

Pub. Office

THE DAILY WORKMAN,

J. L. MICHAUX, Editor.
J. S. MICHAUX, Local Editor.
Rates of Subscription.—Single copy 5 cents
By the week to carrier ten cents. By the month twenty-five cents in advance. Six months $1.50; one year $3 in advance.

The Daily Workman.

Vol. 3. GREENSBORO, N. C. FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1885. No. 95.

ADVERTISING RATES:
—DISPLAYED— —LOCAL—
3 in. 1 day, $1.00 10 lines 1 time, $.80
3 " 3 days, 1.50 10 " 2 times, 1.00
3 " 1 week, 2.00 10 " 1 week, 1.50
4 col. 1 day, 1.50 15 " 1 time, 1.20
4 " 1 week, 2.00 15 " 2 times, 1.50
1 " 1 " 3.50 15 " 1 week, 2.00
Contract Advertisements taken at proportionately low rates.
Entered at the post office in Greensboro, N. C., as second-class matter.

Office on South Elm Street, under Benbow Hall.

RAILWAY GUIDE.

Table with columns for Railway Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Richmond & Danville, North Carolina, and C. F. & Y. V. Railroads.

SCHEDULE OF MAILS:

Table with columns for Mail Direction and Time. Includes North, South, Salem Br'ch, and East.

General delivery open from 7 00 a m to 8 00 p m., except during the distribution of mails. On and after Monday, Aug. 31st, the Money Order and Registered Letter office will only be open from 9 00 a m to 4 00 p m.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Capt. Aleck Rankin, of the R. & D. Railroad, was here this morning.
Rev. V. A. Sharpe has gone up to his work on the Trinity College district.
Mr. W. C. Bain returned to Graham some days ago from a visit to Randolph.
Durham wants a railroad direct to Lynchburg, Va. Greensboro has that already.
Mr. A. V. Lloyd and Mr. J. D. Mann went east this morning on an insurance tour.
Prof. O. W. Carr is here to-day, and may be found at his office on South Elm street.
We have not found the man who hinted that he could do better than to buy of our advertisers. Let us hear if you can.
Mr. W. L. Holt, of Graham, purchased a house for himself here yesterday. He returned to Graham last night.
We learn from the Bennett Seminary Visitor, that Charles H. Moore, A. M., has been added to the faculty of the institution.
Rev. Wilbur F. Steele, B. D., who is the principal of the Seminary, has recently returned from a visit north, and is at his post here.
Notice.—There will be a very important meeting of the members of the Baptist church Sunday morning next after service. A full attendance is earnestly desired.
The eight page edition of the Greensboro Patriot which came out this week was highly creditable to its projectors, and contained a large amount of matter in the interest of our business men in Greensboro, Graham and Kernersville. There was a large edition printed.

The Twin City Daily speaks of there having been "plenty of frost" in that section yesterday morning.

Father McGinity will hold service in the Catholic church on Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m., and 7:30 o'clock, p. m.

Mr. I. R. Dwiggin, merchant at Pond, this county, came in last evening with his accustomed load of bartering merchandise, and early this morning set out on his return home.

CELEBRATION—TEMPERANCE CENTENNIAL.—The New Garden Band of Hope will keep children's day by appropriate exercises in the grove at New Garden, 3, p. m., September 26.

Mrs. Sallie T. Chapin, of South Carolina, left here this morning for Charlotte, where she will speak on temperance this evening. Mrs. Laura Winston, Superintendent of Press Work, accompanied her.

Rev. J. R. Jones, of Summerfield, will assist Rev. T. J. Ogburn, pastor of the Methodist Protestant church, in a series of meetings in Winston, beginning next Sabbath morning.

To look up and down our chief thoroughfares during the hours of business one must see the vast improvement that has been made within a twelvemonth, comparing '84 with '85. Those who cannot see the difference should buy new glasses.

Sample Brown has provided his store with four of those stylish oval signs, two for each of his front doors, so that no one need go hunting through town, both up and down to find the store of Sample Brown.

At Fishplate's, too, there are some new dummies, dressed up in an inch of their lives, and so proud that they never even nod their heads to passers by. They are a standing insult to a man who has on his old clothes.

Wanted!

A good stout white boy, twelve to fifteen years of age, and who is not afraid of work. Call at the market. se25tf J. W. KERNDLE.

A Night Worth Seeing!

No such exhibition ever before in Greensboro. Mr. Armfield has shipped from New York, and they are now in stock, about fifty pieces of Carpeting of all styles and qualities. They are arranged in his new Carpet Department on second floor, and the public are invited to call and inspect them. Handsomer styles, (all new) and lower prices than ever before. se25tf

Patent Roller Flour!

