LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mr. J. W. Scott is in Richmond, Va. Mr. Chas. Price, of Salisbury, is here to-day. Mr. T. C. Worth, of Worthyville, has been here to-day. Mr. Berry Davidson, of Gibsonville, came up on business this a. m. Mr. H. C. Causey, of Liberty, was here yesterday evening and to-day. Secure your seats to 'The Rebellion of the Daisies'—as they are selling rapidly. Dr. W. A. Lash, of Walnut Cove, was here to-day, on his way home from Winston. Rev. Dr. Ferree was here to-day for the purpose of procuring seats for the Brown Summit church. It commenced raining about midnight last night—and bed time extended all the way from 9 to 12—and the moisture comes warm and gentle upon the earth. TAKE NOTICE.—There will be a called meeting of the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock, sharp. By order of the President. Regular weekly prayer meeting at the Baptist church to-night at 7:30 o'clock. Members are earnestly requested to attend, and a cordial invitation is extended to all. Lecture at the Centenary church this evening at 7:30 by Mrs. Wells, of Tennessee. Mrs. Wells is one of the National officers of the W. C. T. U. Every one most cordially invited. The Danville Register is of the opinion that election returns have in many cases been withheld and delayed in the interest of gamblers on the result, while the result itself is affected by the same cause.

The Daily Workman.

Vol. 6. Greensboro, N. C., Thursday November 8, 1888. No. 140.

Married, Wednesday morning, Nov. 7th, at 7:30 o'clock, by Rev. Dr. J. Henry Smith, Mr. Percy A. bright to Miss Lily Price, daughter of Mr. P. D. Price, all of this city. The happy couple took the 8 o'clock train for a tour northward. There will be a Martha Washington Tea at the residence of Mrs. W. E. Stone, on Thursday, Nov. 8th, from 5 to 10 p. m., for the benefit of the organ fund of the Episcopal church. Music and refreshments. All are cordially invited to attend. We learn that young Mr. Will. Dodson, son of our townsman, Mr. S. C. Dodson, was in a very critical condition last night at midnight, but had with him the most skillful physicians that could be procured from Fayetteville.

LIST OF LETTERS Remaining in the Postoffice in Greensboro, N. C., Nov 8, 1888: Alfred Carson, Josephine Duce, Charlie Fulps, Alfred Gwyn, Ciris Hame, Mary Sork, Betty Norment, W. J. Parrish, Lulah Water, Gertruce Wright. Persons calling for the above letters will please say advertised. Geo. H. GREGORY, P. M.

The Young Men's Missionary Society of the Baptist church in this city, at their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday night, November 6th, elected the following officers for the ensuing term of six months: PRESIDENT—Dr. W. W. Rowe. VICE-PRES.—John Thomas. SECRETARY—J. S. Moore. TREASURER—Geo. W. Paschal. ASST. TREAS.—R. W. Weaver. The dwelling of Mr. C. B. Green of Durham, was burned Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock. Most of the furniture was saved in a damaged condition, and a part of the house. There was some insurance. The Recorder says the fire was of incendiary origin, and that Mr. Green had been threatened the previous day, and in addition to this information came that one hundred cartridges and a leg of powder had been stolen from the railroad works near Durham.

THE REBELLION OF THE DAISIES.—A beautiful Cantata, requiring sixty persons to present it, will be given Friday night, Nov. 9th, in Benbow Hall, for the benefit of the proposed hospital of the West End King's Daughters. The whole plot of the song is replete with pleasing scenes, beautiful duets, solos and choruses. Besides the twenty children, who will astonish the audience with their singing, twenty-five young ladies and gentlemen, well known to Greensboro's best society, take part in this Cantata. The orchestral music by the Messrs. Woodroffe and Alderman, is worth the entire price of admission. General admission 25 cts, children under 10 years 15 cts, reserved seats 40 cts, now on sale at Greensboro Book Store.

The people have been very much stirred up on the subject of the election, and the excitement is just beginning to cool down. There have been a number of surprises in the returns brought in, but nothing more so than the record of the Third Party vote. Every man is entitled to his own opinion in this country, and we had ours, which was that the Prohibition vote would show a falling off, and that because it would, the cause would be weakened by pressing the matter at this time. Another point we believe to be true is that the real strength of Prohibition principles lies in those who did not so vote on last Tuesday. They have not been beaten in this election; they have wasted no money nor effort, and are not chagrined at the result. Of course there will be comments made by those who feel authorized to review the situation. It is not wholly in our line.
