LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sir Knights take notice—Ivanhoe Commandery meets to-night. Be sure to report at this office any and every failure to receive the DAILY WORKMAN. Those who have heard Mrs. Goodale on the cause of National Reform, say we should not neglect such an opportunity even if we are not co-workers with her. She will speak here on Monday the 10th. THE BIRDS.—We learn with regret that a number of persons have already been out shooting partridges, some as early as a week ago, notwithstanding it is unlawful to kill the birds until October 15th. About 15 persons are said to have gone out to day armed for destruction. The law is liberal enough, and ought to be observed. LECTURE AT NEW GARDEN.—Mrs. Mary Reade Goodale, of Baton Rouge, La., is to occupy the usual lecture hour on Saturday night, at King Hall. She will meet the New Garden "Y's" at 3 o'clock, in the afternoon. Mrs. Goodale has been called the Frances Willard of the South, and will convince all who listen to her logic of the righteousness of the cause she pleads. NEW SAVINGS BANK.—The commissioners named for the purpose in the Charter of "The Savings and Deposit Bank of North Carolina" met last night at the office of Levi M. Scott and appointed commissioners at various places to open books of subscription to the capital stock, and it is believed that, as the charter is a most favorable one in important particulars, it will attract the capital needed to make it a success. Any man with a surplus of $5 in cash can come in.

Vol. 5. GREENSBORO, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1887. No. 112.

Mr. John M. Rose, Secretary of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway Company, who was among the excursionists to the head of the road yesterday, returned to Fayetteville this morning. Mr. Rose is a vigorous worker, though not so young as some of the "boys," and is always on hand when his road is to be pushed a few inches farther up the slope. The Baptist Orphanage at Thomsville is in pressing need of funds to meet the demands for the approaching winter. Seventy orphans are there to be fed, clothed, educated and fitted for life's callings. Others will be received soon. All who may feel inclined to aid in this good work can have an opportunity of doing so through a committee appointed to look after this matter. While this institution is under the fostering care of the Baptist denomination in North Carolina, the orphan children of all our white population are welcomed to all its advantages.

The party that went up the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway to its western terminus yesterday were greatly pleased with the trip. They went to the stockade, which is within thirteen miles of Mt. Airy. There can be no doubt of the splendid outlook of this road, which has gradually grown from the start, under its present efficient management, and bids fair to be one of the leading lines of the country. Looking at the map, and considering the railroad schemes which are being discussed as more or less probable, it will be seen that the position of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley could not be changed for the better.

Personal.—Mr. J. C. Baine, of Burlington, who intended going home last night, "got left," and remained here until this morning. Rev. Dr. J. Henry Smith went up the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad this morning, on his way to Mount Airy, where he will preach on Sabbath, receive members and administer the ordinances of his church. Rev. P. L. Groom took the train for Dalton this morning, for the purpose of visiting a camp meeting in Yadkin county. Mr. George Wynne, of Raleigh, who came up last night, returned home this morning.

Regular Monthly Meeting of Prohibition Club, Friday, (to-night) at 7 1/2 o'clock, at the Hall of the W. C. T. U. MILLINERY OPENING. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11th, 1887. ELLIS' CHINA HALL.

There is an old proverb that a knife as a present cuts friendship in two; but if the knife is not made an actual present there is surely no danger of it cutting your natural good will. Now, we have, we hope, many friends, and being most anxious to keep their good-will, do not intend to make them an actual present of table cutlery, but charge them just enough to keep their good-will and increase their patronage. As regards the Goods, we have thirty different styles, ranging in quality from Rogers Bros' finest silver-plated good to the cheapest wooden-handle knife and fork at fifty cents. There are many bargains in this lot, of which it will pay you to take advantage.

ELLIS CHINA HALL.

Something Marvelous, but True! G. WILL ARMFIELD is now offering 20 different patterns of Worsted Dress Goods, at 7 1/2 cts per yard, former price 15 and 20 cts; Satteens, Batiste and Gingham that were 15 cts now 7 1/2.
