The Daily Workman.

Vol. 6. Greensboro, N. C., Friday, August 31, 1888. No. 81.

Mrs. Dr. S. A. Powell, of Reidsville, and her two grand children are visiting Mrs. W. S. Moore and Mrs. N. A. Brown, of Greensboro.

There was no mail here this morning from points north of Richmond from which place a bob tail train came in on time.

Dr. D. Reid Parker went down to Graham this morning to make a speech on Farmers' Alliance matters, upon which he is well posted.

Mrs. M. E. Howard, of Greensboro, is treasurer of the North Carolina Booksellers and Stationers Board of Trade, which held a session at Wilmington on Wednesday last.

The Greensboro Fire Company will have a quick steam practice this evening at 6:15 o'clock, sharp. The members of the company are requested to meet at the engine house promptly at 6 o'clock.

It has been said that when a young lady sends to her suitor a pine knot, it means that he has no cause for discouragement, but when she sends a casteloupe, it signifies that she is not prepared to take the chances of running away.

THANKS.—The Greensboro Baptist Sunday School, through Mr. R. L. Vernon, return thanks to Mr. C. P. Vanstory, Mr. J. Henry Phipps and others for transportation facilities afforded them in going to and returning from the picnic grounds yesterday.

There will be a musical concert in the Court house to-night by the BLIND ORCHESTRA, assisted by Master Henry Easley, for the benefit of the Hook and Ladder Company, the proceeds to be expended in the equipment of the company.

Admission 25 cents, children 10 cents.

Messrs. J. W. Scott & Co., have recently made some handsome shipments of dried fruits, of which the following is a memorandum:

Table listing quantities and types of dried fruits: 25,264 lbs. blackberries, 14,186 lbs. peaches, 5,309 lbs. apples, 6,985 lbs. pealed p'hes, 5,506 lbs. pealed p'hes, 24 barrels.

'Lost in London' pleased a great crowd at the Windsor Theatre on Monday evening, who enjoyed the melodramatic story and acting of Newton Beers' company who played with much force and energy. The scenery was good and new, and the antics of the comedy characters enjoyable. New York Times, September 22.

This company will appear at Benbow Hall on the night of September 6th.

PRINTERS' INK PAYS.—It would be an almost endless task to note the numerous and constantly occurring instances in which prompt and full returns come to those who advertise in the Daily Workman, and, besides, there must be countless instances of which we hear nothing. But here is something fresh from Mr. W. S. Moore:

The piano was sold in five days after the ad appeared—two other persons also applied wishing to buy—and an answer came to the inquiry for a cheap piano on the 3rd day.

Mr. J. Edwin Scott, for some time a merchant and manufacturer at Mebane, but who had for some time been suffering from pulmonary trouble, died at the home of his mother, in Alamance county, on the 24th instant.
