IN ACCORDANCE WITH POW.

ers granted to the "Greensboro Female College Association," by the Legislature at its session of 1889, giving said association municipal powers, the Board of Directors met April 16th, 1889, and passed the following ordinances:

1st. That any and all persons who shall enter on the grounds of said association, and while there do any act which is calculated to excite or put in fear, annoy or disturb the quiet or peace of any student in attendance on the school of the association, while in or out of school or any teacher or superintendent or other officer thereof, or do any act to interfere with or induce any student in school as aforesaid to violate or to do anything contrary to the rules or discipline of the school, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction each and every person shall pay a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars or imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

2nd. That every person found guilty of loud and boisterous cursing or swearing in the buildings or on the grounds of the association or be found drunk or disorderly, or down, or disturbing, or in any way interfering with the peace and good order, comfort and quiet of the students or any one of them in attendance on the school of the association, while on the grounds of said association or be found violating the rules of decency, shall upon conviction thereof pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars or imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

3rd. Any person who shall be guilty of disorderly conduct at any exhibition or public meeting on the grounds of the association or shall in any way disturb or annoy any audience therein or thereon shall upon conviction pay a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars or imprisonment at the discretion of the court, and shall further be liable and it shall be the duty of any officer to immediately eject such persons from the premises of the association.

4th. That if any two or more persons shall assemble or come together in the buildings or on the grounds of the association and indulge in drinking spirituous, fermented or malt liquors, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall each pay a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

5th. That any and all persons who shall indecently expose themselves or do any obscene act, use or write any obscene language or make or exhibit obscene marks, drawings or pictures on the grounds or within the buildings of the association, shall on conviction pay a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

6th. That Prof. Dred Peacock be and is hereby appointed police, as provided in and with the powers prescribed in an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina passed at its session held in 1889 entitled an act to amend chapter 57th private laws of the acts of 1883 &c.
