

The Happy Road to Home!

by
O. Lawrence
Hawthorne

Oh, the sun shines bright and the skies are blue
And all nature, it seems, is gay!
And a golden glow floods my spirit too,
As I hasten along the way
To a little house in the friendly hills
Where the treasures of childhood wait—
Yes, the road to home brings the same old thrills
As it leads to the old farm gate.

Though the hills are lonely and lost in snow
And the wind moans across the plain,
Still I love those scenes that I used to know
And my heart sings a glad refrain;
For the winter's cold brings the thought to mind
That wherever a man may roam
There is no delight like the joy he'll find
At the end of the road to home.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schulhoffer announce the birth of a daughter, Mary Louise, on Friday, July 24.

ANNUAL BOAT PAGEANT FINE

The annual boat pageant and water carnival observed what is generally conceded to be the best celebration in its history, Thursday evening. Winners of the three prizes offered were the boat "Fairyland", entered by Mrs. J. B. Ivey, of Charlotte; "The Light of the World", aptly entered by the Mission Building, Nashville, Tenn., and "The Dragon Queen", joint entry of Mrs. Courtland Jerolman, Knoxville, Tenn., and Jack Gerrold, of Tampa, Fla. Honorable mention was made of the boat entered by Miss Kittie Stubbs, of Sumter, S. C.

Following the spectacular water pageantry, a program in which the crowning of Miss Josephine Coman as "Queen Junaluska" and the award of prizes was witnessed by approximately 5,000 people in the amphitheatre.

First and second prizes were silver loving cups, presented by the patronesses, and the third prize, a five pound box of candy was the gift of the Southern Assembly.

Points considered in awarding prizes were beauty and general effectiveness. Judges were Dr. A. W. Anderson, St. Petersburg, Fla., Judge Ivy Hamilton Burney, Fort Worth, Texas, Mrs. T. C. Banks, Lakeland Fla., Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Mason Crum, Columbia, S. C.

Thursday evening, at seven o'clock, saw all kinds of queer craft on the waters of Lake Junaluska mark the annual observance of the water pageant and coronation of Miss Josephine Coman, as Junaluska's queen for 1925. Following in the wake of the big boat "Cherokee" gaily decorated and its upper and lower decks filled with musicians, beautifully gowned patronesses, the queen and her attendants, could be seen boats of many kinds, carrying out in elaborate decorative schemes, all sorts of ideas representing fairy legends, religious themes, strange beasts and birds, tableaux and original conceptions from many lands. There were the graceful swan, the realistic big fish, Venetian gondolas, Indian dugouts, Japanese pagodas, Chinese dragons, and gaily decked canoes and row boats portraying activities of camp and school, all of which together with the thousands of people who lined the banks of the lake to view the spectacle made a brilliant and colorful picture.

After all of the boats had passed the reviewing stand and had been admired by the spectators, the company, led by the Saxon band, of Spartanburg, S. C., went to the auditorium where the gala occasion was concluded by a brilliant program, in which the queen was crowned, prizes awarded, and entertainment furnished for the queen and her court by the children of Junaluska's playground, under the direction of Miss Louise Durham, of Memphis, Tenn., playground supervisor. Music, appropriate to the occasion was furnished by the Junaluska double quartet. Mrs. D. S. Maffett, of Lott, Texas, chairman of the patronesses, crowned the queen and escorted her to her throne. The queen's party entered in elaborate procession, following the announcement by a mounted herald, who rode horseback through the open air theatre.

The queen's entourage included: Herald, Miss Amelia Albergotti, Orangeburg, S. C., trumpeters, Joe and Atkins Shackford, Nashville, James Vann, Birmingham, Billy Coggins, Atlanta, Maids: Misses Mary Morelock, Nashville, Elizabeth Aldrich, Durham, N. C., Kittie Stubbs, Sumter, S. C., Effie May Winslow, Greenville, N. C., Hattie McKay, Asheville, and Sadie Herbert, Bennettsville, S. C., Cherubs: little Jane Stentz, of Lake Junaluska and Shirley Sneed, New Orleans; trainbearers: Betsy Gilliam, High Point, N. C., and David Tillman, Bennettsville, S. C.; crownbearer, David Stentz, of Lake Junaluska, and a group of small girls carrying garlands.

