The Pearson Meeting Committee will meet at the Chamber of Commerce rooms this p. m. at 5 o'clock. Come all. By order.

For mineral waters go to Tate Bros. drug store.

Mr. W. A. Moore, of Mt. Airy, went to Fayetteville this morning.

Fishplate's is the place to buy Clothing and Hats. Read their big ad. on 3rd page.

Prof. Martin H. Holt, of Oak Ridge is one of the Vice Presidents of the Y. M. C. A. of North Carolina.

Preaching at Westminster church tonight at 7:45 o'clock, by Rev. S. H. Chester. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Harding Callum, who has had an experience of twenty years as a druggist, may be found at the drug store of T. C. Callum, near the railroad. Harding is kind and obliging.

Mr. Geo. Fitzsimons, druggist, at Tates corner, appears to pay in his attractive yearly ad., to which attention is called. It will be found that his personal attention is given to prescription work.

Revs. J. W. Heath and J. F. Dozier, Prof. W. A. Blair and Mr. T. M. Johnson were here this morning. Pro. Blair was President of the Y. M. C. A. Convention at Wilmington, and Mr. Johnson and he both speak in high terms of their reception by the citizens of Wilmington, as well as of the Convention itself.

Mr. Plunket, of Kernersville, was in to see us a short while this morning, and we were glad to learn of him that the injury received by his son to an eye by a base ball, bids fair to be less serious than was at first supposed.

Mr. A. L. Rankin, of the Odell Hardware Company left home this morning on one of his accustomed trips. Mr. J. J. Eads of the same establishment, is absent at the present time on a like business for the firm whose trade is very extensive.

Capt. A. M. Smith, who is superintending a stone quarry at Mt. Airy from which are taken the blocks used in paving South Elm Street, came down this morning on a short visit. It is believed that there is sufficient material delivered here to complete the paving from the railroad to court house square.

Col. Thos. B. Keogh of this city has been appointed by the Gov. as one of the Commissioners to represent North Carolina at the inauguration Centennial at New York. The other Commissioners are, A. B. Andrews, R. B. Creecy, Richmond Pearson, W. G. Lamb and Claude Dockery.

Complaint is made by the Evening Visitor that certain persons are in the habit of pulling flowers in the city Cemetery of Raleigh. Greensboro Cemetery has a keeper who can supply visitors with flowers at fair rates, so that there need be no temptation to pull without leave and against law.

Mr. A. R. Causey, who was so recently hurt in coupling cars on the Salem Branch, but who, fortunately, seems to have escaped permanent injury, and is now entirely well, reported to Capt. Walsh to-day for duty, and will resume his work to night as baggage master between this place and Salem.

A WINKING GLASS EYE.—A very high degree of perfection seems to have been attained in the manufacture of glass eyes, according to Senator Vance, who has but recently had one inserted. He says that while riding in a car on Pennsylvania Avenue a week or two since he winked at a beautiful lady with his glass eye, and it answered an admirable purpose.

We learn from the Danville Register that Rev. Dr. Starr of that city has been elected to preach the baccalaureate sermon during the coming commencement season at each of the following Colleges, Trinity and Greensboro, N. C. and Blackburg, Va., each of which, however, will be declined, because of interference with special church work already arranged for.

We understand that Mr. Lowry who began to issue the Granite City Guide, at Mt. Airy, concluded to discontinue the paper for reasons which seemed very plausible, one of which, as we understand it, was that he had but recently sold out the Yadkin valley News, published in the same town, to the party who was running that paper, and the new enterprise would be antagonistic to the News. This is what we hear. A paper like the Guide ought to flourish in Mt. Airy.

Winston, according to the Twin City Daily, has had a squad of tramps, heavily loaded with benzine, but the police paying special attention to them they moved on. From the same paper it is learned that passenger traffic has been opened on the Wilkesboro extension of the R. & D. R. R. as far as Rural Hall, which is the point of intersection with the C. F. & Y. V. Railway. The west bound train on the Wilkesboro extension will reach Rural Hall each p.m. in time to connect with the train to Mount Airy, and will be over until next morning to connect with the train coming down from Mount Airy.

Never given up the ship. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure you, as it has done others, Price 25 cts. A Baltimore Butcher's Experience.—I have suffered with bad headaches for years, and have tried many remedies without obtaining relief, I was advised to give Salvation Oil a trial and it has entirely cured me.
