RUSSIAN DANCER AND TEACHER

Mme. L. N. Vassilieva, foremost Russian dancer and teacher, formerly of the Imperial Russian Ballet, Petrograd, will teach in Waynesville twice a week at the Hotel Gordon during the months of July and August.

Mme. Vassilieva is at present at the Manor Hotel, Asheville, N. C., where she has classes for children and adults in fancy dancing, toe dancing, folk dances, pantomime, ballroom and expression. A special course in castanet playing is being offered to those who are interested in perfecting Spanish dances.

Mme. Vassilieva was engaged for the summer season by Miss Edna deSays, who brought to Asheville within the last few years distinguished dancers. Miss deSays has a school for violin and united arts in Washington, D. C., where she lives in the winter. Miss deSays is a violinist of distinction herself, having toured Europe and the United States of America.

NEW SERVICE STATION AND REFRESHMENT STAND AT SAU-NOOK.

A blacksmith shop, a garage, and a refreshment stand, all under one and the same proprietorship and management constitute a new enterprise now under way by the side of the Waynesville-Atlanta highway at Sau-nook.

John Rhinehart, Holmes Piott and Rufus Kerley, all well known residents of the neighborhood, who have entered into partnership for the purpose are proprietors and will personally conduct the establishment.

The blacksmith shop, a good roomy frame building, is already erected. The forge is installed and a first-class equipment of tools is conveniently arranged near it. Mr. Rhinehart is the smithy with "strong and sinewy arms" who wields the hammer that makes the anvil ring.

The garage, a structure similar to the blacksmith shop, will be erected forthwith and the erection of the building in which the refreshments will be dispensed will follow speedily. The latter by the use of various rustic designs and features will be made attractive to catch the eye and halt the tourists and joy riders that come rolling along that way.

Considering the apparently strategic location, the scheme looks like a shrewd one on the part of these three natives to gather in a portion of the coin of the realm which might find lodgement elsewhere.

And who knows but this may prove the forerunner of larger interesting enterprises and developments on upper Richland creek?

HAZELWOOD DEFEATS FRANKLIN 16-2.

The Hazelwood Baseball team's enthusiasm ran high when the Athletic Club defeated the Franklin all stars 16-2. Robinson held the opposing nine for four hits, while Jones was almost hit from the mound.

In a former game between Franklin and Hazelwood the game was a pitcher's duel. No score was made until the eighth inning.

Enthusiasm was turned into sorrow when Wyatt was struck with a fouled ball, injuring his nose seriously. He was immediately carried to the hospital where he received physical aid and it is reported that he is recovering.

"ACHED & ACHED"

Lady Says Her Back "Hurt Night and Day"—Least Noise Upset Her. Better After Taking Cardui.

Winfield, Texas.—"My back hurt night and day," says Mrs. C. L. Eason, of R. F. D. 1, this place. "I ached and ached until I could hardly go. I felt weak and did not feel like doing anything. My work was a great burden to me. I just hated to do up the dishes, even. I was no-account and extremely nervous."

"My mother had taken Cardui and she thought it would do me good, so she told me to take it. My husband got me a bottle and I began on it. I began to improve at once. It was such a help that I continued it until after the baby's birth."

"I took eight bottles and I can certainly say that it helped me. It is a fine tonic. It built me up and seemed to strengthen me. I grew less nervous and began to sleep better."

"I can certainly recommend Cardui to expectant mothers, for to me it was a wonderful help. In every way I felt better after taking it and I think it is a splendid medicine."

Cardui is purely vegetable, and contains no harmful drugs.