Meal, Ship Stuff and Oats just received at MYRON NEWELL'S. se25 2t

Guns, Gun Implements, Brass and Paper Shells, Wads, &c. Good Paper Shells at 50cts per hundred. A car load of Cook and Heating Stoves for wood and coal, just received at HARRIS & FLIPPAN'S. se25 1w

Fire! Fire!

HOW TO PUT OUT FIRES! All families in town interested in the exhibit of the Celebrated Lewis Hand Fire Extinguisher, which will take place to-night in the square near the Court House at 8, p. m. These fire extinguishers will be for sale by J. W. SCOTT & Co., Agents for Guilford and Randolph. (For Other Locals See Second Page.) se22 1w

Programme Of Concert For Benefit Of Baptist Church:

- PART I. 1. Chorus—Venite in C. . . . H. Porter. 2. Piano Duet—Galop de Concert. . . Ketterer. Misses Alderman. 3. Vocal Solo—The Daisy. . . . Arditi Miss Bossie Yates. 4. Quartette—Celestial March, Brockman (Violin, Violoncello, Flute and Cornet.) Messrs. Alderman, accompanied on Piano by Miss De L. Alderman. 5. Vocal Solo—Tell Me My Heart, Bishop. Miss M. Spears. 6. Cornet Solo—The Winds that Waft My Sighs to Thee, W. V. Wallace. A. H. Alderman. PART II. 1. Instrumental Quartette: Mechanics Temple March, Burrell. First Kiss Waltz. . . . Gooch. 2. Piano Solo—Carnival Pranks, Schuman. Miss S. Jones. 3. Vocal Solo—Eckert's Swiss Song, M'ne Sontag. Miss Katie Seales. 4. Flute Solo—The Wrenn (Polka), E. Danare. S. L. Alderman. 5. Vocal Duet—Come to my Heart, Millard. Misses Spears and Arnold. 6. Male Quartette. . . . Selected. Messrs. Griffith, Hall, Alderman and Ireland. Doors open at 7:30—Concert begins at 8 o'clock.

Kernodle will have the finest meats in the market to-morrow. se25 1t

Magnum Bonum Apples! I have on hand a fine lot of this well known apple, nice and mellow. Also "Old Gold" and Pace's Dianora Chewing Tobacco. "Tip Top" Patent Flour—the best on the market. A full line of Family Groceries of all kinds. Bogart's Corner. J. S. BARNES. se24 1w

City Lots!

A few very desirable building lots within five minutes' walk of the Court House can be bought by applying at this office. se24tf

Just Received!

Another car load of the well known Anchor Brand Lime to be sold as low as the lowest. Respectfully, se24 3t HULSON & KIRKMAN.

F. Fishplate

Has received all the latest styles in Fall and Winter Clothing and Furnishing Goods, and if you want good goods cheap come and see us se24tf

Good For The Market!

John Kelley will have in the market on Saturday a supply of splendid beef and the finest of pork—the first pork of the season—and invites all who love good meats to call early on Saturday morning. se24 2t

Oysters received daily at LUNCH COUNTER, At the Depot. se23 1f

I am very sorry to have to remind very many of our customers that there are yet but four days in which to pay their "bills rendered" before we go north. We shall be glad to indulge you further, but it takes money to do a prompt business, and hence ask and expect immediate payments. se22 3t W. S. MOORE.

Oysters on the half shell at LUNCH COUNTER, At the Depot. se23 1f

Contractors, Take Notice!

The new district school building for the southern part of Greensboro is now open for bidders, who can see the plan and specifications by calling at the Greensboro Sash and Blind Factory. se22 1w

Dr. Smith proposes to run a street 40 feet wide between his study and his brother, S. C. Smith's house, westward, opening up several lots elevated and most eligibly located, lying well and in good neighborhood, which he offers for sale. Call and look at them. Also a lot lying on the front (church) street, between his study and his brother's. This piece of ground will be a corner lot, and is splendidly shaded by large oaks and elms. se18 1w

Carpets, Rugs, Oil Cloths, in all grades and at the lowest prices. se8tf C. & M. PRETZELDER.

They have arrived at H. C. Horton's a beautiful line of Fall and Winter Goods, Hats, Boots, Shoes, Trunks, Valises, &c. Hats of the latest styles, A beautiful line of Dress Goods, Notions of every description and selling at at rock bottom prices. Give us a trial and be convinced. Very Truly, &c., H. C. HORTON, Odell Building, South Elm Street. se11tf

Snake Bites.—R. W. Smith, McLeansville, N. C., says: Tar Heel Liniment cured his horse that was bitten by a snake. Farmers and others will remember this and keep Tar Heel Liniment in their homes. Price 50 cents. se11tf

25 different brands of Chewing Tobacco on our retail counter. We ought to please the most fastidious out of that assortment. se11tf J. W. SCOTT & Co.

