CONDENSED STATE NEWS.

porter he had nothing to say for publication.

Eric W. Rodgers, formerly of Charleston, S. C., has been named to head the North Carolina Bureau of the Associated Press with headquarters at Raleigh, succeeding Robin King, resigned. Mr. Rodgers had several years newspaper experience before coming with the Associated Press three years ago. He has been in Raleigh with the organization for two years. At the same time it was announced that W. H. Richardson, formerly secretary to Governor Morrison, had been engaged by the Associated Press in charge of its State news mail service to the press. Mr. Richardson is a man of wide newspaper experience.

The North Carolina Association of Optometrists will be in session here Wednesday and Thursday of this week. On Monday the Association for the Study of Feeble Minded closed a four day convention here.

$1,500,000 in schools, equalizing funds will be divided here on June 1 among the counties of the State, it is announced by Superintendent of Public Instruction Allen. Sixty-seven counties will participate in the funds.

The new board of Caswell Training School met in Raleigh during the week to organize; it was announced that the new state equalization board would meet probably on Monday, May 11, and the Corporation Commission attended a hearing at Richmond on freight rates which lasted most of the week. It was Virginia's protest against certain rates of North Carolina and was heard by the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

Chief Justice Fayall of the Iowa Supreme court was in North Carolina during the week as the guest of R. O. Everett of Durham, and was entertained in royal fashion by his host. He also visited the Governor and members of the North Carolina Supreme court.

State Insurance Commissioner Wade issued a warning to all insurance underwriters that they must obtain new licenses before proceeding with their business in the State. He declared that agents who had applied for licenses could not, under the law, practice until their licenses were granted.

Governor McLean during the week appointed Dr. H. V. Wilson of the University of North Carolina and Frank Wood of Edenton to represent the State at a conference called by Secretary of Commerce Hoover to consider means of protecting the fishing industry of the Atlantic seaboard.

Colonel Fred A. Olds was the honor guest of the Raleigh Lions Club during the week and the historian of North Carolina, who is known affectionately from "Murphy to Mentor" and whose name is a by word to practically every school child of the State, was accorded many pretty compliments.

Chief Justice W. P. Stacy, president ex-officio of the judicial conference created by act of the last General Assembly, has called the membership of the body to a conference here on Thursday, June 25th. The conference is to be composed of Supreme and Superior court judges and a representative of the legal profession from each of the twenty judicial districts, the latter having already been named by the Governor.

On Friday the Corporation Commission issued an order requiring all buses to inaugurate a system of checking baggage similar to that now in vogue on all public carriers. The amount of baggage carried shall not be greater than can safely be handled without causing inconvenience to passengers.

BACK GIVEN WAY.

Then Follow the Advice of This Waynesville Resident.

Are you dragging along day after day with a dull, nagging backache? Do you feel tired, lame and weary, suffer sharp, torturing pains at every sudden move? Then look to your kidneys! Colds, strains and overwork weaken the kidneys and bring on throbbing backache and knife-like twinges. Don't risk serious kidney disease! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Read what this Waynesville resident says:

Mrs. M. C. Mabry, 1132 Kellian St., says: "I had an attack from my kidneys and was feeling bad all over. My back ached all the time and there was dull, dragging pains were most annoying. Dizzy spells bothered me a good deal and I couldn't do much household work because I felt easily. My kidneys acted irregularly and caused no end of worry. After using Doan's Pills, every symptom left."

Save Lives With Concrete

Do you know the condition of the school that your children attend? Is it a firetrap?

It is imperative that all old frame buildings, used for public gathering, be replaced with fire-proof concrete structures.

The cost of Portland Cement is exceedingly low in comparison with other building materials. It is the cheapest of all manufactured commodities.

Talk to your building material dealer about Atlas Portland Cement. He will tell you its advantages in construction of all kinds.