Patronesses occupied box seats on the stage. They were Mrs. D. S. Maffett and Mrs. Gunnell, Lott, Texas; Mrs. Russell Tarr, Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. Geo. R. Stuart, Birmingham; Mrs. J. A. Vann, Birmingham; Mrs. J. B. Ivey, Charlotte; Mrs. Katherine Veach Payne, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mrs. Hoyt M. Dobbs, Birmingham; Mrs. James Cannon, Richmond; Mrs. S. D. Harris, St. Petersburg; Mrs. H. E. Adams, Tampa; Mrs. W. F. Quillian, Mar Andrew Hemphill, Fort Worth, Texas; Mrs. Mary Penner Ketchum, Memphis; Mrs. J. W. Perry, Nashville; Mrs. Olive H. Stubbs, Sumter, S. C.; Miss Pearl Saunders, Nashville; Miss Nell McLeas, Durham; Mrs. J. M. Albergotti, Orangeburg, S. C.; Mrs. F. A. Aldridge, Durham; Mrs. Estelle Woodward, Charleston, Tenn.; Mrs. F. Dudley, Miss Allen Moon, Nashville; Mrs. J. E. Winslow, Greenville, N. C.; Mrs. F. O. Daniel, Durham; Mrs. Lamb of Del Ray, Fla.; Miss Anna Echols, and Mrs. C. K. Ausley, Thomasville; Mrs. J. A. Baylor, Bluefield, W. Va.

It's Easier to Sell in NORTH CAROLINA

The Piedmont—

Famed for bright tobacco, corn and cotton, and more recently for hydroelectric power, spindles, looms and a vast industrial and commercial expansion in which Jefferson Standard money has been of constant assistance.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars annually are being paid to North Carolina widows and orphans by the Jefferson Standard—more than any other single Company!

With Jefferson Standard's fourteen millions of dollars of investments working in practically every hamlet and village in North Carolina, it is only natural that right-thinking Tar Heels should insist, more and more, that their insurance needs be covered with a Jefferson Standard policy.

Doesn't it follow that the policies of this BIG HOME COMPANY are

"Easier to Sell in North Carolina"

We have Agency openings for the right type of men in different sections of North Carolina.

Write to Julian Price, President

JEFFERSON STANDARD LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
GREENSBORO, N. C.

Insurance in force over a Quarter of a Billion

Vance Business College

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Under new Management. Additional Instructors, Modern Courses And Prices within the reach of everyone.

POSITIONS GUARANTEED AND DIPLOMAS ISSUED

Inquire about Our Special Courses.

For any Information Related to Vance Business College
SEE MISS MAMIE CLAYTON
First National Bank Buildings Waynesville, N. C.

Write P. O. Box 1395
Department B.

You Can Double The Life Of Your SHOES CHAMPION SHOE SHOP

E. T. DUCKETT, Prop., Main Street
Prices Are Low Waynesville, N. C.

Miss Harriet Barnes

of the

Carter-Waddell Dance Studio of N. Y.

School of Dancing

In Waynesville, July-August

Tuesdays and Thursdays

at Community Club.

Instruction given in Ballet, Interpretive, Oriental, Stage Step, Russian, Aerobic, National Folk and Modern Ball-Room Dancing.

For Information, Phone Miss Lee, 57

Coach
1075
L. O. L. Factory
Price Six

Beauty-Performance and Price
not one But All three

Look at the lines, finish and trim of the Oldsmobile Six. Then compare it with any car in its field. Then drive the Oldsmobile. Try it first at a walking pace—feel the smooth steady pull of its powerful L-head engine. Experience its remarkable get-away and flexibility in traffic. A look and a ride tell most of the story. The rest is told by Oldsmobile's moderate price—a price which enables you to save much while sacrificing nothing.

OLDSMOBILE

Six
PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

NOLAND MOTOR COMPANY