LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—Mr. A. H. Eller, of Winston, was here this morning.

—Jas. C. Roe has been appointed postmaster at Wadesboro, N. C.

—From the way brick is called for there must be lively times ahead at Jamestown.

—Rev. S. W. Coe went to-day to Davie county, where he preaches a funeral tomorrow.

—Miss Ella Dowd, member of the faculty of G. F. College, went to Charlotte this morning.

—The Misses Cheek, of Orange, who have been here on a visit, returned home this morning.

—Mr. and Mrs. Parks of Hillboro, returned home this morning from a visit to friends in this place.

—Rev. Dr. Hamilton has been here to-day on his way to Randleman, where he will hold a meeting.

—The editor has gone down to Liberty to attend an appointment for to-morrow, expecting to return on Monday.

—Mrs. McPherson, of Greenville, S. C., who has been visiting her sister, Miss Maude Hackelton, returned to her home this morning.

—There is a movement on foot to get up a cotton factory here on the co-operative plan, and we are glad to note that interest is being manifested in it. We need something to give employment to our people and we know of no better way than to establish factories. Keep the ball in motion.

—Mr. P. D. Price is here just from Madison, and represents that hands and teams are wanted at good prices for the Roanoke and Southern Railroad.

—The newly elected Mayor and Commissioners held their first regular session last night. They were harmonious, and Greensboro goes on, under a good Providence "prospering and to prosper." We have "a goodly heritage," for "the lines have fallen to us in pleasant places."

—A Herald special from Washington, D. C., announces the engagement of ex-secretary of State Bayard to Miss Mary Willing Clymer, of Washington, D. C. She is a daughter of the late Dr. Clymer of the U. S. Navy and is said to be wealthy, cultivated and refined.

MEMORIAL DAY.—A majority of the larger towns in North Carolina observed Decoration Day yesterday and held memorial exercises.

In this city the procession was formed at the Court House at half past five o'clock in the following order:

Greensboro Cornet Band, Guilford Grays, Guilford Battle Ground Continentals, Greensboro Fire Company, Carriages containing minister, chief Marshal and members of the Memorial Association, Citizens on foot.

At the cemetery, after a few introductory remarks by Mayor Jas. W. Forbis, the exercises were commenced with prayer by Rev. J. E. Mann.

The graves were then decorated and the Guilford Grays fired a salute, after which the procession returned to the city.
