

Business And Friendship.

Friendships have not only brought us our business, but our business has brought us friendships. Because all customers of this drug store realize that the character of service given by us comes from personal attention which they appreciate.

If you like to do business with a cold, indifferent, impersonal sort of a place, you won't like Alexander's. But if a pleasant smile, a cheery voice, a friendly atmosphere and unmistakable evidence of a desire to please mean anything to you, why this is headquarters.

"JANICE MEREDITH" TELLS HIS HISTORY OF DAYS OF '76.
Paul Revere's Ride, Washington Crossing the Delaware, Surrender at Yorktown, and Many Other Incidents of the Revolution Shown in Picture.

Spectacular scenes of famous episodes of the American Revolution are accurately reproduced in "Janice Meredith," Marion Davies' pretentious and beautiful Cosmopolitan production, which starts a two day run on July 3 at the Waywood Theatre.

The skirmish at Lexington—"the shot that was heard around the world"—the breathless moment of suspense, waiting to see whether the British would fire the first shot in the American Revolution; the dauntless Minute Men bravely fighting against frightful odds—this is one of the thrilling scenes of the production.

Crossing the Delaware

Washington crossing the Delaware, a living reproduction of the famous painting by Trumbull, is also a gripping chapter of the photoplay. A channel 400 feet wide had to be cut through the Saratoga River in the Adirondacks to permit the crossing of special constructed flat boats and rafts, transporting the soldier and loaded cannon, oxen and supply wagons.

Paul Revere's immortal ride—when his horse's hoofs resounded through the night, when stilled heads appeared at windows in answer to his call, and when he took desperate jumps over fences and hedges, is full of thrills and artistic realism.

The Battle of Trenton—Washington's timely attack, and the victory is vivid and gripping, a magnificent bit out of history.

The Battle of Yorktown

Then there's the battle and surrender of the British at Yorktown, impressive, authentic and thrilling! No time or expense was spared in remodeling the Cosmopolitan Studio into an exact reproduction of Yorktown and its vicinity.

When Benjamin Franklin in his sober garb, pleaded for aid to the Colonies at the Court of Louis XVI at Versailles, and the thousands of French nobility in their gorgeous brocades and satins and elaborate head-dresses surrounded him—all reflected in enormous mirrored walls with sparkling chandeliers—is another historical scene.

The hardship and suffering of Washington and his troops is vividly depicted, when the General shared the cold and misery endured by his soldiers at Valley Forge; while on the opposite side of the Delaware General Howe was tendered a farewell ball by his officers at the Wharton Villa. Beautiful women, richly gowned and bright coated British officers danced on polished floors, lighthearted and comfortable; while the American soldiers attempted to keep warm near their camp fires—a striking contrast, wonderfully photographed.

The Boston Tea Party, a magnificent night scene; Patrick Henry's impassioned speech; and numerous other incidents of the days of the Revolution are included in this stupendous production, which, under the direction of E. Mason Hopper is a stirring page from history.

"Janice Meredith," Lillie Haylward's picturization of Paul Leicester Ford's romance, is distributed by Metro-Goldwyn. The settings are by Joseph Urban.
