LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—Miss Lily Price went this evening on a visit to Madison.

—Miss Nellie Cramer, of Thomasville, is visiting Miss Lora Hagan.

—A third daily paper is spoken of for Durham. It will be for free trade.

—The train from the north this morning was reported five hours behind time.

—The W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow, (Thursday) afternoon at 5 o'clock at the usual place.

—Quite a large number of people left on the trains this morning in various directions.

—Stephen Freeman was hanged at Wilmington yesterday. He protested his innocence to the last.

—Mrs. R. E. Waggoman and her two sisters, the Misses Cheek, left for Bingham School this morning.

—Mess W. W. Redding, of Randleman, and R. E. Patterson, of Liberty, were here a while to-day.

—A card from Mr. W. P. Landreth states that he and his family are all down with fever at Walnut Cove.

—Viola Anna, daughter of Mr. A. G. Newell, died at 5 o'clock yesterday (Wednesday). Funeral at 10 o'clock this morning.

—Mr. Jos. L. May has retired from the editorial control of the German-Ten Times, and Mr. J. V. Orrell, late of Greensboro, has taken charge.

—We call attention to the advertisement of the McCanness House, Danbury. It offers pleasant accommodation to persons visiting the Piedmont Springs, whose waters have become famous among the people of this section.

The Daily Workman.

Vol. 6.

Greensboro, N. C., Thursday, July 12, 1888.

No. 38.

—Mr. Webster, and his daughter, Mrs. Martin, of Rockingham county, returned home this evening from a visit to Mr. Ham Tatum's family.

—At a meeting of the Evangelical Alliance, at Wilmington, a strong protest has been gotten up against the running of boats and trains on Sunday.

—The examination of teachers to fill the vacancies in the Winston Graded School will be held in the Graded School building, Wednesday, July 18, 1888.

—There will be two Silver Medal contests in the W. C. T. U. Hall, to-morrow (Thursday) evening, to which all are most cordially invited. Exercises will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

—Capt. J. M. Odell, of Concord, went down to Durham this morning to be in attendance on a meeting of the stockholders of the Durham Cotton Mills Company. We were glad to hear from him that the health of Mrs. Odell is improved.

—News has been received here from Rev. D. A. High, at Liberty, of the death of his sister Mrs. E. O. Patterson, which occurred yesterday at 1 o'clock, a. m. The burial was appointed for to-day at 11 o'clock, at Liberty. We regret much to hear of this sad news.

—Mess. J. W. Scott, Mike Sherwood and John and Henry Paris returned last night from their extensive northern trip, in which they visited Morehead City, Norfolk, Baltimore, New York, Niagara Falls, and other points of interest. They were absent about two weeks and are safe at home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, who were coming into town this morning in a wagon drawn by a mule, were subjected to something of an accident by reason of the mule taking fright at the train which went out toward Danville. Mr. Andrews was thrown out and so badly hurt as to require medical attention which was given him by Dr. Gregory.

—The reception given by the West End Club on Tuesday evening, proved, in spite of the threatening aspect of the skies, to be a very enjoyable occasion to all. Receipts amounting to something over $26.00. This work for the City Hospital was begun by this "ten" only last March. In less than six months these young ladies have earned $700.00 by their own labors, and have $400.00 now in subscriptions. No wonder our people encourage them. Who will make another ten?

—The District Democratic Convention which was in session when we went to press, yesterday, did not complete its labors last night, and when near midnight adjourned to 9 o'clock this morning.

The convention reassembled at the hour named, and after a few ineffectual ballottings the line was broken in favor of Col. Morehead who received the nomination. The struggle was protracted and unusually spirited. After the nomination was over the candidates made appropriate addresses, and the affair wound up pleasantly.

—The District Democratic Convention, representing the counties of Granville, Person, Caswell, Rockingham, Guilford, Forsyth, Stokes and Surry, brought together a number of gentlemen from their respective counties, very many of whom are comparatively young, yet some of them can remember the affairs of forty years ago. Time has made great changes. Among the number present we found Col. Tom Venable, of Oxford, whose father, the late Hon. Abram Venable, was one of the foremost men in the days of Badger, Kerr, Miller, Bragg and Mangum. We do not think there has been any improvement in the manners and methods of politicians since the days of the giants, but there has always been plenty of room for it.

Sugar Advancing.
On account of the rapid advance in Sugars we are compelled to advance granulated sugar to 10 cents per pound, or 11 pounds for $1.
