HAYWOOD JOURNAL PETERED OUT—LET ITS ASHES REST IN PEACE.

Done gone.
Kerfummixed.

Almost died absorbing. After a little more than two years of feeble struggling against an adverse fate, the last sad rites were spoken last week over the erst while Haywood Journal.

Its fate was only that of many another ill-fated venture into country town journalism, the hardest, according to more than one high authority, of all lines of journalism to conduct efficiently, worthily and successfully.

Hence no word of criticism of any one concerned with its brief existence need be indulged now that the Journal is no more. Let its ashes rest in peace.

Those responsible for its advent were doubtless well intentioned, but as the event shows they as many other well intentioned people might have done made a mistake in their attempt to estimate the possibilities local conditions offered for a second paper in Waynesville.

Should any other individual or group of individuals again make a similar venture, the erizzled old Mountaineer will be found a hard proposition to back against. So let any who may happen to think of such a rash thing beware.

THE L. A. T. APPEAL.

June the third marks the end for this campaign for the Near East Relief. Many have responded in a splendid spirit to the worthy cause, and there are many yet who have not had a chance in America's noble task of aiding the homeless children of the Near East. When you read this won't you at once send or hand your contribution to

S. R. CROCKETT, Young's Store

Haywood Co. N. E. E.
p. 30. These children need clothes and shoes. If you have any old clothes or shoes you are willing to give to the Near East Relief, then send them to: Near East Relief, Store of Merchants, 100 Main Street, and I will get them to the children. If you send them to me, I will get them to the children. If you have any old clothes or shoes, you are willing to give to the Near East Relief, then
send them to: Near East Relief, Store
will get them to the children.

Perhaps you will be more ready to go to some trouble in the matter if you remember the words of Hannah's said: "I was hungry and ye gave me meat, I was naked and ye clothed me, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

HON. FELIX E. ALLEY IN DE-MAND.

The Hon. Felix E. Alley is in great demand all over Western North Carolina as an after-dinner orator. Nearly every celebration or exercise try to draft him. Since his announcement as a participant in the race for Congress, thousands of letters, telegrams, etc., have poured into his office and much enthusiasm seems to prevail all over the tenth district in his behalf.

On June 16, Mr. Alley was the principal speaker at the June meet of the Rutherfordton County Club in the Kiwanis Hall, Forest City. The Sun of Rutherfordton, N. C., had a long article in regard to Mr. Alley's participation in the above event.

On July 3rd Mr. Alley will speak in Franklin, N. C.

In regard to the Congressional campaign, Mr. Alley pointed out to the editor of the Carolina Mountaineer that he was too busy at the present time to take much stock in press agenting dope, especially when it is sent out from foreign fields. His friends, however, are anxious to clear the atmosphere on one or two points and they feel sure that when the issues of the campaign are drawn it will not be a question of the favorite of one county aligned against another, but a question of the "man."

Mr. Alley's popularity is really astonishing and even at this early date it looks like Mr. Alley will carry every county in tenth district with two exceptions. Mr. Alley's friends are already forming clubs throughout the district and it is hoped to have a thorough and systematic campaign manned out by early fall.

There is a strong movement on foot to get another candidate into the field. It is believed by a few that this would lessen Felix Alley's admitted majority should there be only two in the race; but so far no one else has announced his entrance and it is not probable that there will be any.
However, at this early date, anything may happen.

NEW LAW FIRM OF HANNAH & HANNAH.

(Contributed.)

Mr. William T. Hannah, who on June 10 received his diploma in law and literature at the University of North Carolina, has returned to Waynesville and will practice law with his father, Judge William J.
Hannah, under the firm name of Hannah & Hannah. The new firm will be located in the office on Depot street that has been occupied by Judge Hannah for the past several years.

Judge Hannah, the senior member of the firm, has been practicing law here for twenty-five years, at one time as a partner with the late Hon.
W. T. Crawford, and after the latter's death occupying the office alone.
Some six months ago, he was elected judge of the Recorder's Court, and, as the presiding judge, has made a spiendid record as a fearless executor of the law.