For Rent!

Splendid rooms in Central Hotel building. Price for single room, from $1 to $2.50 per month. Apply to se19tf H. H. TATE.

A lot of Cotton Betting for quilts and comforts just received at se8tf W. R. MURRAY'S.

A new lot Ladies' and Gents' fine Shoes just received—for style and durability not excelled. Call and see them and get prices. W. R. MURRAY. se8tf

"The Old Oaken Bucket"—not the one that "hung in the well," but the nicest, newest, neatest, noblest Jelly Glass you ever saw. Ask to see them at se28-1f SCOTT & Co.'s.

W. B. Farrar, the Jeweler, keeps a nice stock of articles in his line which he guarantees to sell on good terms. Other dealers may claim to be fair, but he claims to be Farrar still. Call and examine his elegant stock, assured that you will find something to fill the bill. 261-

Cream Cheese!

New Fall stock—nice and sweet, just received at se11tf SCOTT & Co.'s.

Town Lots For Sale!

At reasonable prices and on easy terms. Apply to June 11—6m ROBT M. DOUGLAS.

A Rare Opportunity.

Owing to continued ill-health, and intending to spend the coming Winter in Florida, I offer my Stock of Goods for sale upon very favorable terms. If purchaser desires it, I will retain half interest, provided an allowed six months' vacation. Having disposed of my old stock at auction and private sale during the past Summer, purchaser will find my assortment now on hand unusually free of odd and unsalable goods, with lots of new goods just received. Terms of sale made to suit purchaser. Only a small per cent. of the whole required cash; balance on good time, properly secured. se22 1w EDWARD A. SMALL.

Three Years Old, and Getting Older. This is the celebrated "Old Gold" chewing tobacco. For sale by Alford & Michaux. se19tf

"Old Gold" Chewing Tobacco, 3 years old, at se11tf J. W. SCOTT & Co.'s

For Rent!

A nice dwelling house with six rooms. Apply at this office. July 6—1f

You will find the "Reliable" Ham the best—try them. For sale by and at T. S. SHELTON.

Stone Fruit Jars!

1-gallon, 1 gallon, 2 and 3 gallon Stone Jars just received at se4-1f. SCOTT & Co.'s.

DRURY HOWELL is still open, and is the man for fresh fish. Every day of the season you can come and find what you want. se11tf

Wanted to Buy on the Best Terms!

Three building lots for parties who will not pay an exorbitant price. Call on the editor of this paper, with a statement as to location, distance from the court house, &c., &c. an19tf

An Organ For Sale!

Any person who stands in need of an Organ of the celebrated Polouet make, and wants it at a cheap price for cash, can hear of a chance by calling early at this office. July 15—1f. se11tf Very Respectfully, J. W. SCOTT & Co.

Wanted!

To build houses for the citizens of Greensboro and vicinity. Also am prepared to furnish pine lumber in any quantity and at bottom prices. R. W. BROOKS, Office on South Elm St. and C. F. & Y. V. R. R. July 2—1f.

Kirkpatrick & Brother, contractors for all kinds of brick work, solicit the patronage of the people of Greensboro. Satisfaction guaranteed. Refers to the Hols of Alamance, for whom they have built several cotton mills. Can be found on their contract with Messrs. White and Trogon of this city. jy29tf

J. F. Jarrell, Proprietor of Guilford Sash and Blind Factory, is ready to furnish sash, doors, blinds, mouldings and brackets, and to contract for all kinds of buildings. Factory near the depot. Fresh invoices of first-class lumber constantly received. For estimates on material and contract work call on the proprietor. au18tf

At the store of Cartland you will find a nice line of Scotch, English and American Cheviot's Worsteds, Corkscrews, &c., from which he would be glad to make you one of those nice fitting suits. He has the prettiest line of Fall neck wear ever brought to town—latest styles just out. Has a new patent Yoke Shirt, and furnishings of all kinds. au28tf

The Fountain Head!

When you call for what you want at the new and elegant Soda Fountain of Alford & Michaux you may be confident of getting the best. Their soda is flavored with the purest and most tempting of extracts, and if you would choose Deep Rock, Vichy or Kissengen, you can be accommodated, with the assurance that you are drinking the thing expressed by the name. May 1—1f

A New and Useful Contrivance! ELLISON'S COMMODE CHAIR has been examined by physicians and others who are prepared to bear testimony in its favor as a highly useful contrivance for the comfort and convenience of the sick, and the proprietor is prepared to fill orders for the same if addressed to him or F. N. Ingold at Greensboro. au22 6w A. L. ELLISON.