FINE CROPS AND PLENTY OF MONEY.

Mr. A. S. Rankin, who has recently represented the Hardware house of the Odell Company along the line of the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad, the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line, the Wilson Short Cut and the Carolina Central, says that the crops are fine everywhere and the people have plenty of money. This is good news.

WHO WANTS AN ELEPHANT?

There is said to be an elephant for sale in Greensboro, shipped here from High Point. Such an animal could not have arrived here at a more seasonable juncture but the idea of supplying the wants of this city in a retail way is simply preposterous. Just to think of it! Only one elephant to supply our whole population, where it would require a whole gross of them to go round. Imagine only one family in town with an elephant and all the rest without—it would work badly. Either send on a good assortment of elephants or give us none.

FIFE AT MOORESVILLE

The news from the meeting being held by Evangelist Fife at Mooresville is, that about 2500 persons attended the service on Sunday morning. Although the attendance was not so large on Monday, the interest was growing, and one hundred persons gave the Evangelist their hands in token of their purpose to lead a new life.

Y. M. C. A.

All men are invited to the service tonight at 8 o'clock. Rev. G. W. Callahan will be present and make an address.

DIRECT IMPORTATION.

Our reporter saw today at J. W. Scott and Co's a case (12 tins) of Peck, Fream and Co's genuine London biscuit, bought of them direct through their agents in New York. The goods are beautiful and nice.

SUICIDE ON THE TRAIN.

A young gentleman, Walter Hester, who was here yesterday, and who took the night train for Winston, shot himself dead with a pistol between Kernersville and Winston. He had just been asleep and was lying down when the rash act was done. Mr. John H. Hester, father to Walter Hester, will be remembered as having taken his own life a number of years ago at Kernersville, under depression from business troubles, as it was then thought. The mother of the young man lives in Winston, for whom sincere sympathy is felt.

PLAID MILL MEN.

A meeting of Southern plaid manufacturers occurs at Charlotte today, at which the Evening News says there will be members from several of the southern states to transact important business.

PRINCE OF GOOD FELLOWS.

A man may be known as a "prince of good fellows," and yet be in fact no good. The appellation is misleading in many instances.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE

120 A BLUFF, YOKOHAMA, JAPAN, October 11th, 1890

Japanese ingenuity is rarely equaled, perhaps never excelled.—Some one says "They beat the world on little things." Just opposite our "Home," at 120 A Bluff, lives a Mr. Lindsay. Mr. Lindsay, in that he has much of this world's goods, is like a certain man who pulled down his barns to build greater ones. In his instance, however, it is not the barns, but the dwelling house which is being enlarged, nor has there been any "pulling down." Japanese ingenuity has obviated that necessity. It was desired to add a half story to the house. Before the roof was removed a scaffold of round poles was built up around the house and a waterproof temporary roof over the whole placed upon this scaffold.—The roof is of Japanese shingles.—Japanese shingles average about one eighth of an inch in thickness. This immense scaffold, with all the frame for the temporary roof, has not a nail or spike in it, but is tied together with small grass rope.—The shingles are held in place by strips of bamboo tacked obliquely across the roof. To further protect the inside of the house the space above the old wall has been favored with temporary weather boarding, and much of this is really tied on with strings.

This is a splendid country for "bandy shanked" Christians. An official in the church (very high church) with "Unitarian proclivities," whatever they may mean, gives a contract to a Frenchman, and the Frenchman employs "heathen Japanese," and the work goes right on Sunday and Monday. No time lost! God alone knows what would become of the poor people were it not for Christian Missionaries.

When people imagine that they are giving a newspaper an advertisement merely to help the newspaper along, this paper does not want it. The proprietor has lived a long time without begging, and when he gets into that business he will leave this section. Every dollar paid to us must be paid as an investment in the goods we have to sell. We are not posing as a mendicant, and we would not accept business on that basis. If a man does not believe that advertising brings him returns, dollar for dollar and more, then he is very foolish to squander his money.—Durham Globe.

TRINITY COLLEGE—CORNER STONE CEREMONIES.

From Mr R T Gray, who was present during the ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the new Trinity College building at Durham yesterday, and took part in the same, it is learned that the occasion was one of deep interest, and that everything passed off in good style. Gen R. B. Vance and ex-Governor Jarvis made attractive and able speeches, business was suspended and a long procession moved out along Main Street to the campus where the platform had been erected.

It was a great day both for Durham and for Trinity College.

A baggage car on the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad caught fire yesterday from the engine and came near being destroyed. It occurred down the road.

GOOD NEWS FROM CEDAR FALLS CIRCUIT.

Rev John H. Totten, who is the Methodist Protestant pastor of this work has written at least three several times, briefly each time, of the progress of the meetings under his charge.

He says under the date of October 29th: Our meeting at Bethany is a grand success. Thirty-five souls have professed faith in Christ and the same number have joined the church and been baptized. Last night the altar was crowded with penitents. The house is too small by half for the congregations. We will continue here until Sunday and then move the meeting to Worthville, by request of the manager of the factory there, and continue until the last of next week. All who read this will please pray for the success of our meeting at Worthville every day next week. We had one meeting there sometime ago at which there were twenty-two converts, and now they wish me back.

Writing again on the 31st of October, he says, "There were 47 conversions and 50 accessions to the church at our Bethany meeting this week, and still the meeting goes on. All glory to God"

Then again, Nov. 3rd, he writes from Worthville, that the meeting at Bethany closed the evening before with 70 conversions and 73 accessions to the church, 58 at Bethany and 15 at Worthville.

Last night I commenced another meeting at Worthville on the evangelistic order. After preaching 16 penitents came forward and 7 were converted. I then received the names of all who wished to join any church—fifteen gave their names for the Methodist Protestant, 3 for the Baptist and 2 for the Presbyterian church. Some of these were converted at Bethany. We expect to continue this meeting every night till Saturday night.

Please publish this in the WORKMAN as well as in the Central Protestant, so that all who read it may be encouraged to continue in prayer for us. We count 153 converts on this circuit and 155 accessions to the church. All glory to God."

RIOT AND BLOODSHED AT A CELEBRATION.

At Fairmount, Indiana, on the night of the 8th while the Democrats were celebrating their victory, and the procession was moving along the principal street, a powerful negro ran into the procession, brandishing a club and a revolver, and commenced firing and striking right and left. Al Powell, a white teamster, was shot and instantly killed. The account goes on to say:—The greatest excitement ensued. A score or more shots were fired, and the engagement threatened to become general. Four negroes were also wounded. The colored man who started the riot, and whose name cannot be ascertained, was shot twice in the back after he had killed Powell. He was placed under arrest and taken to jail, with the mob howling at his heels. Reports from Fairmount are to the effect that there are fears of a lynching. Sheriff McFeely of this city has gone to the scene of the riot, and will endeavor to protect the prisoner.

You will find at the Callum Drug Store fine Philadelphia Confectionery, put up in half pound boxes for convenience. It is a very nice article.