The junior member of the firm, William T. Hannah, after graduating at the Waynesville High School, entered the University of North Carolina, and, taking the law course consecutively with his academic work during the last three years at that institution, on June the tenth last received his diploma Bachelor of Arts from the School of Liberal Arts, and Bachelor of Law from the School of Law.
Beside these diplomas, Mr. Hannah received also a certificate from the law school reading as follows:

"This certifies that Wm. T. Hannah served as one of the student editors of the North Carolina Law Review in the issues of 1924-1925."

The junior member of the firm thus begins his career as a lawyer in Waynesville thoroughly equipped from one of the best law schools in the South and with a record at that institution of which one may feel proud.

Judge Hannah wishes to be understood that the partnership is limited, as the senior member will not participate in any fees that the junior member may receive for appearing in the courts of any justice of the peace, the recorder's court, and the junior member is not to participate in any part of the salary of the office of judge of the Recorder's Court.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Women's Club was held in the clubhouse on Monday, June 15th, at the home of Mrs. C. F. Rhinehart.
Mrs. C. F. Rhinehart presided.
At the special session the question of the annual business was discussed.

Mr. Stone, and a record of the year of the Women's Club. H. H. H.
way. A motion was made and carried that the club be reorganized for the year 1925-1926.

The club discussed the idea of having a bath en-suite during the summer. Mrs. Stone was appointed chairman of the committee.

Items were read from the report of activities of the first district of N.
C. Women's Clubs, showing that the past year had been a most profitable one for the district.

Tickets to Senator Heflin's lecture,
"The Old South," June 19th, were distributed among the club members.

The club wished to go on record as displaying the flag on June 15th.

Mrs. C. F. Rhinehart and Mrs. Vetoe of Canton told of the good work their Women's Club had done and was doing.

Miss Saunders, head of the Nashville School of Art gave a very interesting talk on art, emphasizing the importance of this study in the public schools.

The program for the afternoon was as follows:

1. Paper: Country Community Life and Co-operative Farming by Miss Fannie Pearl Campbell.

2. Vocal Solo: The Blush Rose by Mrs. Lawrence Green.

3. Piano Duet: The Boatless Dream by Mrs. Joe Johnson and Mrs. C. S.
Smathers.

The club was glad to welcome the following guests: Mrs. C. F. Rhinehart, Mrs. Vetoe, Mrs. T. O. Chapin, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Wyche, Mrs.

Fritz Schulhofer, Miss Saunders and Miss Ruth Wyche.

The hostesses served a delicious ice course during the social half hour.
The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. H. G. Stone, June 25th.

MISS MORRISEY WINS OVATION IN KANSAS.

Marie Morrisey, world famous contralto, who will sing here Thursday, July 2, sang last week at the Kansas City Music Festival, winning an ovation before an audience of 3,000.

Miss Morrisey created a sensation with her beautiful voice, and a charming personality, and was forced to respond many times to the applause and sang eight extra before she could go.

It is a rare chance for the people of Waynesville to hear this charismatic young artist while she is in her youth and no doubt she will be greeted by a large audience when she makes her appearance here.

MRS. FREDERICK I. COX

A new photographic study of Mrs. Frederick Irving Cox, wife of the Interstate commerce commissioner and one of the popular hostesses of Washington.

Probably
"When I was young," said Aunt Jane, "girls never thought of doing the things they do today."
"That's probably why they didn't do them," drawled the girl.

A Choice of Evils
"Bobby," said the teacher sternly, "do you know that you have broken the eighth commandment by stealing James' apple?"
"Well," explained Bobby, "I might just as well break the eighth and have the apple as to break the tenth and only covet it."—Forecast.

All Depends
"What did she say when you proposed?"
"She said, 'Glub-blug.'"
"What does that mean?"
"Hard to tell."
"Was she laughing or crying?"—

Motorcycle Means Quick Delivery Service

The Waynesville Pharmacy is an establishment that maintains a real delivery service and a service worthy of pride, The best delivery service, however, is no good at all unless it gets started and keeps going.
Inefficient or insufficient clerks and druggists can seriously delay the best delivery service.

But at the Waynesville Pharmacy there is service from beginning to end of every business transaction, and that assures satisfactory relations all the time.

With our new Motorcycle Outfit we can deliver upon very short notice.
