LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

How THE THERMOMETER STANDS.—The state of the thermometer is taken by Dr. Bonbow, at the Benbow House, at the hour of 12 m. each day:

Table with 2 columns: Time and Temperature. Oct. 1, 71 degrees. 2, 63. 3, 69. 4, 70. 5, 63. 6, 58. 7, 59. 8, 59. 9, 66.

Jack Frost paid us a visit last night.

The Alamance Fair is toiling at Burlington to-day.

The editor went to Durham to-day to hear Sam Jones.

Gov. Fowle arrived in the city last night on the Raleigh train.

Mrs. Dr. Black, of Randolph, spent the day here.

Mrs. N. A. Brown of this city went on a visit to Burlington to-day.

Return tickets for the Sam Jones meeting can be had for $2.20.

Rev. S. D. Adams was among the number who went to Durham this morning.

Rev. W. S. Long, of Graham, went down the C. F. & Y. V. Railway this morning.

Capt. J. M. Odel, of Concord, passed through this morning on the way to Durham.

Mrs. Laura Winston and daughter went down this morning to Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan and Mr. N. H. Callum took the Raleigh train this morning to attend the Burlington Fair.

The large store building of Mr. L. Banks Holt at Graham is nearly completed.

Mr. I. S. King, of Kernersville, a brother to Messrs. J. L. King and R. R. King, was here yesterday.

There is quite a considerable amount of granite piled up in the neighborhood of the depot to be used as paving stones.

Revs. J. H. Page and Hoyle passed through this morning from Concord on their way to Durham to attend the Sam Jones meeting.

We would call attention to the new goods advertised to-day by Caldwell & Bro. They are reliable gentlemen and carry a fine and varied stock of goods.

The platform of the R. & D. passenger depot is being enlarged. The new flooring looks to be of sufficient thickness to hold up a whole train of cars.

Young Men's Prayer Meeting at Westminster Church tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Subject—Charity. All the young men are cordially invited to attend.

Ovan Henderson, colored, was arrested yesterday in Durham for burglary, by H. L. Caff, a colored man, from whom Henderson had stolen about $30.

Robert Berrier shot and killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Walser, yesterday morning. The deed occurred about eight miles from Lexington, N. C.

The train from the North was about an hour late this morning, which created quite an uneasiness in those who had bought tickets for Durham, lest they should miss a part of the services this afternoon.

There were 20,000 Knights Templar in line of march yesterday in the city of Washington. They were reviewed by the President. The pageantry and display made are described as being such as to excite the enthusiasm of the spectators.

There is room for only one more prisoner in the Tarboro jail, which would indicate the popularity of that resort, but whether for health, wealth, or pleasure, is not known. Who will be the fortunate man to fill up the vacuum is not known.

The number that attended the meeting in Durham is estimated by the Globe to be as great as 6,000. People are so anxious to hear Sam that so far keep their seats from one service until the next. He is reported as having complete control of his audience; at one time he will have them in tears, and, perhaps, while the tears are still trickling down their cheeks, they will be uproarious with laughter.

A hoghead of ipecac poured into pandemonium before breakfast could hardly bring up a more blasphemous set than is begotten and fostered by what has not been inaptly termed the "infernal revenue." The devil himself might play "second fiddle" to a number of that gang without compromising any claim to Satanic priority.

Wilmington has recently purchased five horses for its fire department, as we learn from the Star. These horses were obtained after a thorough search of the markets of the country.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Dr. Stafford which took place last Saturday evening at Burlington. Mrs. Stafford was an excellent lady and was highly esteemed by those who knew her. Her maiden name was Stroud, a daughter of Cave Stroud, Esq., of Alamance.

Mr. W. H. Hill is set down by the Danville Register as one of the syndicate of the Danville milling company, who will largely increase the present facilities of the Yarbrough flouring mills, and put the establishment in a position to meet the growing demands for the product of the mills.

We hear this morning from a traveling gentleman of a very horrid affair which happened in or near Lexington last evening. A man named Berrier had parted from his wife some time ago. There was a baby, and the mother and child lived with its grandmother; yesterday Berrier went to the house, failed to see his wife, but met his mother-in-law who had the babe in her arms. She refused to give up the babe to Berrier, who drew a pistol and shot his mother-in-law in three places, producing death. About fifty men were riding for Berrier last night with the determination to lynch him.
