ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY.

Mrs. Clarence Miller, Jr. and Miss Robena Miller were joint hostesses on Friday afternoon at the home of the former, at one of the loveliest parties of the spring season. The house was attractively decorated in quantities of spring flowers. Six tables were arranged for bridge. After several exciting progressions, Mrs. Roy Francis was found to be the possessor of the top score and was presented a beautiful deck of cards.

The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Leon Killian and Miss Mary Nell Miller, served a palatable salad and ice course. On each plate was a unique favor of a Cupid holding a golden heart, the corner of which was covered with a rose and underneath the guests found the following information: "Miller Kirkpatrick, June 2, 1925."

The announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Georgia McIntosh Miller and Mr. Cleveland Fain Kirkpatrick is of wide spread interest in this section, as both belong to two of the county's oldest families.

Miss Miller is the daughter of Mr. Clarence W. Miller, and by her winsome personality and graciousness has endeared herself to countless friends. Mr. Kirkpatrick is the son of Mrs. Milas Kirkpatrick. He is serving his second term as Register of Deeds and is prominent in the life of the town.

Those playing bridge were: Mess. Ernest L. Withers, Joe Graves, H. B. Atkins, Roy Francis, R. L. Allen, Harry Roth, J. H. Way, Jr., R. O. Covington, W. F. Swift, M. H. Reeves, Harry Hall, R. L. Lee, W. C. Garrison, Starkey and Dambell of Canton, T. Lenoir Gwyn, Rufus Siler, J. N. Shoobred, Chas. Padgett and the Misses Sara and Josephine Thomas, Sarah Hill Hannah and Nannette Jones. Those coming in at the close of the game were: Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. John Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Leon Killian, Mrs. Chas. Miller, Mrs. W. L. McCracken and Miss Lilian Allen.

WOMAN'S CLUB.

The Woman's Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. W. T. Crawford at her home on Branner avenue Thursday afternoon, April 16th. On account of illness of the president, Mrs. J. H. Howell, Mrs. R. L. Allen, Vice President, presided.

The meeting opened with the federation song followed by the club prayer. A health maxim was given in response to the roll call.

During the business session the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. C. H. McDowell.
1st Vice President, Mrs. R. L. Allen.
2nd Vice President, Mrs. E. S. Harrold.
3rd Vice President, Mrs. Clarence Miller, Jr.
Secretary, Mrs. T. C. Breeding.
Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Frank Ferguson.
Treasurer, Miss Robena Miller.
Chairman of Education, Miss Bessie Boyd.
Chairman of Art, Mrs. R. H. Blackwell.
Chairman of Health, Mr. Theo. McCracken.
Chairman of Music, Miss Georgia Miller.
Social Service, Mrs. Grover Davis.

Following adjournment a delicious salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by Elizabeth Smathers and Willa Crawford.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. H. Limer, April 23rd, with Mrs. Dick Sentelle Joint Hostess.
