We would consider it a favor for any one to drop in and give us a synopsis of any happening that would be of general interest.

Dr. Schenck, the Pres. of the Water Works, wishes to state that the water will necessarily be turbid for a few days on account of certain work being done at the reservoir.

Sam Jones has promised to come to Charlotte about the last of April or the first of May, provided a suitable building be provided, sufficient to seat the congregation.

Dr. Talmage's Tabernacle was totally destroyed by fire on the 13th inst. The loss on the Tabernacle is about $111,000. Dr. Talmage had no services Sunday.

There have been fresh discoveries of gold near Troy, Montgomery county, and something of a boom has been awakened. The precious metal found is generally on or near the surface.

We are sorry as well as surprised to hear of the assignment of Brower & Pickett, of Liberty, which was consummated a day or two since. We learned the fact at Asheboro yesterday.

SAM JONES' HUMOR.—Send a nickel to The Globe, Durham, N. C., and get a copy of the handsome eight-page Weekly containing full report of Sam Jones' meetings, with many of his original and witty sayings.

Mr. R. B. Glenn, of Winston, chairman of the District Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association for this district, will address the Greensboro Association, and the public, at the Baptist Church next Friday night. The public cordially invited, especially the ladies.

It is reported that the young horse Axtell, which beat the record recently, has been sold to a syndicate for $105,000, which if true, is the largest price ever paid for a horse. Vanderbilt paid $100,000 for Maud S. but none was ever sold above that price, without Axtell has been.

The good old county of Randolph sends up as one of her exhibits at the State Fair, Mr. Frank Redding, whose stature is 6 feet 9 inches. When walking through a train the bell rope strikes him about the collar. Mr. Redding has a sister, a cultured and attractive young lady, of fine manners and exceptionally good conversational powers, whose height is 6 feet one inch. She stands high in the community in more ways than one.

There was quite a press of people ready to fill the five coaches of the excursion train to Raleigh this morning, numbers of them nearly foolish enough to be taken in at the lunatic asylum. Limping old women, gouty old men, and giddy headed girls, some with sweethearts, and some with none, made a mob like assault on the steps of the moving train despite the exertions of conductors and baggage men, and one old man and his wife ran over Barnes' ice wagon, saying as they tumbled over it: "What's this thing doing in the way?" Then you could have seen Barnes smile for a half hour.

The people of Asheboro say that the presence of the railroad in that town has awakened an interest far beyond what any one could have supposed, and business has received a wonderful impetus. The saw mills in the country neighborhoods are supplying vast quantities of good lumber at low prices.

Miss Alice Weatherly wishes to inform her friends and the public generally that she is with Mrs. Omohundro & Co., who keep a full line of millinery and fancy goods, and they will be placed on the market as low as the same grade of goods can be sold. "Back Creek Mountain" and "Carraway Mountain" are the names of two considerable elevations in Randolph county, west of Asheboro, which can be seen very distinctly as one passes along the railroad between High Point and that place. These mountains are densely covered with trees, and just now the autumnal tints make a beautiful prospect from a distance of some two miles. The gum and the maple furnish their quota of the rich colors.

The grave of Ralph Waldo Emerson at Concord, Mass., has been desecrated as was found yesterday evening at a burial in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery. The authorities were notified and Dr. Edwin, a son of the deceased was telegraphed for. It is not known yet whether the remains have been taken out or not, as the authorities decided to wait until the arrival of Dr. Edwin before they would investigate. It is generally supposed that the miscreants have taken at least the skull of the dead philosopher.

LYNCHING.—The intimations given yesterday that in all probability Bernier, the murderer of his mother-in-law, would be lynched last night at Lexington was fully realized. The horrid orgies of Judge Lynch's court were enacted by a blood-thirsty mob, who took the prisoner to a grove near town and hung him to a limb where he died. It is not necessary to detail the horrors of the scene, nor can we advise what remedy should be applied to prevent the recurrence of such horrors. The provocation furnished by the numerous cases where flagrant murders have been allowed to go unpunished, supply the motive for such deeds of lawlessness, and it will probably be found that the surest remedy to suppress lynching is to deal promptly and justly with the murderers.
