five dollars is to go down to Big Ike, the Clothing Man, who buys his goods at six, five, and six, on the dollar. Has he not told the people time and again that he is the only living man could do such a thing.
