LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Local intelligence articles including: Sir Knights take notice—Ivanhoe Commandery meets to night; The New Hampshire Senate endorses the Blair Bill; Be sure to report at this office; We have received a copy of the Hillsboro Recorder; Mr. Thos. Hemby, father of Mr. W. S. Hemby, owner and editor of the Charlotte Chronicle, died August 29th, aged 66 years; Attention is directed to our school notices; Mrs. Hundley has removed her school; Mr. A. A. Holton, Clerk of the Superior Court, has received a fine blooded setter puppy; DEDICATION OF A CHURCH—Rev. J. R. Ball, of this city, went down on Monday last, to assist at the dedication of Orange Chapel, Orange circuit, and reports a very fine meeting in progress on Wednesday.

Students continue coming in to attend G. F. College. There are ninety odd boarders already and a promise of a good many more.

The Richmond and Danville R. R. offers cheap rate tickets to Philadelphia and return during the centennial celebration—$16.75 for single individuals, from Charlotte, and for clubs of 25, $11.00. Tickets on sale from 8th to 17th of September and good to Sept. 22nd.

Mr. M. C. Workman, who was here for a time in the winter and spring of '86, and then returned to Minnesota to arrange his business, is back here, having come Wednesday night, and we are glad to know that he will spend the season, and perhaps longer, in this vicinity.

The excursion train for Dalton, on the C. F. and Y. V. railroad frontier, steamed away this morning at 8 o'clock under the most favorable circumstances of "wind and weather." Beautiful day for the trip. The Old Pilot will smile benignly at a short distance, and beckon the engineer to come on.

Conductor Sam'l. Lineberry, who went from this county some years ago, and who now runs on the passenger train on the Georgia Pacific, from Columbus, Ga., to Atlanta, via Birmingham, called on us this morning. He is on a brief visit to his parents in this county, being already in Charlotte as a witness in a matter of railroad litigation, and expects to return Monday.

We do not exactly see how it is that our confrere, Webster's Dollar Weekly, should credit the address of Judge Schenck, which it publishes in its last issue, to the North State of this city. The Daily Workman printed it the day following its delivery, from Judge Schenck's manuscript, and if any credit could be claimed, it is due the Daily Workman, beyond any cavil. We rather think that, to avoid mistakes in like instances, credit should be duly given in all such cases, and we are not very captious either.

Mrs. E. D. HUNDLEY has removed her School from its former location to the cottage on Sycamore street, opposite the law office of J. T. Morehead, Esq. Her terms for pupils will be $1.50 per month. sep 2 w
